OIL NEWS

OIL MEN — ATTENTION

We have printed 1,000 leases for your use. Mountain Advocate.

No. 2 on the Ike Jones place came in as a good well Wednesday.

The Ken-Flo should bring in No. 1 on the Morris lease this week.

J. R. Lawrence is drilling a second hole on the Disney tract, about a mile this side of Girdler.

Bob Jackson is drilling a well for R. W. Edgett in the Big Richland bottomland should begin casing about Saturday.

Mark Wymond is moving onto the Susan Jackson place. He has deepened the hole on the Miracle lease and is awaiting explosives.

C. R. Dulin, of Lexington, was here Saturday en-route to Clay Co., where he has oil interests. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Esther.

Frank Demetres is drilling a wild-cat well in Christian County. He is down 650 feet and expects to go 1,000 feet. Should a strike be made the field will be greatly widened.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Bolton, of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Ott, of Tekama, T. E. Sample, Omaha, and George Kianikin, of St. Louis, are visiting Barbourville where these gentlemen are said to have acquired leases and will drill for oil.

Another shipment of oil will be made in about two weeks from the oil tanks at the L. & N. Depot. The pipe line connecting these tanks, laid by Warner-Quinlan, runs from Little Richland at the Miracle lease and connects with Big Richland bottom, emptying into the tanks at the L. & N. Depot.

Algin T. Simms was here this week from Lee County where he is drilling, not muscians, but holes in the ground. Algin T. has gone into the oil game and on Saturday experienced all the thrill of milking old Mother Earth of her store of oil. He brought in a 150 barrel well and O Boy! Wasn't it a Gra-n-d and Glor-i-o-u-s Feeling.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATION

On Friday night the High School Graduation Exercises took place and the Auditorium was crowded with relatives and friends. Ten young people graduated, this being the largest graduating class in the history of the school. It was with this class that Prof. H. M. Oldfield started ed out in Eighth Grade and stayed with them up to their graduation.

The musical numbers were splendidly rendered by Mrs. W. C. Black and Miss Ruby Redwitz, the latter playing difficult music in a manner which delighted the audience giving proof of the qualities of the kind of instructress with which Barbourville High School was favored during the past year.

Rev. J. B. Logan, Presbyterian minister from Middlesboro, delivered the Commencement address in which he stressed "Individual Interpretation of Life," urging the young people to become interpreters of the best ideals.

Miss Ora George was the Class Valedictorian, stressing patriotism. Miss Ora holds a record for High School work which was 98 1/2 per cent during her four years of study. She won a scholarship in Union as a result of her high record but expects to go to Georgetown where she will use her knowledge of shorthand.

The graduating class is as follows: Ora George, Ruth Stanfill, Goebel Haun, (who holds a first class certificate,) Harold Miller, Gertrude Turpin, Myrtle Riley, Hugh Miller, Mabel Bolton, Laura Mayhew, May Mayhew.

The majority of the class will go to college.

NEXT YEARS TEACHERS

The teachers elected by the Board of Trustees for City Graded and High School for the year beginning in September 1919 are as follows: H. M. Oldfield, Barbourville, Supt. H. C. Mills, Principal Grammar Grades, DeWitt.

Mrs. Lulu B. Smith, Science, Corbin. Miss Leona Jordan, English, Gate City, Va. Chester Morris, Latin and French, Jarvis Store, Ky.

Mrs. E. Bargo, 6th Grade, Barbourville, Ky.

Miss Olive Williams, 5th Grade, Barbourville, Ky.

Miss Clara Campbell, 4th Grade, Emanuel, Ky.

Miss Jesse Mayhew, 3rd Grade, Barbourville, Ky.

Miss Zela Pelly, 2nd Grade, Columbia, Ky.

Mrs. Gertrude Phillips, 1st Grade, Barbourville, Ky.

W. M. Smith, of Point Level, Garrard County, Ky. is in town visiting his daughter, Mrs. H. C. Mills. Mr. Smith formerly lived at Flat Lick but is now farming at Point Level.

UNION COLLEGE NOTES

On Saturday evening a recital was put on by the students of Union College the program consisting of orchestral music, vocal, piano and expression work. The orchestra is quite an imposing one from the standpoint of variety of instruments and the playing was a revelation as to what may be done in a short time by those who, like Miss Campbell and Prof. Ahler, bring devotion and knowledge to bear in the training of the students, either as individuals or as a complete orchestra.

In the other departments the students did excellently, hitching their wagons to the stars and getting away with the performance. It is evident that the instructors at Union College believe in the best in music and expression and prefer to let the students work up to the ideal, rather than to plod along with the mediocre.

There are some excellent voices in the making and S. Petty Franklin, who has developed a fine voice at Union, will leave two brothers behind him who will uphold the family reputation as singers. Several of the other boys and girls will become good singers or performers on the various musical instruments which Union College offers to its students. The Monday performance was practically a duplicate of that of Saturday.

SUNDAY AT UNION

The Baccalaureate Service on Sunday was one of inspiration with Dr. J. W. Hughes, of Corbin, in the pulpit. An Academy March was part of the service. Dr. Hughes helped "bring up" Dr. Franklin in the way he should go and while still young he is not departing from it. The inspiration which one man may put into the heart of another was shown Sunday when master and pupil joined hands together in their effort to inspire other young lives for Christ.

The Vesper Service in the evening was held under the shade of the beautiful Campus trees. The orchestra furnished music for the singing. The setting was excellent and the "talk" by Rev. O. C. Haas was one which left as an impression the necessity of good works as well as faith.

BASEBALL

Tuesday U. C. beat Sue Bennett and London by a score of 3 to 2 and on Wednesday afternoon, the score was 8 to 4 in favor of Union. Some excellent plays were made though there were a lot of errors.

U. C. GYMNASIUM

On Tuesday Afternoon, following speeches by Dr. E. T. Franklin, Dr. Walsh, of Chattanooga, Tenn., A. M. Decker, who interestingly reviewed the history of Union, Rev. E. R. Overly, Judge S. B. Dishman, R. N. Jarvis, and Rev. F. W. Harrup, the plow was set in motion and a furrow was ploughed where the new Gymnasium will be built.

Rev. F. W. Harrup, in a witty as well as serious address, drew attention to the men who have been instrumental in the upbuilding of Union College.

MICKIE SAYS

lon College. He gave first credit to Rev. S. F. Kelly, later to Dr. Walsh, A. M. Decker, Jas. T. Gibson, Judge B. S. Dishman, R. W. Cole. He prophesied, that with the blessing of Almighty God, the campus would be covered with buildings where our boys and girls may become educated, strong in body, soul and spirit for the upbuilding of the Kingdom of Jesus Christ.

Mr. Wm. Lock, who arrived too late to take part in the furrow turning, is another man who has helped largely to make Union College what it is today.

SENIOR ACADEMY CLASS

Tuesday evening, Senior Academy Class at U. C. had its innings and the verdict of the audience was that it was very clever. The program was flecked thruout with humor, which kept the audience smiling and even kept sleepy children awake — a distinct compliment.

However, the prettiest compliment was paid to Miss Florence Campbell, the talented trainer of the Orchestra, which, after rendering three musical numbers in a most acceptable manner, gave three "rahs" for Miss Campbell, and well she deserves them.

Collie Franklin "pulled" off a stunt thru his nose altho down as Class Kicker. He made his nasal organ deliver a musical selection kazoo style. It brought down the house, metaphorically, of course.

Horace Barker showed his talent as an orator. He has a good voice, perfect enunciation and his theme, "Altruistic America," was a thoughtful discourse.

A piano duo, "Variations," by Misses Marjorie Brown and Mabel Alloway was much appreciated. These are talented young ladies.

The "Class Calendar," by Miss Daisy Robison was humorous and enjoyed by students, audience and Faculty alike. Miss Daisy has a humor of her own.

Miss Thelma Morehead greatly pleased with two vocal selections. She does dialect singing well.

Miss Roberta Cole had a Will she wanted to read and did. It was clever. It was written on a continuous paper and fell in folds on the floor before she finished.

Miss Grace Kennedy has a gift for gifts and as Giftorian raised much hilarity. The gifts were appropriately inappropriate.

Miss Thelma Morehead performed the difficult task of prophesy with conviction.

Collie Franklin got away from his nose in "Arm, Arm, Ye Brave," and sang splendidly.

Miss Mabel Alloway broke forth in poetry, wandered among the simple beauties of nature and back again.

In the Valedictory, by the Class each one gave away his most valued possession to a Junior successor. The Class then "Co-Ca-Che-Lunk-ed" and the most excellent performance was over.

Class Roll — Roberta Elizabeth Cole, Mabel Lester Alloway, Grace Flemming Kennedy, Daisy Stansberry Robison, Thelma Vivian Morehead, Marjorie J. Brown, Collie Lee Franklin, John M. Robison, Horace M. Barker.

GRADUATION EXERCISES

The Graduation Exercises of Union College were attended by a number of ministers from other cities, members of the Board of Education. The Academy March was a picturesque feature and, since Union College is now a full fledged, degree conferring institution, will be a part of future ceremonies.

Piano selections by Miss Wilcox and Mrs. Hudson were greatly enjoyed as was that of Miss Marjorie Brown. S. Petty Franklin rendered "I Fear No Foe" in excellent style.

Dr. O. L. Curl delivered an excellent address which we hope to report more fully next week.

Dr. E. T. Franklin made a happy little speech to each member of the Senior Academy Class whose class roll may be found elsewhere.

Samuel Petty Franklin was the one graduate who will bear the honorable title of Bachelor of Arts and his brother, Dr. Franklin, paid his life and character a well deserved tribute.

Gov. Jas. D. Black will ask Great Britain for the Kentucky Militia Flag captured by that country during the war of 1812.

WILCOX-FRANKLIN

A wedding of unusual interest to citizens of Barbourville took place Thursday, May 29th, when Rev. Samuel Petty Franklin led to the altar, Miss Laura Wilcox, who during the past year has been the talented piano instructress at Union College.

The First Methodist Episcopal Church was beautifully decorated with honeysuckle, pink roses and peonies. The bridal aisle was trimmed with maline and cornucopias of Dorothy Perkins roses. The marriage took place under an arch at the center of the Altar.

Mr. Estill Franklin, brother of the groom, acted as best man, the groomsmen being Messrs. Robert Bennett, Collie Franklin, and Horace Barker. The maid of honor was Miss Agnes Van Hoesen, the bridesmaids being Misses Arva Brady, Ruby Gilbert and Mabel Alloway. The maids of honor were dressed in white organdie, trimmed with pink, and carried bouquets of pink roses and wore pink maline hats.

The wedding song, "Because I Love You," was sung by Miss Brady with cello obligato. Mrs. W. S. Hudson rendered the Lohengrin wedding march as the bridal party entered and the Mendelssohn wedding march after the ceremony. Mrs. Hudson was accompanied on the cello by Prof. Robert Bennett. Miss Arva Brady sang "Cavallera Rusticana" and "I Love You" to soft music thruout the ceremony.

The bride's gown, made en traine was of ivory satin with shadow lace. She wore a tulle veil with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses with white sweet peas.

The ring ceremony was performed by Dr. Franklin, the ring bearer being little Gail Franklin. This was Dr. Franklin's first wedding ceremony.

A delightful wedding breakfast was served by Mrs. Franklin, a la buffet, the menu consisting of chicken bouillon and waffles, creamed chicken and mushrooms, combination salad, cheese and plain sandwiches and olives, apricot sherbet, bride's cake, nuts, mints and black coffee. The bride's table was decorated in white maline and pink roses.

Many beautiful presents were received including cut glass, hand painted china, silver, linen and pictures.

The happy couple will spend their honeymoon at St. Louis, Mo., Wakefield, Va., Boone, N. C., and Cleveland, Indiana, in evangelistic work. Rev. Mr. Franklin doing the preaching and singing and Mrs. Franklin having charge of the music.

Both young people have won their way to the hearts of the people of Barbourville and the Advocate joins with them in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Franklin every joy and happiness as they journey thru life together.

ALUMNUS AND ALUMNA

The Academy Alumni of Union College was organized May 24th. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Robert Faulkner, President, Mrs. Janina Golden, Vice President, Davis Sampson, Corresponding Sec. Nello Jones, Secretary and Treasurer. An efficient executive committee was chosen to carry on the work of the organization.

The membership fee of $1.00 was decided upon for the first year. All graduates of the Academy of Union College are urged to become members of the organization.

As the college department is turning out College Graduates, perhaps soon there will be a College Alumni organized. This, the first meeting, was held at the home of Mrs. T. D. Tinsley and was much enjoyed.

Rev. O. C. Haas.

Rev. O. C. Haas and wife will go to Mt. Vernon, Ind., but before doing so will visit Ashville, N. C., Greensboro, N. C., where they will attend Commencement at the Alma Mater of Rev. Haas, Spring House, N. C., Richmond, Va., and on to the coast by auto. The trip will take about six weeks, after which they will go to Mt. Vernon, Ind., Mr. Haas old home to reside for the next year.

GRADUATES FROM GLEN EDEN

Misses Pauline and Emolva Sampson, of this city graduated at Glen Eden College, New York, on May 27th, with honors. Miss Pauline was president of the Senior Class, while Miss Emolva had the distinction of being valedictorian. This is the second graduation of these young ladies. It is said they are considered by the faculties as very bright, intelligent and superior students.

Immediately after their graduation they, with a party of their friends, chaperoned by Mrs. F. D. Sampson, motored into New York City, where they expect to remain during the summer, during which time they will visit various eastern cities and Atlantic Coast resorts.
