BARBOURVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, JULY 2, 1920

ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS A YEAR IN ADVANCE

FAULKNER-CLARK

A wedding of much interest to prominent families of the town took place at high noon Friday, June 25, when Mr. Robert T. Faulkner, the splendid son of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Faulkner, was married to Miss Mae Clark, the pretty and charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Clark. The ceremony was at the home of this bride's parents, being performed by Rev. R. L. Creal, the bride's pastor.

The young people stood before a bank of ferns, honeysuckle and sweet peas that had been arranged around the south window of the attractive reception room. Sweet peas and red roses filled the pleasant rooms with their fragrance.

The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, with hat to match and a corsage bouquet of sweet peas and lilies.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Faulkner, accompanied by young members of the two families, left in automobiles for Corbin, where they took the southbound train.

Only the immediate families and Rev. and Mrs. Creal were present.

Those who motored to Corbin with the bridal couple were—Mr. and Mrs. John Croley, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clark, Dr. and Mrs. Edward Faulkner, Misses Anderson and Nancy Faulkner, Messrs. Herman Parker, Will H. Faulkner and Master Marvin Faulkner.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank from our hearts all those who assisted in trying to save the life of our husband and father, including Messrs. Walter F. Carr, the aviator, Supt. Smith and Mr. T. H. Haden, Jr., who assisted from outside of town. Also for the many acts of loving kindness which were showered upon us without stint and for the beautiful flowers sent both to our home and the church. While words cannot repay such love, we shall ever treasure the memory of these kindnesses.

Mrs. T. J. Belcher and Family.

TOO FEW CIVIL-SERVICE APPLICANTS

The Civil Service Commission invites special attention to the fact that in examinations held recently in Middlesboro, Ky., and other cities throughout the country for calculating-machine operators, addressograph operators and feeders and posting-machine operators, mechanics and experts, departmental service (Washington, D. C.) apprentice fish culturists, Bureau of Fisheries, and domestic science teachers, Indian Service, applicants were not secured in the number desired, and that these examinations will again be held on July 7.

Persons interested in these or other examinations should apply to the Secretary of the U. S. Civil Service Board at the local post office for detailed information and application blanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Oldfield, who left here for Chicago, are now in St. Louis where Mr. Oldfield is doing research work for various organizations.

STURM-CAWN

The marriage of Mr. Louis Sturm, a business man of Appalachia, Va. and formerly of Barbourville, and Miss Beatrice Cawn, of New York, sister of Sam Cawn, was consummated June 21st, at the Hotel Farragut, Knoxville, Tenn. Rev. I. Winnick performing the ceremony. After a few days spent in Knoxville, the young couple left for New York via Barbourville, to spend the rest of their honeymoon.

Their friends send with them best wishes for a long and happy life.

ALGOT CEDARHOLM

BADLY HURT

Auto Struck By Train—Two Killed

The friends of Algot Cedarholm, former partner of Bert Churchill, will be sorry to hear that he is in St. Luke's Hospital, Chicago, suffering from severe injuries received when the auto in which he was riding with two friends with whom he was visiting at Elgin, was struck by a train. The gentleman, who was driving the car, and his wife were instantly killed and it is a wonder that Mr. Cedarholm was not for he was seated in the middle. His scalp was nearly torn off and the left arm nearly wrenched from his body but he retained consciousness and was able to give names and the address to those who came to help them. They were on their way to a camp on the shore of Lake Michigan to visit Mrs. McDonald, daughter of those who were killed. Altho seriously injured the doctors state that Mr. Cedarholm will recover.

GUYN-SAMPSON

The marriage of Mr. Aubrey H. Gwyn and Miss Mary Dowis Sampson took place at the home of Mrs. Fannie Sampson, mother of the bride, on Tuesday, June 29, at one o'clock. The rooms were decorated in June flowers and ferns. Only a few intimate friends were present.

These young people are very well known in Barbourville both having completed their college course at Union last May. Miss Dowis is also an accomplished musician.

Mr. Gwyn is not only a well established minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church for which he has been preaching for several years, but is also known as a successful business man.

Immediately after the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. S. F. Kelley, grandfather of the bride, the happy young couple left for Cincinnati where they will spend some time. The hearty good wishes of their many friends go with them for a long and happy life together.

SMITH-CANNON

The wedding of Joe Smith, a very popular employee of the Hickory Mill and Miss Dona Cannon, charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Cannon, took place on Saturday at the home of Will Cannon, Heidrick, brother of the bride. Their many friends will wish the young couple every happiness as they travel life's pathway together.

ROOSEVELT ON HARDING

"Harding never makes mistakes!" Thus Theodore Roosevelt once summed up in his characteristically to-the-point fashion, the great fitness of the man whom the Republican party has named to the Presidency. —St. Louis Times.

SIX O'CLOCK DINNER

A six o'clock dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Smith upon the return of their daughter, Miss Anna Mae and her guest, Miss Blanche Smith, of Pineville. Those present were Blanche and Caroline Scent, Lela Vincent, Rebecca Sawyers and Miss Minnie Hopkins, of Corbin.

ERNST HEARTILY ENDORSED BY WOMEN VOTERS

If the women of Kentucky are going to play an important part in the fall campaign as predicted, it begins to look as tho Richard P. Ernst, of Covington, candidate for the U. S. Senate, is going to win in a walk.

Asserting that Ernst has accomplished "great things" for Kentucky, not only in civic enterprises and charities, but also in church work and war work, the women, regardless of party affiliations, are rallying to his banner, announcing their "undivided support."

And this is not all the women are planning to do for Ernst, says a member of the Kenton County Equal Franchise Association.

"We are going to carry the good work right into the men's territory and double and triple the support," she announced.

An idea of what the women are planning to do for Ernst can be obtained from the following indorsements:

"Undivided support" has been promised by members of the Home Protective League of Covington in a resolution that was adopted unanimously. The league is composed of housewives and club women who have joined the organization for bettering civic conditions.

Similar action was taken by members of the Covington Art Club, which comprises some of the most prominent women in Northern Kentucky.

"Heartily indorsement" was offered by the Covington's Woman's Club. The resolution said in part:

"In indorsing the candidacy of Richard P. Ernst, the members wish it understood that said indorsement is given on account of the principles and standard of citizenship represented by him and not because of his party politics."

The Kenton County Equal Franchise Association, in indorsing Ernst added: "Be it further resolved: That all movements looking to the education, civic and social well-being of the city and state have always had prompt and generous support from Ernst, and believing his election would guarantee to the State of Kentucky and the County of Kenton whole hearted interest and impartial service, we call upon all members and friends of good government to honor Ernst and themselves by sending him to the United States Senate."

NEW IDEA OF SELLING WOOL FOR THE ENTIRE STATE

The Department of Markets, of the College of Agriculture, originated the plan of pooling all the wool in the State into one large central pool. The popularity of this idea is well demonstrated by the fact that applications have been made for wool growers from Ohio and Indiana to have their wool in this sale. The State Auction will be held in a tobacco warehouse in Lexington, June 23th. Some thirty counties in the State have pooled their wool which is being graded by expert graders using government standards. Fifty pound samples will be submitted from each county at the central auction and there the buyers will have the privilege of bidding on about 750,000 pounds of Kentucky's wool.

Evelyn, Pauline and Baby Gregory, daughters of Rev. and Mrs. W. P. Gregory of Louisville, came in on the early train Wednesday morning surprising their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gregory. Their many young friends will be glad to welcome these young ladies for the summer vacation and it is safe to say there will be something doing.

BAPTIST DISTRICT MEETING

The yearly Conference of the Baptist Women in the Southeastern District of Missionary Union work was held at the Baptist Church here on June 23rd. The program began at 10:30. Dinner was served in the Sunday School rooms and the afternoon session closed at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. W. E. Hunter, of Somerset, wife of the pastor of the First Church at that place, being vice-president of the District, presided.

The hour before lunch was given to Mrs. Janie Cree Bose, of Louisville, Corresponding Secretary of Kentucky's W. M. U. Mrs. Bose possesses a wonderful charm as a public speaker and moves the hearts of her hearers as few women can. She was taken out of Kentucky during the recent 75 million campaign at the request of the Southern Women and made the principal speaker throughout the South at women's meetings. Kentucky women are justly proud of their Corresponding Secretary—both because of her consecration and her ability. Any missionary program that bears Mrs. Bose's name provides a rich treat for her audience.

Other speakers were Mrs. Hunter and Mrs. W. L. Walker, wife of Rev. Walker of the First Church at Danville. Mrs. Walker is the Chairman of our Mission Study work. She is a charming speaker. Mrs. Brock, of London, and Mrs. F. D. Perkins, of Harlan, led the Devotional Exercises. Mrs. Harry Lee Thornton, wife of Rev. Thornton, of London, was one of the speakers.

The Southeastern District is composed of 23 Associations, mostly in the mountain section. Our people in this section are being aroused to the fact that in order to do things for God they must understand the needs and know what to do; so it is coming to pass that our finest men and women are opening their eyes to the wonderful response of these mountain people, and more speakers and workers will enter the field.

Mrs. Bose will visit two Associations near Barbourville this summer. Every woman who can hear her should do so. It is an opportunity to learn about God's work among Baptist women that should be regarded as a serious thing.

Among the town visitors at this meeting were many Methodist ladies among them being Mrs. R. B. Cramer, of Union College, who gave us a much appreciated talk on Rural District Missionary Work; Miss Scott, Methodist missionary to Burma, was also present and made a talk.

The churches of the S. E. District represented were—Harlan, Middlesboro, Pineville, Somerset, Danville, London and Barbourville.

The visitors were entertained by the Barbourville W. M. S.—Contributed.

HICKORY MILL CHIPS

The Old Hickory boys are getting their full enjoyment out of the Redpath Chautauqua this week.

Mr. T. W. Minton spent Monday in Tennessee and had to leave his horse and chickens for a day.

Look for the base ball write up this week.

On Saturday evening, June 26th, at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Chelsie Broughton, Joe Smith was married to Miss Dona Cannon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murphy Cannon of Barbourville. Joe is one of our faithful boys and we think lots of him. We all extend to them our good wishes and trust that this Barbourville boy and girl will have many years of happiness.

The new office is now finished and waiting the return of Miss Nola, who is at present enjoying herself in Chicago.

Readie Miller is wearing a baby cap—he must be thinking of matrimony.

Jason Mayes came down here Saturday morning with a big smile and announced the arrival of a baby girl at his house.

Mrs. T. W. Minton is at home now and is feeling much better after three weeks under the direct care of her physician in Cincinnati.

N. C. Robbs, the sawyer, and John Woollum have their hair cut to the skin ready for the big battle with the logs.

Messrs. Edwards and Schroeder were discussing last week the advisability of getting wigs for the bald-heads. They better wait till cold weather.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and relatives who stood by us so faithfully in the last sickness and death of our dear father, W. L. Brown, which occurred on June 23rd, 1920. The Children.

DEPUTY SHERIFF SHOT

E. L. Lyttle, deputy sheriff, living in Sunshine, was shot and mortally wounded while chasing some moonshiners up on Poor Fork about two miles from this city.

The moonshine party consisted of one man and two women, mounted on mules, and as Lyttle demanded their surrender another man stepped out of the bushes and shot him in the back. The party then all made their escape and up to the time we go to press nothing had been heard concerning them. It is thought the two supposedly women might have been men dressed in women's clothing.

Lyttle was taken to the Harlan Hospital where it is said there is absolutely no chance for his recovery —Harlan Enterprise.

OLD HICKORY'S BATTERING RAM STILL WORKING HAVOC

Saturday the game between Old Hickory and Pleasant View was so one-sided, some 22 to 3, that there was little zest in it. Sunday they defeated Corbin by a score of 6 to 4 in a seven inning game. Corbin evened up somewhat by defeating Wilton.

REPUBLICANS RECORD ON SUFFRAGE

"The Republicans are pledged to see the right of suffrage given to the women of the country under the law," declared Representative Simeon D. Fess, in the House of Representatives before adjournment of Congress. "The very first act of this Congress, by an overwhelming vote, was the enactment of this reform. There were 204 votes on this side of the House for it with but 18 against it, or the ratio of 11 to 1, and on the other side not sufficient to mention. 44 of the Democratic votes for it came from Republican States. Subsequently 29 Republican states have ratified it and not a single Republican state up to date has rejected it. Eight of the 29 did not cast a single vote against it in either House or Senate. Six Democratic states have ratified it and six have rejected it."

Dr. and Mrs. I. A. Arnold, of Louisville, were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. John G. Tye last Thursday. This was their first trip to our city and they were delighted with it and its surroundings. Dr. Arnold was one of the principal speakers at the Tri-County Medical Association meeting held at Corbin and the doctors accompanied by their wives, made the trip over to our neighbor city by auto.

J. B. Campbell made a hurried trip to Cincinnati the last of the week.

CIVIC LEAGUE MEETING

On account of the regular meeting day coming during Chautauqua, the League met one week earlier, June 24th, at the pleasing home of Mrs. W. S. Hudson, on Knox Street, for the musical part of the History program. There was a large number present and after a short, informal business session the following program was rendered:

Columbia the Gem of the Ocean, by Woman's Chorus.

Rock Beside the Sea.—Vocal Solo by Mrs. Kate Ballard.

Flower Song.—Piano Solo, Mrs. W. S. Hudson.

Carry Me Back to Old Virginny — Woman's Chorus.

Vocal Solos—(a) "Lorena," (b) "Paul Vane or Lorena's Reply," by Mrs. R. L. Creal.

Piano Solo—Massa's In the Cold, Cold Ground, Mrs. H. H. Owens.

Juanita.—Woman's Chorus led by Mrs. Ballard.

Medley—Old Kentucky Home, Old Folks at Home, Old Black Joe, Dixie, Home, Sweet Home, by Woman's Chorus.

Woman's Chorus was composed of Mesdames Ballard, Creal, Cramer, Hudson, Cannon, Miller and Owens. The old flag, treasured by all Barbourville, was unfurled during the singing of Columbia. All of the numbers were given in the style of fifty years ago and altogether the program was very pleasing. It is hoped to repeat both the program and the display of relics at a latter date and at such a time and place that the public can attend.

An interesting fact is that the sheet of music from which Mrs. Ballard sang "My Lone Rock By the Sea" is fifty-four years old.

Mrs. J. R. Tuggle made a report on the possibility of a Public Library for Barbourville, and she was appointed chairman of a committee to look after this most interesting possibility. The committee will be known as the Public Library Committee.

A very pleasant social half hour was spent after the program during which the hostess served iced tea and sandwiches, assisted by Mrs. Lusk and Walter Cole Hudson, Mr. Turnbow, of the Redpath Chautauqua, and Robert W. Cole were guests. The next meeting will be with Mrs. W. B. Minton, on College St., on Thursday, July 15th, at 3 P. M.

Hughey L. Tanksley, special agent of the Bureau of Census, was here Monday and spent most of the week securing schedules of manufacturers' names and quarries. Mr. Tanksley is a courteous gentleman and took great pains to straighten out what to most of the uninitiated is a most entangled subject. Mr. Tanksley's home is at Manchester.

Now comes Congress and proposes to increase the tariff on beans. We fully expect that Secretary Daniels will see in this another attack on the navy.—Portland Oregonian.

Mrs. Guerdon Butts has returned to her home in Williamsburg after visiting Mr. Edward Faulkner.

An Interesting Fact About A Savings Account Is-- that it starts thrift habits which cannot be concealed. The habit of saving shows itself in everything you do. Bankers base credit largely on confidence, and confidence shows plainly in the faces and acts of those who save.

Bankers are always ready and anxious to assist those who have confidence in themselves and save regularly a part of their income.
