A PARABLE.

By RUDYARD KIPLING.

Handyard Kipling, born at Bombay, Dec. 20, 1865, and now residing at Hurstville, Sussex, England, the famous author of many Anglo-Indian stories, of the "Jungle stories," and of pen pictures of the British army, has also won fame in the poems he has written.

A rose in tatters on the garden path
Cried out to God, and murmured "against his will."
"Because a sudden wind at twilight's hour
Has smothered her, and alone of all the roses
And flowers she bears both smothered and dead."
"And I play, whispering to that luckless one."
"Sister, is that thou sayest we did not well,
What voice heardst thou when thy petals fell?"
And the Rose answered, "In that evil hour
A voice said, 'Father, wherefore falls the flower.'
For lo! the very gossamers are still!"
And a voice answered, "Son, by Allah's will."
Then softly as a rain mist on the upward
Came to the rose the answer of the Lord:
"Sister, before we smote the dark in twain,
Ever yet the stars saw one another plain.
Time, Tide, and Space we bound unto the task
That thou shouldst fall, and such an one
Shouldst ask."
Whereat the withered flower, all content,
Died, as they die whose lives are innocent.
While he who questioned why the flower fell
Came to hold of God, and saved his soul from hell.

Tax Notice.

All persons who have not been advertised and who have not paid their taxes will save the cost of garnishes, levies, commissions, etc., by settling at once. The new law compels me to collect in full before I can give bond for another year. While I regret very much to put you to this extra cost, I will be compelled to do so to save myself.

Respectfully,
J. A. SHAVER, Sheriff.

Tobacco Market of Kentucky.

HOPKINSVILLE, KY., Feb. 2.—Last week was another busy season on the local tobacco market. Especially was this true of the loose sales, which broke all preceding records for the season. The cold and windy weather of Friday and Saturday put an end to the trading though as all the moisture was taken out of the weed by these conditions and it is entirely too dry to handle.

Of the 1907 crop the Planters' Protective Association sold 36 hogsheds the demand being very light during the week. Sales for the month were heavy amounting to 628 hogsheds, which leaves 1,397 hogsheds on hand at this point. Under the recently reduced schedule of prices, the tobacco is selling as follows: Lugs, common, $5.50 @ 6.00; medium $6.00 @ 6.75; good $6.75 @ 7.25; fine $7.25 @ 7.50. Leaf, common, $6.50 @ 7.50; medium $7.50 @ 8.50; good $8.50 @ 9.50; fine $10.00 @ 11.50.

On the loose floor sales amounted to about 450,000 pounds, sales being held each day except Saturday, and the rush being so great at times that the employees were unable to handle the receipts. Since the loose floor opened on January 6 about 1,000 pounds have been sold at prices ranging: Lugs $3.50 @ 6.50; leaf $6.50 @ 12.25. These prices have been very satisfactory.

Six steers strayed from the range near here all branded with "B" on left hip. Any information leading to their recovery will be liberally rewarded. B. M. BROOKS, jn21 4t Slaughterville, Ky.

Housebreaking and Robbery at Powderly.

The general merchandise store of Mr. Clayton Waters, at Powderly, was broken into and robbed early Tuesday night. Mr. Waters went to his home near by at 7 o'clock, closing the store for the night. A boy passing the place soon afterwards noticed the front shutters open and the window up, and he at once ran for Mr. Waters. The burglars evidently heard the calls of the boy, and were gone when the proprietor appeared. With them they took seven pairs of shoes and some overalls, all that Mr. Waters has been able to miss. The value of the stolen property was about $25. There is no clue as to who did the job.

Notice to the Public.

If persons living near the street arc lamps—or any person—will call telephone No. 1 or No. 248, in case the lights go out, the matter will be given immediate attention. J. A. GILMAN, Mgr.

Greenville during the past few years has dropped back greatly in the matter of schools. Once a center for pupils from this and many other states, we are now in such a deplorable condition that thousands of dollars are spent annually by parents on their children who are sent away that they may secure training.

Notice to File Claims.

All persons having claims against the estate of Matilda T. Martin, deceased, are hereby notified to present the same, properly proven, to me, as administrator, for adjustment. EDGAR D. MARTIN.

Cattle Strayed.

There will be a mass meeting of the citizens of the town, and all patrons of the public school in this district, at the court house next Monday night. Men, women, and children are all invited. Important measures will be discussed, and it is hoped that everyone will attend. Greenville is very much in need of a better school, and an effort is to be made to secure it.

Friends here have just been informed of the death of Mr. E. W. Doss, which occurred at his home in Sedgwick, Ark., on January 29. Mr. Doss was a native of this county, where he has many relatives. He left here about fifteen years ago, and has lived at various places in the west. Interment was at Sedgwick, where he leaves a widow.

The most practical chair that has ever been made is the automatic, on display at Roark's. Nothing like it ever seen here. Call and have a look.

The Lecture-Recital.

This unique combination of the functions of lecture and concert pianist, original with Mr. Perry, is meeting a general need, and finding universal favor throughout the country. Mr. Perry's purpose in adopting the Lecture-Recital is two-fold: first, to add to the benefit derived by students from listening to his programs, and second, to popularize the best in pianoforte music with the general public. The method he employs is to preface each number of a carefully selected program with a brief verbal analysis, calling attention to its origin, form, salient characteristics, and descriptive or emotional significance. The result is, while saving to music students and amateurs information and suggestions of value to them from an educational standpoint, at the same time to render composition intelligible and consequently enjoyable to every listener, even to those who have not the least technical training in the art. No one who possesses or desires to possess any degree of musical culture, can afford to miss the opportunity of becoming better acquainted with the masterpieces of the great tone-poets presented by Mr. Perry on February 19 at the opera house.

The skating rink is open afternoons and evenings, and is drawing well.

Brizendine is overloaded on tomatoes, and as long as they last is offering 2 pound cans at 7 cents a can.

In sickness, if a certain hidden nerve goes wrong, then the organ that this nerve controls will also surely fail. It may be a Stomach nerve, or it may have given strength and support to the Heart or Kidneys. It was Dr. Shoop that first pointed to this vital truth. Dr. Shoop's Restorative was not made to dose the Stomach nor to temporarily stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. That old fashioned method is all wrong. Dr. Shoop's Restorative goes directly to these failing inside nerves. The remarkable success of this prescription demonstrates the wisdom of treating the actual cause of these falling organs. And it is indeed easy to prove. A simple five or ten days test will surely tell. Try it once, and see! Sold by all dealers.

Said to be Fine.

Few people here know that you can cure the dread American disease Rheumatism, with just common everyday drugs found in any drug store. The prescription is so simple that any one can prepare it at home at small cost. It is made up as follows. Get from any good prescription pharmacy Fluid Extract Dandelion, one half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking in a bottle and take in a teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime. These are simple ingredients, making an absolutely harmless home remedy at little cost.

Rheumatism as every one knows, is a symptom of deranged kidneys. It is a condition produced by the failure of the kidneys to properly filter or strain from the blood the uric acid and other matter, which, if not eradicated, either in the urine or through the skin pores, remains in the blood, decomposes and forms about the joints and muscles, causing the untold suffering and deformity of rheumatism.

This prescription is said to be a splendid healing, cleansing and invigorating tonic to the kidneys, and gives almost immediate relief in all forms of bladder and urinary troubles and backache.

Dr. A. Lewis is considerably improved, and it is hoped will soon be up.

I. C. Excursion Rates to Lincoln Centenary Services.

The I. C. will give a round trip rate to Hodgenville at one fare plus 25 cents, on account of the Lincoln centennial memorial and dedication of the Lincoln monument on Feb. 12. Arrangements have been made to stop train 104 at Cecilia, where direct connection will be made for Hodgenville, and returning train 103 will stop here about 1:15 midnight, so that persons will miss but one day from home. It is thought there will be many persons attending from here and nearby. Presidents Roosevelt and many other notables will attend and participate in the exercises.

Greenville now has a first class skating rink, and the public is appreciating the enterprise displayed by the promoters in this furnishing such delightful sport.
