Messer, J. T. Williamson.

Lewis arrested and took to Barbourville last week a man by the name of James J. Price, caught selling bootleg liquor. THE LITTLE GUY

A very little accident occurred last Friday when the new car owned by Cumberland Iron Works near Little Frank Gibson, a son of D. Gibson, cutting his right limb off at the knee and bruising and maiming him by necessitating amputation between the knee and thigh. The limb was brought from Athens in a special to assist in performing the operation. The little fellow stood the operation splendidly and has a fine chance for an early recovery. The doctors were entirely blameless. Eye witnesses state that the car was trying to go up the front steps of the building and was thrown under the rear wheels of a car. It was a very bad accident and will be a lesson to other children who are in the habit of standing too close to the wheels.

MR. WILLIAMS DEAD

J. W. Williams received a telegram last evening conveying the sad news of the death of his sister, Mrs. D. Williams, of Stroud, Okeana. She died early Monday morning. Relatives in Warren have no news definite as to when her body will reach Barbourville, but in all probability the funeral will be held in the Baptist Church at Artemus Friday morning, interment in the City Cemetery at Barbourville immediately after the funeral services.
