PRESIDENT PLEASED
 Says Election Results Are Gratifying to Him.
SEES NOTHING DISCOURAGING
 "The Showing Has Been an Improvement Over What It Was Four Years Ago and Eight Years Ago," Says Statement Issued From White House.
 Washington, Nov. 8.—The following statement was given out at the White House today:
 "The president regards the result of the elections as extremely gratifying. He has sent a letter of hearty congratulation to Mr. Hines on the result in San Francisco.
 "The victory in New Jersey was precisely what happened in the first election, in the middle of President McKinley's administration. He had carried New Jersey by 58,000, and two years afterward the Republican candidate for governor had 590, the vote being cut down but as happened in the case of Judge Fort.
 "The showing in the elections next preceding the last presidential election, we have done decidedly better than we did in 1903. Then, as Tuesday, Rhode Island and Maryland went against us, but this year we have won a sweeping victory in Kentucky for the first time since McKinley's first election; and the victory in Massachusetts was also remarkable.
 "The showing in Pennsylvania and Nebraska is equally good. Moreover, the showing in New York state as a whole was excellent, far better than was the case prior to the last presidential election.
 "The result in Manhattan was due to purely local causes as shown by comparing it with the decisive triumphs in Brooklyn, Buffalo, Albany and in the state generally.
 "The president's own home county of Nassau made a better showing than it ever has in an off year.
 "As a whole, the showing has been an improvement over what it was four years ago and eight years ago."

JAPAN IS FRIENDLY
 Foreign Minister Hayashi Announces Attitude to U. S.
FLAYS THE JINGO PRESS
 Emphatically Denies the Stories of Friction and Says Relations Are Cordial As Ever—Immigration the Only Trouble.
 Tokyo, Nov. 8.—The official silence so long consistently maintained by Japan on the subject of the relations of the United States and Japan in connection with persistent reports of friction, was broken by Minister of Foreign Affairs Hayashi in an interview. That full weight may be given to the latter view, it is proper to state that it was granted by the foreign minister only after long consideration of the propriety of an official statement at this time.
 Mr. Hayashi prefaced his statement by expressing the hope that a sincere understanding between the foreign minister of Japan and its publication would prevent further misrepresentation and result in discrediting those who are constantly circulating false and harmful reports.
 He said he spoke not only as foreign minister, but as representing the sentiment of the entire cabinet and the public.
 The minister said that the relations between Japan and America were as smooth and cordial as ever and the cause of civilization as well as a community of interest demanded their last-mentioned friendship.
 He admitted that the immigration question was the most serious matter and was apparent in the public mind, but he was positive that it would be settled without friction. Already it virtually has been decided.
 The Japanese government proposes to control immigration in such a manner as to benefit Japan and at the same time conform to the wishes of the American government, and is taking active steps in this direction.
 The foreign minister believes that Japan will be able to solve the question in this manner, it requiring only the patience of the people of both countries.
 "One thing certain is that the Japanese government is not solicitous for the immigration of its people into any country."
 "The only thing causing doubt in the public here," said Mr. Hayashi, "is the immigration question, but far from being unduly exercised, the people of Japan are satisfied to rest the case, in full confidence that it will be adjusted in a manner worthy of both nations; the fair-minded people of America, who have earned the name of a pre-eminently just and liberal policy in the extreme east during the last half century."
 "According to reports from various sources, the Japanese government is not solicitous for the immigration of its people into any country."
 "The only thing causing doubt in the public here," said Mr. Hayashi, "is the immigration question, but far from being unduly exercised, the people of Japan are satisfied to rest the case, in full confidence that it will be adjusted in a manner worthy of both nations; the fair-minded people of America, who have earned the name of a pre-eminently just and liberal policy in the extreme east during the last half century."
