ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS A YEAR IN ADVANCE

F. M. MAXEY
Announces For Sheriff of Knox County

In announcing my candidacy for the office of Sheriff of Knox County I beg to say that I stand first of all for a strict enforcement of law and order. If elected, I will do my utmost to bring back into respect the honor of the law and will try to maintain it there. With law, we stand at the topmost peak of civilization: without law and justice, we fall to make those standards of civilization, honesty, justice and righteousness which have been bequeathed to us by Anglo Saxondom and which have been won over the forces of evil in many a hard fought fight.

If elected, I promise that the citizens of Knox County shall have the privilege of selecting the deputy who shall serve their own district. If such choice shall prove unfortunate, a report of a lack of duty shall bring about dismissal, providing the charge is proved.

Having served as Sheriff elsewhere, I am in a position to give full satisfaction along any line of duty called for, including the clerical end of the work which is important.

I shall appreciate the influence as well as the vote of any of my friends and acquaintances in Knox County and assure them that, if they elect me to the office of Sheriff, they will have no cause to regret their support.

Sincerely yours,
F. M. MAXEY.

COL. JOHN WATHEN IN BARBOURVILLE

Col. John Wathen, of Lebanon, Ky., was here this week on business. Col. Wathen is one of the high class Kentucky Colonels. In days of long ago a Kentucky Colonel could drink a quart of whiskey and still walk straight; good for what he agreed to do but never did it. But Colonel Wathen is an exception to this. He has always been a strong temperance worker, a splendid citizen, and always good for what he agreed to do.

Col. Wathen was made Colonel on Gov. Knott's staff in 1880 and is now post master at Lebanon.

DECORATION DAY

Led by the Union College Band, the ex-service men, old and young, Civil War, Spanish-American War, and World War, on Monday wended their way to the City Cemetery where lie the honored dead who have fought and died for their country, or who, having fought, have lived out their lives of usefulness before resigning themselves to the quiet of the earth.

On arrival at the cemetery the band played several patriotic airs, after which Rev. D. E. Allen led in prayer.

Mrs. John O. Gross sang a patriotic song which she composed during the war, rendering the same with splendid verve and feeling.

Rev. John Owen Gross delivered the address, which was full of fine thought and was an inspiration to those who heard him to be better Americans even than they were before.

After a tribute to the dead and an appeal to those who are still young to enforce respect for the laws of the Republic, Rev. S. F. Kelly delivered the benediction and the soldier boys decorated the graves of their comrades with the flowers contributed by the citizens.

Before this was done Bart S. Reid read the following list of soldier dead who lie in our cemetery.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH LADIES AID MEETING

The Christian Church Ladies Aid met in regular order on Friday, May 20th with Mrs. Costello quite a good membership being present. Mrs. Albright opened the meeting by reading the 19th Psalm, followed by Mrs. Costello leading in the Lord's prayer. Then followed a most interesting business session. Mrs. C. A. Steele and Mrs. T. J. Belcher, who attended the Sunday School Convention at Jellico, Tenn. as delegates, made good reports on various subjects concerning church work. Both reported a most pleasant trip.

The Aid will have a food sale on Saturday, May 28th to which all are invited to make it a success.

The next regular meeting will be on Friday, June 3rd, at the home of Mrs. Barner and if the weather is suitable will take the form of a picnic party.

After the business session a most pleasant social hour passed and the hostess served delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake.

A THRILLING MOMENT

Dr. Leslie Logan took his very valuable life in his hands on Wednesday when he got into Dr. Wigginton's basket, one passenger motor cycle with an inexperienced driver. Almost before they knew it the old thing had broken from its moorings in front of the doctor's office, bucked across the street, entered the Court House grounds, bounced in, out and over trees and finally with a flourish landed the much shaken doctor, halless and almost without dignity, in front of the Jones Hotel. The friends of the doctor who had the privilege of seeing the stunt exacted a promise from him that he never, no never, would ride as a passenger in or on a basket motor. These coils are dangerous animals.

SEWER RIGHT OF WAY NOW SIGNED UP

The City of Barbourville has just signed a contract with James S. Golden and Judge B. B. Golden for a right of way thru the land below the Public Square and North Main Street for the building of a sewer to the creek. This will do away with the existence of an open sewer or two which now endanger the public health. Dr. G. H. Albright, to whom the credit of pushing this important work is largely due, asks that the citizens who are now connected with these open sewers and who have already formed an organization to build a sewer will proceed with the work as quickly as possible. The City Engineer, J. R. Murphy, has already measured the distance and given an estimate of costs at the figures prevailing at that time.

Little by little, Barbourville is passing into the ranks of those little cities which stand for cleanliness and sanitation.

We congratulate the City Council for putting the right of way thru and also Dr. Albright for his persistence in the matter.

So come and bring others.

A NICE TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cawn, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Michaelson, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Mealer, and M. Sherman of Baltimore motored to Corbin on Sunday where they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Marenbloom and some others and the whole party went on to London where they were joined by others. A picnic at Rockcastle river near East Bernstadt completed a perfect day.

The Barbourville party ran over a hundred miles during the day. Jimmie and Helen Cawn stood the trip beautifully. Jimmie evidently taking the jolts of the car like a veteran.

NIGHT POLICE PROTECTION

We have been authorized to state in answer to the question on whom would one call for assistance if in trouble, that Bert Catron has a phone, No. 62, and K. F. Davis has one also, No. 210, and these two officers are ready to answer any and all calls. Your lives and property are under their protection so far as is humanly possible.

LOGAN HOSPITAL NOTES

Clarence Branstutter has made a good recovery from his recent operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. Will Messamore, who underwent a serious operation last week, is doing nicely.

WYRIK FOR SHERIFF ENDORSED BY JUDGE EARLY

Those persons who know of the splendid record which Mr. E. J. Wyrick, candidate for Sheriff of Knox County, made while he was Marshall of Corbin, Ky., are unanimous in their opinion that Wyrick is the man for Sheriff at this time.

After open saloons had been voted out of Corbin, Ky., there arose in that city a spirit of lawlessness and a wave of crime swept over the town very much the same as is prevalent in Knox County at the present time. The City Council and Mayor could only retain marshalls and policemen for a short time until they were intimidated and would be compelled to resign, leaving the law abiding citizens in great need of protection for their lives and property.

Realizing the conditions the City Council sent for Mr. E. J. Wyrick, who at that time was a citizen of Corbin, on the Knox County side, and knowing him as they did, they asked him to take the place of Marshall of the city and requested of him that he arrest certain desperate characters that had been outraging the community. Mr. Wyrick accepted the position, and in a fortnight the bad actors of that city were safe in jail and as soon as their term of imprisonment was out they moved their scene of action to other quarters and Corbin was left a peaceable and quiet community again.

Below is a letter from Judge R. A. Early, of Corbin, which is a testimony to the honesty, integrity and courage of Mr. Wyrick:

"To the Citizens of Knox County: I understand that E. J. Wyrick, now a citizen of your county, is a candidate for Sheriff to be voted for at the August Primary. I wish to say he was a good citizen while he lived in Corbin, and was and is yet a good Republican. He is always at his post to vote for and stand by the party.

And I wish to say he is a business man. I always found him on the square. It fell to my lot to do quite a lot of contracting work in Corbin in building houses etc. He is a contract man to the very mark and I never had a cents difference with him in settlement.

Further, he was Marshall for the City of Corbin for a good while and I always found him ready to execute all papers placed in his hands fearlessly and without prejudice to friend or foe, always cool headed and to a business point. I earnestly believe that if he should be elected he would make your county a good reliable Sheriff.

Yours respectfully,
R. A. EARLY, J. C. P. C.
