Young men, you who have never as yet cast your first vote, think well before you cast your vote, you are forming your future destiny. The way you start you will in all probability continue to go, be sure that you start right. Think which of the two great parties has done the most for our country and for you.

Look at the progress that our nation has made under the administration of the Republican party. Look at the gloom and oppression that existed throughout our land under the administration of the Democratic party from 1892 to 1896. Do you want to see that repeated, or do you want to see our nation continue to grow and prosper? If so, cast your lot with the grand old Republican party. No matter what your father has been or what he is now, unite yourself with the party that stands for the upbuilding of our nation and you will never have occasion to regret it.

BEFORE another issue of the ADVOCATE appears we will be called upon to go to the polls and say by our ballot who shall preside over the affairs of our nation for the next four years.

While there are six parties upon the ballot clamoring for recognition, there are only two that are considered in the contest; that is the Republican and Democratic parties. Shall it be four years more of Republican rule and prosperity, or will the people again throw our country into discord and hard times by electing a Democrat as the chief executive?

We think that the people of our county remember too well the soup-house times of Grover Cleveland to want to repeat the dose. There is no doubt but what Roosevelt will be elected by an overwhelming majority if the Republicans only do their duty by going to the polls and voting.

THE Hon. E. J. McDermott charges: "The next President may have a chance to name three Judges of the Supreme Court. If Mr. Roosevelt should name them, they will be men who take his view—that we have outgrown the Declaration of Independence." This, mark you, before a "Lawyers' Constitutional Club," every man in which insists daily upon exactness in terminology on the part of the clients, assistants, court officials and professional brethren. When and where has President Roosevelt declared that we have outgrown the Declaration of Independence? Mr. McDermott cannot name three Republican lawyers of Supreme Court caliber in the whole country who accept or hold such doctrine, or would, on any such condition, take office from any President.

THE Hon. Clark Howell has written an article in "Collier's" on the negro question. There would be no negro question if the Southern bureaucrats would drop the black man as a political issue.

COL. BRYAN'S silver ratio was 16 to 1. His speechmaking ratio is, however, nineteen discourses to one day. So much wind-jamming does it require of a Silver Democrat to apologize for supporting a gold candidate.

So FAR as Democratic bosses in Kentucky are concerned the fight this year is not for the Presidency, but for the United States Senatorship, which J. C. Blackburn vacates March 4, 1907.

JUDGE PARKER, who fired into a Republican fishing fleet on governmental expenses, declines to apologize. He says the fishing smacks fired on him first and hurt his big toe.

TOM TAGGART having, after great carnage, elected Judge Parker for the fifth or sixth time, why not make November 8 Democratic memorial day, flowers omitted.

ONE sure enough doubtful State—that of Matrimony—according to the Protestant Episcopal Convention at Boston and divorce court records everywhere.

No Republican in Kentucky will have done his duty until he goes to the polls on next Tuesday and stamps his ballot in the circle under the old log cabin.

AFTER the election the Democratic party will discover why the campaign was so quiet. The Republican party was pitying the corpse.

Poor Judge Parke! First he talked too little. Now he talks too much. No wonder they kept him muzzled a whole year.

No Republican should fail to vote next Tuesday.
