

HOME BAKED FOOD,
fresh, good, wholesome, economical. Readily made with

Royal Baking Powder

No Alum
No Lime

L. C. R. LOCAL TIME CARD.

| NORTH BOUND.                       |          |
|------------------------------------|----------|
| No. 123 Louisville Express         | 11:25 am |
| 124 Cincinnati Express             | 1:24 pm  |
| 125 Louisville Limited             | 4:08 am  |
| 126 Central City                   | 7:15 pm  |
| SOUTH BOUND.                       |          |
| No. 127 Paducah and Cairo          | 5:15 am  |
| 128 Fulton Accommodation           | 12:40 pm |
| 129 New Orleans Special            | 5:40 pm  |
| Nov. 22, 1900. W. G. CRAWFORD, AGT |          |

Local Mention.

SPRING BOEM.
(Adapted by C. M. L.)
Glad ab I that sprig has cut;
Dow the little bees will hub,
Ad the robins in the tree,
Are softly slight wings to be,
But this song of sprig bust close,
So the pote cab blow his dose.

Give us your job work.

$10 for correspondence.

Eggs are a drug on the market, sure enough—only 15c. a dozen.

Dog poisoners, after a rest of a few weeks, have been at work again.

See the very latest thing in carpet sweepers at Roark's.

Easter services at the churches last Sunday were well attended.

Mr. Lawrence Younts, of Hopkinsville, was here on a legal visit Monday.

Give Pittman Bros. your meat orders. New shop, best service.

Mr. A. Y. Martin, of Paducah, was here Saturday and Sunday with his parents.

Look out tomorrow. It is all fool's day, and you may be trapped by some joker.

Telephone No 5 and your laundry will be called for and delivered.

The time is at hand to clean the yard and lawn, make the flower beds and trim the shrubbery.

Mrs. Kate Withers, of Earlington, was an attendant at the funeral and burial of Mr. Sam Arnold.

Fine line of electros, and stock bills quickly handled at this office.

Mr. J. A. Jonson came over from Madisonville Sunday, spending a few hours with his home folks.

The barefoot boy has appeared; in fact, several appeared almost simultaneously a few days ago.

Dr. Bray has a new electric dental engine, and is prepared to do better work with less pain than ever before. m31 2t

Mr. W. G. Duncan and wife, who have been at many points in Florida for several weeks, are expected home today.

The many friends of Mr. James Durham are glad to see him about again, and hope he will be entirely restored to health and activity.

High Class Vaudeville, specialties between acts, in "A Wyoming Girl" Co. at Opera House on April 5th.

As warm weather approaches, there is a demand for extensions to the water lines, many sections desiring this great convenience.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wickliffe will arrive today, after a visit of six weeks in various Florida resorts, where they have had a pleasant time and gained much in health.

Mr. Samuel Marshall Arnold Dies.

Greenville lost one of its oldest citizens Sunday night, when at 7:30 o'clock Mr. Samuel M. Arnold died at his home on Main street, after an illness of just a week, a sufferer from ailments incident to his age, he being in his 80th year. Few men in Muhlenberg were better known than the deceased, and he had a wide circle of friends. He had lived here for about 40 years, and during his period of activity was a prominent factor in commercial circles. He was a member of the Methodist church, and his funeral was conducted by Rev. Lewis at the home at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, interment following in Evergreen cemetery, a large number of relatives and friends attending both services. His wife and five children: Mr. Edward Arnold of Louisville, Miss Lena Arnold, Mr. Marshall Arnold and Mrs. Frank Lovell of this place, and Mrs. L. E. Littlepage of Madisonville, survive. In their sorrow they are joined by a wide circle of relatives and friends.

Gone From Earth to Heaven.

Annie Campbell Harbin, age 17 years 6 months and 8 days left us to join the angels on March 24, 1910, at the home of her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Harbin. At the age of fifteen months, on account of a prolonged illness of her mother, she was taken to their home and has since made that her home and has her parents. As a child her life was one of good deeds and love. Her friends were numbered by every one she came in contact with. When she arrived to the years of accountability it seemed that almost her first desire was to give her heart and life to God, and she was very soon converted. She was unusually intelligent and had great faith in our Heavenly Father. A life too pure for this world, just blooming into womanhood, one we felt we needed to cheer our desolate path, has gone to Him who said "I go to prepare a place for you." Let us prepare to meet our God and little Annie with our lives washed pure with the blood of Christ.

Funeral services were conducted at the Baptist church by Rev. Mahoney, and interment took place in Evergreen cemetery.

MRS. CHAS. BAKER.

Mr. John Woods, a well known farmer, died at his home near Hiley's schoolhouse, Monday morning, from the effects of a partial paralysis, from which he had suffered for about two years. Deceased is survived by his wife and five children. Interment was in the cemetery at East Union Tuesday afternoon, and was largely attended. Many friends in that section of the county mourn the loss of a good citizen.

Chas. J. O'Malley, editor of the Catholic World, of Chicago, died in that city last Friday, from a stroke of paralysis, without warning. Mr. O'Malley was 47 years of age, and was born in Union county, this state. He was well known here, where he frequently visited Gen. Don Carlos Buell at his home at Airdrie, and was with the general at death, accompanying the remains to St. Louis for burial. Many personal friends here join a wider circle who admired this lovable man.

Delightful vocal and instrumental music will be heard at the opera house Friday night, when the Dixie Concert Co. will give one of its entertainments.

Have you a ring or other jewelry, some silverware, cane, umbrella or other item that you want engraved? Take it to Roark, and the work will be done quickly, in best manner.

Mrs. O. C. Roll entertained a number of her friends in an old-fashioned quilting at her home last Thursday. Considerable work was done, but every guest was well repaid by the magnificent dinner and splendid time that was had. It was one of the most enjoyable and decidedly the most unique function of the season.

If you want to spend a pleasant night, go to the Opera House on April 5th. and see the Wyoming Girl Co.

THE BIVOUAC OF BROWDER'S DEAD.

(By AMY M. LONGEST)
With Apologies to Theodore O'Hara.

1.
The shrill mine whistle's note has blown
The miners' last work call
No more these men shall hear its tone
Who did at Browder fall,
On Death's eternal mining ground
Their silent rooms are made
And sorrow guards with solemn round
The graves in which they've laid.

2.
No rumor of the strike's approach
Now swells upon the air,
No troubled thought at night enroaches
Of loved ones in despair,
No vision of the morrow's strife
The miner's dream awakes,
No leaving children, home and wife
As soon as daylight breaks.

3.
Their shivered picks are set with rust,
Their weary heads are bowed,
Their mining lamps are hid in dust,
They only need a shroud,
And piteous funeral tears have washed
The black stains from each brow
And their strong forms by conflict gashed
Are free from anguish now.

4.
The drill machine, flashing pick
The powder's stirring blast
The shot, the circular hard rough hick
The tin and noise are past,
No digging coal with back bent lox
Shall sap their strength and might
Those forms that never more shall know
The struggle of the night.

5.
Like the fierce northern hurricane
That sweeps the broad plateau,
Flushed with the triumph yet to gain
Came then the mines' great foe
Break through the coal beneath
Knew well the miner's doom that day
Was gas into their death.

6.
A doubtful struggle had been waged
Against that fatal gas
But work was scarce, for strikes still raged
Among the laboring class,
So these men daily risked their lives
In order to maintain
Their little ones and loving wives
Who long for love in vain.

7.
Full many a northern heath has swept
O'er Browder's hill and plain
Since loved ones wildly moaned and wept
O'er thirty-five in death there lain.
A widow's cry a child's voice still
Are heard along the way
And echo from each sudden hill
That frowned on that dread day.

8.
Sons of the dark and gloomy mine
Sad, sad has been your fate
You little knew of life's sunshine
But toiling long and late
An honest living you just earned
Though joys you were denied
While those of wealth your presence-purged
And martyrs you have died.

9.
This "neath their parent turf they rest
Some near the awful mine
That held them closely in her breast
Till Death made them resign.
The sunlight of their native sky
Shines sadly on their there
And kindred eyes and hearts watch by
The miner's sepulcher.

10.
Rest on embled and saluted dead
Dear is the life ye gave
No impious footsteps here shall tread
The heritage of your grave
Nor shall your sad fate be forgot
While Death her record keeps
Or labor points the hallowed spot
Where valor sadly sleeps.

There were more horses on jockey al they here Monday than seen for many moons. Some several of them were disreputable looking, showing a hard winter and poor attention. One peculiar fact was brought out by a representative of THE RECORD, who made the rounds of the offerings, and was able to find only one horse whose age was given by the owner at more than a dozen years. One horse was reported to be thirteen years old, but the average was about nine years.

$25 REWARD.

The above reward will be paid by me for the arrest and conviction of the person who poisoned my dog.

A. W. DUNCAN.

Mrs. Jennie E. Roark, accompanied by her grandchildren, Carol Jonson and Mary Elizabeth Roark, will leave Tuesday for a visit of a month with her sister, Mrs. Arthur M. Swain, at Rock, Kansas. Mrs. T. J. Morgan, of Nortonville, and Mrs. Willie Iglehart, of Sacramento, will also be members of the party.

Mr. Wm. B. Jenkins and Miss Elleree Spriggs, of Elizabethtown, were married at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. W. C. Spriggs, here, at 10 o'clock last Wednesday morning. Rev. G. B. McDonald, the officiating clergyman, performing the ceremony in the presence of a few intimate friends. The couple will make their home in Elizabethtown, and carry with them the best wishes of many friends.

The Dixie Concert Co. entertainment at the opera house tomorrow night promises one of the most delightful occasions of the season. Every member of the company is an artist, and a rare treat is in store for everyone who attend.

DIXIE CONCERT CO.
LaMeade Opera House, Friday Night April 1.
A GREAT TREAT FOR ALL MUSIC LOVERS
ADMISSION. - 25, 35 and 50 Cents

OPERA HOUSE
ONE NIGHT ONLY
TUESDAY, APRIL 5
C. F. Daum presents the young Talent of Soubrette
DAISY HAZELTON

A WYOMING GIRL
Supported by a Company of Sterling Actors
The play will be produced with new and scenic effects, grand electrical displays, new and novel stage mechanism, beautiful and appropriate music.
Our High Class Vaudeville Specialties between acts are a feature.
No long waits between acts.
The play will be produced with new and scenic effects, grand electrical displays, new and novel stage mechanism, beautiful and appropriate music.
Our High Class Vaudeville Specialties between acts are a feature.
No long waits between acts.
Seats on sale at Countale's Drug Store
Prices - 25, 35 and 50c.

Garden and poultry are receiving more attention from town folks than ever before known. Some people who have no more than 100 square feet of ground are doing intensive gardening, and those fortunate to have the least outlet are raising chickens as well as garden truck.

Look out for the joker tomorrow.

The thermometer has ranged around the 80 degree mark for several days.

Mr. Frank Arnold, of Earlington, was here Tuesday to attend the burial of Mr. Sam Arnold.

Lost—Between W. O. Belcher's residence and the Methodist church, a fine gold chain with locket, a band of gold set with rubies and pearls. Finder please return to Miss Rosalie Hartfield and receive reward.

Mrs. C. M. Howard, who has been seriously ill for some days, suffering from grip and a complication of ailments, was better yesterday.

Evergreen Cemetery Co. will be glad if the party who borrowed the mole trap last Saturday or Sunday will return same at once, as it is needed.

School books for all grades can be found at the new store of Leslie Hale, and school supplies of all kinds, also.

Mr. Sampson Dukes has not been gaining lately, to the regret of his many friends, who had hoped that with better weather his improvement would follow.

Miss Frankie Richey and Mr. Frank Humphrey, of Central City, were married by Rev. G. B. McDonald in his parlor at 3 o'clock last Wednesday afternoon.

Don't on any account, miss the concert by the Dixie Co. at the opera house tomorrow night.

A poem "The Bivouac of Browder's Dead," from the pen of Miss Amy M. Longest, appears in this issue, and is a production that will appeal to our readers. Miss Longest has during the past several years contributed, at intervals, to these columns, and her productions have been appreciated by us and by our readers.

A Beautiful Coronet Hair Braid and How to Get One.

Send sample of hair and $5.00 to Miss Georgia Bishop The Madisonville Milliner and Hair Dealer, and we will send direct to you a Good Quality wavy, long coronet braid that reaches around the head, which is the very latest style of dressing the hair. If, for any reason you should not be pleased we will refund your money upon return of braid.

Reference, any Bank or Banker in Madisonville, Ky. 24-27

MISS GEORGIA BISHOP, Dealer in Millinery and Hair Goods.

Silence!
The instinct of modesty natural to every woman is often a great hindrance to the cure of womanly diseases. Women shrink from the personal questions of the local physician, which seem indelicate. The thought of examination is obnoxious to them, and so they endure in silence a condition of disease which surely progresses from bad to worse.
It has been Dr. Pierce's privilege to cure a great many women who have found a refuge for modesty in his offer of FREE consultation by letter. All correspondence is held as sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Dr. J. J. K. Y.
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription restores and regulates the womanly functions, abolishes pain and builds up and puts the finishing touch of health on every weak woman who gives it a fair trial.
It Makes Weak Women Strong, Sick Women Well.
You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of KNOWN COMPOSITION.

Dixie Concert Co. Tomorrow Night.

The Dixie Concert Co. is to be heard with much pleasure and profit. I have been in touch with the leading quartets of the South and West for the past fifteen years and will say that the Male Quartet in this company compares well with the best ones. Mrs. Foster has an unusually sweet voice and always delights her hearers with good selections. The Reader, Miss Boyd, is an artist in her line. I hope for this company a great success which it justly deserves.

W. L. HARN,
Prof. Music, St. Louis, Mo.

This company will be here at the opera house tomorrow night, and our people will miss a rare treat if they do not hear the concert. Press notices and personal recommendations from all over the country are highly favorable.

$10 for correspondence.

Mr. John T. McIntire was here from Madisonville the first of the week, mingling with old friends.

The development of leaf and bloom has been more rapid and is earlier than ever known in this section.

A Wyoming Girl

Miss Daisy Hazelton, who is starring in the part of "Scissors", gave a beautiful and picturesque creation of a true western girl. The lights and shades of the untutored girl were handled with great care, and her devotion to her weak minded father received much merited applause.

Miss Lillian Douglas, who plays the part of "Helen Denver, the School Marm", gave a strong dramatic portrayal of the part. Her scenes with the Mexican, her divorced husband were particularly strong and worked the audience to a high pitch of excitement.

Mr. William LeRoy, who plays the part of George Washington Augustus Nilbs, is certainly the best black face comedian that has appeared here for many years.

Lack of space will not allow us to individualize the entire cast, but suffice to say the supporting company are capable actors and handle their parts with strong dramatic effect.

The specialties between acts are the best line of vaudeville.

Mr. C. Fred Daum, the general manager, will always find a hearty welcome should he play a return date here.—Rushville Banner.

Low Rates West, via Monon Route.

From March 1st to April 15th, tourist tickets at very low rates will be sold by the Monon Route from Louisville to the West, Northwest and Southwest, embracing Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Mexico, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Washington, Wyoming and Western Canada. The fare to San Francisco will be $37.20 and to Portland $37.30.

Full information cheerfully furnished at Monon Route City Ticket Office or by addressing E. H. Bacon, D. P. A.

Arrested on Charge of Insulting a Woman.

Pete Duncan and Harrison Brown, two colored men who lived at Cleaton, were brought here Tuesday afternoon by officers on complaint of Mary Jane Johnson, a white woman, who alleges that while walking along the railroad track near Cleaton she was approached by these men, who made insulting remarks to her. The negroes deny the charge, and are out on bail of $250 each, which they readily gave. They have good reputations, and have never been in trouble of any sort. From the actions of the complainant, who appears nervous and laboring under a severe mental strain, it is thought by some that the woman may be mentally unbalanced. The examining trial will be held tomorrow.

$10 for Correspondents.

Prospects have been good for rain for a few days. A gentle shower would do considerable good, now.

The Wyoming Girl Co. is pronounced by Press and Clergy as a moral and instructive performance.

Don't miss it at Opera House Tuesday night, April 5th.

A New and Interesting Book.

We are just in receipt of an unusually attractive circular announcing a very unusual book—"The Stark Year Book for 1910"—which is now being sent out by Stark Bro's Nurseries & Orchards Co., the famous nurserymen of Louisiana, Mo. The book contains 116 pages, 32 of which are four-color process reproductions of fruit in nature's own colors—the most natural, like to nature illustrations we have ever seen. The other 84 pages are devoted to full descriptions and prices of the various fruit trees, shade trees, ornamentals, vines, plants, roses, small fruit plants, etc., grown by Stark Bro's.

Any of our readers who are planning to plant a home orchard or to increase the beauty of their home grounds by planting shrubbery, roses or other plants this spring, should by all means send for the "Stark Year book for 1910." It really is a remarkable volume—one you will thoroughly enjoy looking through because of its exceeding beauty and one you will find very practical and helpful. Stark Bro's have advised us they will send this beautiful book to anyone interested, on receipt of 7 cents to cover postage. Address them at Louisiana, Mo. 10 4t.

Some theology appears to hold that God gave man a reason and then a revelation so that one might keep up a fight with the other.

SALESMAN WANTED—To sell groceries, Druggists, Confectioners; $125 monthly and expenses. California Cider and Extract Co. Leffingwell, St. Louis, Mo.

Give Miss Lena Arnold your laundry; she represents Metcalfe, of Hopkinsville, one of the best plants in this state.