

One Thing Well Done
T. H. BYRD
Registered Optometrist and Optician
S. E. Corner of Public Square
Barbourville, Ky.
SPECIALIZING

Practice Limited to Correction of Defects of Eyesight by the Fitting of Proper Glasses

Personal Mention

REWARD OF THE RIGHTEOUS: Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace.—Psalm 37:37.

The chigger is abroad in the land.

G. W. Hammons, Girdler postmaster, was in town Monday.

R. L. Wheeler, coal operator of Artemus, was a Monday visitor.

Miss Ethel Campbell, of Grays, spent Monday in town.

Miss Louise Buck was ill last week with a touch of pleurisy.

Corbin defeated Artemus by a score of 7 to 2. Good ball playing.

Steve Wilson of Artemus, was in town on business Monday.

Myers Clark, of Corbin, was here Monday.

M. Cannon is handling fruits and vegetables for J. J. Castellini.

John Lickliter, of Swan Pond, was in town Monday.

Mrs. G. M. Ryder left Tuesday for a stay in Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Watson, of Corbin, motored over Sunday.

Caleb West and G. L. Blair caught a thirteen pound catfish Monday.

Sam Cawn will spend a few days at French Lick next week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Releford, a girl Saturday.

W. H. Jackson, of Grays, was a Monday visitor.

Dr. J. J. Clopton held Episcopal service here Sunday and was the dinner guest of Mrs. L. P. Brown.

Miss Ethel DeLong has joined the Advocate force and will learn the mysteries of the linotype.

Miss Emily Minton, of Maryville, Tenn. has been the guest of L. L. Richardson family for some days.

G. M. Richards, of the C. & M. R. R., spent a few days in Cincinnati last week on company business.

Quite a number of out of town visitors attended the dance at Dishman Springs Saturday night.

Contracts were let in Middlesboro Saturday week for five new school buildings.

Mrs. Mahan, County Court Clerk, who has been quite ill, continues to improve.

In the recent tubercular clinic held at Corbin it developed that 21 out of 77 inspected were tubercular.

Miss Evelyn Black has returned from a two weeks visit to Knoxville, Tenn.

Mat Hale has commenced building his new bungalow. J. E. Dosier is doing the work.

D. W. White, of Manchester, passed thru Barbourville en-route home Monday.

I. H. Buchanan, coal operator of Horse Creek, was here for the week end.

Miss Francis Tate, of Stanford, is visiting Miss Mary McDermott at the Springs.

Mrs. George F. Tinsley was the week end guest of Mrs. C. P. Kennedy at Dishman Springs.

G. L. Blair, of Swan Pond, was here Monday with a load of chickens for Dishman Springs.

Mrs. John Westersfield, of Clovis, New Mexico, spent the week end with Mrs. Oscar Mealer.

Tilden Shelton of Swan Pond, who is suffering from typhoid fever, is improving nicely.

Mrs. Fanny Sampson has been suffering with a very sore finger which had to be lanced several times.

Miss Daisy Robison came in Sunday from Louisville and will be Miss Roberta Cole's guest thru July.

Sam Cawn was in Harlan Sunday and Mrs. Cawn went over to Corbin to accompany little Miss Dollie Sherman and Master Paul Finstein here for a visit.

Mrs. G. J. Faulkner, of Knoxville and twin sons are visiting home folks this week.

Josh Faulkner is working with an engineering crew near East Bern stadt.

Charlie Jones who was buying hogs and cattle last week, reports a dull market.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Edwards and Clarence Frederick motored to Corbin Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Vincent have returned from a trip to Nebraska and Missouri.

Tanlac has been publicly indorsed by more well-known men and women than any medicine on earth.—Cut Rate Drug Store.

Miss Lillie Smith opened Swan Pond school Monday with a good attendance. The school will run for seven months.

Mrs. F. M. Gibson and son, John H. Gibson, of Richmond, have been in King a week with J. B. Logan who is quite sick.

Dr. I. T. Catron of Atlanta, Ga., came over Saturday to see his aunt, Mrs. W. W. Cecil, who is ill. He will visit home folks for some time.

Dr. W. B. Minton returned Monday from Clay County en-route to Maryville, Tenn., and reported six additions to the church.

Little Jack Cole has been quite sick with scarlet fever but is now on the road to recovery. No further cases have developed.

Miss Mary Miller has returned from a three weeks visit to Richmond where she visited her grandparents, aunts and uncles.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Minton gave a dinner at Dishman Springs Sunday in honor of Miss Roberta Cole and Miss Daisy Robison.

I. L. Shelton organized a Sunday School at Yeager school house Sunday with sixty present, the largest number for some months.

Dave Ballard did the wiring of the Logan Hospital this week and Jim Hinkle is now putting in the plumbing.

Tanlac renders the body vigorous and elastic and keeps the mind clear and elastic.—Cut Rate Drug Store.

John W. Faulkner of the sanitary Grocery has bought the Moore heirs home on Depot Street and is remodeling it.

Willie Tye was operated upon last week Thursday by Drs. Tye and Rowland for appendicitis and is doing fine.

The Union Service in the Public Square was splendidly attended Sunday night, Rev. Gross preaching a fine, helpful sermon.

The minister who eloped with a young woman because he found his salary too small to support a family of nine children, not only lacks honor but humor.

Mrs. Nimrod Detherage and her sister, Miss Lucy Hornsby left for Athens, Tenn. Saturday, for a stay of some weeks. Nim Detheridge will join his wife later on.

Prof. Chas. E. Ahler, of Atlanta, who has been visiting friends, left Saturday for Ertawah on his way to Atlanta where he will teach this year.

Miss Bertha King is enjoying a summer course in Columbia University, New York City. She and several others are enjoying life in an apartment as bachelor maids.

Mrs. Hugh Oldfield was quite ill and confined to her home the first of the week with a bad cold from which it was feared pneumonia might result.

A house party from Pineville, chaperoned by Mrs. Rice Johnson, and a party from London, chaperoned by Mrs. Boering, spent the week end at the Springs.

There are a number of holes in the asphalt in the Public Square and in other streets that should be fixed as they are continually getting worse. A little work now may save a good deal later on.

Mrs. Lillie Lowe, of Atlanta, Ga., who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Kennedy at Dishman Springs is visiting friends here in town.

The Brush Creek Jitney Line out of Artemus to Warren is handling a big passenger business. This is a fine trip for the week end into beautiful mountain scenery.

Deborah Ryder is visiting Sarah Flake Cunningham at her home in Paige, Ky., to which she recently returned after a two week's visit with Bernice Humfleet.

Where two Chicago city judges were necessary before prohibition went into effect, only one is now needed now and it was recently noted that he was thru by noon.

Mrs. James D. Black, who has been seriously ill during the past three weeks, is now able to sit up a part of the day, which is pleasing news to her many friends.

Two teaspoonsful of Tanlac in a little water, taken three times a day just before meals, will make you eat better, feel better, sleep better and work better.—Cut Rate Drug Store.

Williamara Minton, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burman for some weeks, returned Saturday to her home in Maryville, Tenn. Bertha Burman accompanied her and will remain some weeks.

We have a handsome Court House but it is beginning to look shabbily genteel. A good overhauling and some paint with an electric light on each of the stairs would give it a fresh start in life.

Judge E. G. Stooksbury, Juvenile Court Judge of Knoxville, Tenn., wife and little daughter, came over Thursday and are spending their vacation with the Deckers on Main street.

The annual conference of the M. E. Church will convene here Sept. 27, for one week. The pastor has already begun securing homes for the visiting minister laymen. Those who are expecting to entertain the visitors are asked to advise how many they can take care of.

Miss Diana Smith, of Barbourville Kentucky, who is a Freshman in Georgetown College, was one of the twenty-four out of a class of 144 to be given Honorable Mention for grades last semester. Miss Smith did not fall below "C" in any subject.

Rev. John Owen Gross is visiting relatives in Covington and vicinity, after which he will spend some time in Canton, Ohio, where Mrs. Gross is visiting her father. Rev. O. G. Reagan, district superintendent, will fill the pulpit during his absence.

The Real Estate Firm of G. L. Dickinson & Co. reports the remarkable sale of 537 lots, already sold during July. This was at the close of business July 15th. If they sell as many lots during the remainder of the month it will mean 1074, but they hope to sell 2000 lots in July.

At the Siler Lot Sale conducted by G. L. Dickinson & Co., of Barbourville, there was a crowd of 200 to 300 people present. The lots, some fifty in all, were all sold. The prizes given by the company for the prettiest girls were won by Alice Hood and Pearl McCowan. Siler Partin won the prize for the ugliest man and Millard Partin's baby won as the prettiest baby. The sack race was won by Homer Moore. Several of the lots were re-sold at a nice profit.

Kiwanis, Hotel Jones, 7 p.m. Be there.

Mrs. W. F. Geyer, who was seriously ill, is now happily improving.

Maurice Black is working with Ray Ballard, city engineer.

Lynn Golden, of Pineville, was in town Tuesday on business.

Mrs. E. N. Matthews is quite sick with tonsillitis.

Mrs. Ion Carroll is very ill at her home in Bowling Green.

Miss Annie Miller, of Wise, Va., is the guest of her cousin, Miss Pearl Miller, on College Street.

Mr. and Mrs. DeLyden, of Chicago were with Mrs. Minnie Riddell last week. These are old time friends who had not met for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. DeLyden, of Chicago were with Mrs. Minnie Riddell last week. These are old time friends who had not met for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. DeLyden, of Chicago were with Mrs. Minnie Riddell last week. These are old time friends who had not met for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. DeLyden, of Chicago were with Mrs. Minnie Riddell last week. These are old time friends who had not met for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. DeLyden, of Chicago were with Mrs. Minnie Riddell last week. These are old time friends who had not met for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. DeLyden, of Chicago were with Mrs. Minnie Riddell last week. These are old time friends who had not met for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. DeLyden, of Chicago were with Mrs. Minnie Riddell last week. These are old time friends who had not met for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. DeLyden, of Chicago were with Mrs. Minnie Riddell last week. These are old time friends who had not met for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. DeLyden, of Chicago were with Mrs. Minnie Riddell last week. These are old time friends who had not met for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. DeLyden, of Chicago were with Mrs. Minnie Riddell last week. These are old time friends who had not met for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. DeLyden, of Chicago were with Mrs. Minnie Riddell last week. These are old time friends who had not met for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. DeLyden, of Chicago were with Mrs. Minnie Riddell last week. These are old time friends who had not met for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. DeLyden, of Chicago were with Mrs. Minnie Riddell last week. These are old time friends who had not met for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. DeLyden, of Chicago were with Mrs. Minnie Riddell last week. These are old time friends who had not met for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. DeLyden, of Chicago were with Mrs. Minnie Riddell last week. These are old time friends who had not met for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. DeLyden, of Chicago were with Mrs. Minnie Riddell last week. These are old time friends who had not met for many years.

FOR REAL ECONOMY In the Kitchen USE

CALUMET The Economy BAKING POWDER

A Big Time and Money Saver

When you bake with Calumet you know there will be no loss or failures. That's why it is far less expensive than some other brands selling for less.

BEST BY TEST Don't be led into taking Quantity for Quality

Calumet proved best by test in millions of Bake-Day contests. Largest selling brand in the world. Contains only such ingredients as have been approved by U. S. Pure Food Authorities.

The World's Greatest Baking Powder

Charlie Cole is Kiwanis chairman tonight.

Mrs. D. Edgar Allen returned on Tuesday from a visit to her father at Nashville, Tenn.

Lawson Miller is putting down a concrete pavement in front of his dwelling on Sycamore street.

Hugh M. Oldfield has lost a rate book with special rates in it. He will be grateful for its return.

Guy L. Dickinson has bought one of the Minton lots on Sycamore St. and will build on it at once.

The bandstand dedication will be held Saturday night, W. H. McDonald speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barner, of Wallins Creek, were week end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Hawn.

Mr. Kiwanian, remember your buddy tonight, Friday.

Some 75 houses have been built in Barbourville during the past year which we call going some.

Harold Miller, who has been doing special laboratory work at the Louisville hospitals, came in Tuesday.

Dr. Leslie Logan accompanied Ed Smith to St. Joseph's Hospital, Louisville, where the latter will undergo treatment for empyema.

Miss Ruth Owens and little Miss Dorothy Owens have returned from a visit with their sister, Mrs. Ethel Metcalf, at Ertawah, Tenn.

Dave Goodin and Willard Smith, of Corbin, were in town Monday. They are taking a forced vacation on account of the railroad strike.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Herndon are now settled in the house of C. P. Kennedy, on College Street, formerly occupied by R. H. Newitt.

Mrs. W. S. Nicholson, of Ertawah, Tenn., is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. D. Tuggle. Mr. Nicholson was a week end guest.

Louis Hawn was the guest of his uncle, Walter Barner, at Wallins Creek last week and enjoyed a hunting trip.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Faulkner, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Oldfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Swearingen, of Louisville, were dinner guests at Dishman Springs last Tuesday.

T. W. Minton states that his horses will never show at fairs where the management is out for a dividend by putting on a vulgar carnival and calling it their county fair.

Mary, Lucy and Francis Garrard, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Garrard, and Evelyn Garrard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Toulmin Garrard, spent the week with relatives in Clay County.

Charlie Cole is having a pretty porch built on his home on River Street. It will be of marble stucco and will be one of the prettiest in town when completed.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church will sell lunches and all kinds of refreshments at the School Fair—ice cream, cake, candies, sandwiches, coffee, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Swearingen left for their home in Louisville after a pleasant visit with Mrs. Catherine Swearingen, Mr. Swearingen's mother, and sisters, Mrs. Hugh Oldfield and Mrs. Edward Faulkner. They left here in their car Thursday morning at 6 o'clock spent one hour at Danville and arrived at their home that afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Dr. J. S. Locke in speaking of the importance of the tubercular clinics, states that three young mothers, with children under one year of age, who were examined at Corbin are suffering from the disease and two of them are again to become mothers. They had attributed their weakened condition to nursing their babies and were unaware that they were in the grip of tuberculosis. He states that fully half the cases examined at Corbin had had tuberculosis at one time or another and that the fact that they have recovered their health is very heartening for those who may have the disease.

A clean back yard delighteth the eyes of the passers.

Misses Irene and Ruby Lynch returned Monday from Lebanon where they have been visiting friends and relatives.

According to the daily press the people of Corbin are beginning to worry as to the result of their action in refusing to sell food to the men who have taken the places of the strikers. They are afraid that the L. & N. R. officials may show their displeasure by taking away the shops which would be a serious loss to the city. It is a case perhaps of killing the goose that laid the golden eggs. Meanwhile Williamsburg is active in trying to secure the shops.

SONG BALLADS

With Music

By W. J. KELLY

"I'm His Little Child"

"The Gospel According To You"

35c each per copy

Orders taken at

Mountain Advocate

Giving Him His Due.

"Oratory is a gift, not an acquirement," said the proud politician as he sat down after an hour's harangue. "I understand," said the matter of fact chairman. "We're not blamin' you. You did the best you could."

Remember that The Star Store has for you the best merchandise that can be had for the money. Always something new and stylish. We have reduced the prices on our beautiful summer dresses.

THE STAR STORE

Shoo

The High Cost of Living by having your shoes repaired by the speedy, up-to-date methods and with the good leather used at

The City Shoe Shop