Will Save 40 Per Cent Of Your Fuel Bill

The celebrated Hot-Blast Down-Draft creates perfect combustion, the gases and fumes (40 per cent. of the heating power of wood), ordinarily escaping unburned up the chimney in other stoves, are all consumed and turned into heat in the WILSON. The Wilson is the only heater in the world, which actually burns all of the fuel put into it. The WILSON is air-tight, heat can be regulated to any degree, and will hold a fire for 36 hours. ## T. R. MEETS TAFT

Goes to New Haven and Talks Politics.

DISCUSSED NEW YORK MIX-UP

The President Says His Sympathies Are With Colonel Roosevelt in His Fight Against the Bosses.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 20.—Colonel Roosevelt came to President Taft for aid in his fight against the bosses in New York state. The conference took place in New Haven, where President Taft had gone to attend a meeting of the Yale corporation.

The colonel made no specific request for action on President Taft's part, but it was apparent that he and his friends had sought the conference for the moral effect that it would have in the New York state contest.

The president made it clear to Mr. Roosevelt that he is in sympathy with his fight against the bosses, but he also told the colonel plainly that he would not mix up further in the New York state situation. He told Mr. Roosevelt that he would stand squarely on the letter which he had written to Lloyd C. Griscom after the meeting of the Republican state committee in New York city. Later President Taft told the newspaper correspondents that in his opinion his sympathy for the Roosevelt forces was clearly shown in this letter.

Will Endorse Taft.

The reiteration by President Taft of the sentiments expressed in the Griscom letter was not, however, the only important development that followed the New Haven conference. It is certain now that the Taft administration will be endorsed in its entirety by the Saratoga convention, even if the Roosevelt forces are in control. On the other hand, however, there will be no endorsement of President Taft by the New York state Republican convention for renomination in 1912.

In conformity to the president's own desire, this will leave the field open so far as New York state is concerned between him and Mr. Roosevelt for the Republican nomination for 1912 if Mr. Roosevelt has any thought of trying for it.

The action of the Saratoga convention either toward the endorsement of the Taft administration or of Mr. Taft's candidacy for renomination was not mentioned in the conference between Mr. Taft and Colonel Roosevelt, but Otto T. Bannard, who is a Taft man, but is flitting with Roosevelt-Griscom forces, is authority for the statement that the Taft administration will be endorsed en-toto at Saratoga, but that there will be no action by the convention in reference to Taft's renomination.

Doesn't Seek Endorsement For 1912.

President Taft's own attitude toward an endorsement by the New York state convention for 1912 is that it is a bad practice to inject into the middle of an administration a political factor of this character. He believes in going ahead and being president for four years, and then, if his friends and the party are satisfied with his administration, he will be nominated; if not, he will be content to retire.

One other thing stands out as a result of the meeting between President Taft and Colonel Roosevelt, and that is President Taft's views are clearly known on the subject of direct primaries. The president endorsed the Cobb direct primary bill as amended by the Low-Choate memorial.

This is the proposed direct primary legislation finally accepted by Governor Hughes, which provides for the nomination of congressmen, state senators and assemblymen by this method. The president told Mr. Roosevelt that he is in sympathy with this proposed legislation and added that he believed the New York state convention ought to nominate a man for governor who is in sympathy with the legislation. Here, again, however, Mr. Taft emphasized the attitude that he had outlined for himself in the Griscom letter, which included a reference to direct primary legislation. Whether Mr. Taft's views on limited direct primaries coincide with Colonel Roosevelt's is not known, but it is believed they do.

LINA MUST FIGHT

Chandler's Lawyers to Take Away Her Power.

PROMISES ALL SHE WILL GET

Papers Have Been Drawn Up Revoking Power of Attorney Given Mme. Cavallieri by Her New York Husband.

New York, Sept. 20.—Within two days Robert Winthrop Chandler or his attorneys will file a paper with the county clerk of New York, revoking the power of attorney he gave Lina Cavallieri to collect the hundreds of thousands he pledged her in their famous ante-nuptial agreement.

In the contest between the American lawyers of Chandler and the French attorneys retained by the diva, the Americans have found another loophole, and when Cavallieri gets here to "take over" her "dot" she will find that Chandler has left her nothing at all except pretty promises of all his wealth, without even the semblance of a chance to make them good.

Lina to Sail Soon.

Mme. Cavallieri-Chandler is about to sail for New York with the full expectation that "Shortie Bob" will rush back to her arms and importune his trustees and his family to make a "decent settlement" at least. She imagines, despite his debts that she never knew about, that she still has a chance to win out by $5000 or $10,000 a year any way, even if the Chandler family remain obstinate and refuse to donate a cent.

But it happens that E. E. Perkins, the lawyer of the Chandler estate, and Mr. Harris, the personal lawyer of "Big Bob," held a long and important conference.

They agreed that the income from nine-tenths of the property "Bob" tried to give Cavallieri couldn't be collected by her in many months, because it had been willed to him for purposes of income only.

Income Tied Up.

They also agreed that his income from this property was so badly tied up in debts that Cavallieri couldn't even get a shot at it until many more months of litigation have come by.

Lina would be an old woman when she got it; though she might obtain dribbles by paying out three times as much as she got in constant litigation every year.

Then Mr. Perkins suggested to Mr. Harris that since the whole agreement depends for its execution upon the power of attorney it would be a simple little plan to put an absolute stop to the beautiful Cavallieri by getting Chandler to revoke the power of attorney which gave her the alleged power to collect.

The interview that followed with Mr. Chandler was not one of smiles and pretty words. But it went the way the lawyers wanted it to go. "Bob" gave in, revoked everything he could revoke, and the lawyers will file it before Cavallieri can get here by way of shutting off her last opportunity of pocketing any of the Chandler fortune at all.

MARRIED ON TRAIN

Elopers Have Minister Tie Knot Between Stations.

Rochester, N. H., Sept. 20.—An elopement of a well known young couple of this city, with a marriage ceremony performed on a train, has caused great interest in social circles here.

The principals were Miss Lucia M. Greenfield, aged nineteen, and Harold W. Saunders, aged twenty-one. Miss Greenfield, without the knowledge of her parents, took a train and met Saunders at Ossipee, where the marriage license was procured. The young man had secured a minister, who performed the ceremony in a parlor car as the train was proceeding to the next station, two passengers acting as witnesses.

HEIKE SENT TO PRISON

Sugar Trust Secretary Must Serve Eight Months and Pay Fine.

New York, Sept. 20.—Charles R. Heike, former secretary and treasurer of the American Sugar Refining company, who has been called "the man higher up" in the sugar trust under-weighing scandals, was sentenced by Judge Martin in the United States circuit court to serve eight months in Blackwell's island and pay a fine of $5000 on conviction of conspiring to defraud the United States.

Judge Martin granted a stay of execution of the sentence pending an appeal to the United States circuit court of appeals. The court also reduced Heike's bail, which had been $25,000, pending sentence since his conviction last June, to $15,000.

Heike's sentence is the culminating point in the federal government's prosecution of American Sugar Refining company officials and employees growing out of the extensive under-weighing frauds on the Williamsburg docks of the trust, brought to light by Richard Parr's famous raid on the docks in 1907.

Sherman's Brother a Democrat.

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 20.—Word was received here that Richard W. Sherman, of Utica, brother of Vice President Sherman, will be a candidate for state engineer and surveyor at the Democratic state convention Martin Schenck, of New York, a former state engineer, will also be a candidate.

SENATOR BRISTOW.

President Appoints Postmaster Named By Insurgent Leader.

PROGRESSIVES GETS OFFICE

Man Favored by Senator Bristow Appointed Postmaster at Salina, Kan.

Salina, Kan., Sept. 20.—George M. Hull, a progressive Republican, has received a letter from the first assistant postmaster general, notifying him of his appointment by President Taft to the position of postmaster at Salina.

The appointment was dated Sept. 15, the day a letter was issued from Beverly saying that the president intended to be impartial in his attitude towards progressives and regulars in distributing patronage.

President Taft had reappointed T. D. Fitzpatrick, the incumbent, as postmaster, but the senate failed to confirm the appointment. Congressman W. A. Calderhead, who recommended Fitzpatrick for the place, was defeated for renomination by a progressive at the Republican primaries.

This is the home of United States Senator Bristow, who recommended the appointment of Hull. Bristow is one of the senators from whom patronage was withheld previous to the recent primary elections throughout the country, the results of which caused a change in the president's policy respecting appointments.

WOMAN HELD FOR MURDER

Man Shot Through the Back Was Found in Her House.

Lunenburg, Va., Sept. 20.—Because the bullet that killed William Heath, a painter from Dalton, N. H., entered his heart through the back, the story that he committed suicide has been discredited, and Mrs. Martha Dodge, a well-to-do widow, was found over to the county court on the charge of murder.

Mrs. Dodge is prominent socially in Lunenburg. She was the only witness of the tragedy. Neighbors heard three shots, after which Mrs. Dodge ran from the house saying that Heath had killed himself in her bedroom.

An autopsy was held, when the doctors from the state department of health at Burlington found that Heath could not possibly have fired the bullet. It lodged in the front of his shirt after passing through the man's body. Two other bullets had grazed the threshold of the bedroom and lodged in the walls of the kitchen.

The cause for the tragedy is unknown. Heath painted the outside of the Dodge house three weeks ago, and it is understood that at that time he had some trouble with Mrs. Dodge regarding the price. Later she paid him and he returned to paint the interior of the house.
