

'NEBER' spee' ter dribe a male jes by twistin' ob his tail. Nor to pick the loek ob Henben wjd a rusty shingle nail.

The river is falling rapidly to-day.

BILLY DAWSON has got his spring hat.

CAPT. LEVI FLEMING is repairing the sidewalk at the bridge.

The fate of the street railway will be decided this week. The chances are in favor of its being constructed.

Mr. JOHN WHEELER and his daughter, Miss Ola, who have been visiting friends at Vanceburg, are expected home this evening.

TWENTY-FIVE and thirty cents a pound is asked for butter this week, and there will probably be a still further decline in price.

It is the person, who, last Monday afternoon carried of Sunday's Enquirer from 'Squire Marsh's office, will return it, the 'Squire will present him with his thanks.

A DWELLING occupied by negroes was burned at Mt. Sterling, on Monday, to prevent the spread of small pox. Several deaths had occurred in the family that occupied it.

HOLT RICHESON has removed his grocery store to the building lately occupied by Mr. Charles H. Frank and has opened with an entirely new stock. His prices are very low. Give him a call.

MISS JULIA A. HUNT, the well known and popular young actress, has engaged the Opera House and will appear there on Wednesday, the 11th inst., in the 'Pearl of Savoy.' Her friends in Maysville will be sure to give her a cordial reception.

MR. THOMAS LALLY of the Mill Creek, neighborhood has just sold three crops of tobacco grown by himself and tenants, to Proctor & Collins of Mt. Carmel. The first brought $15 and a premium of $5 as the best crop. The second brought $15 with the exception of a small lot which brought $3.50. The third sold for $14 all around.

The English sparrows have appeared in large numbers on many of the farms in this county and are getting to be a great nuisance. Birds that are useful to the farmer are preyed upon and driven from their accustomed haunts by these feathered freebooters to such an extent that a war of extermination will be waged against them.

The Alice Oates Opera Company, which gave such a pleasing entertainment here some months ago, will appear at the Opera House to-morrow evening in 'Mascotte.' The company is one of the best that has ever visited Maysville, and their coming affords the opportunity for a rare musical treat. Seats may be secured at Taylor's News Depot.

The ladies will find at W. W. Lynch's store at 41 Market street, a very choice assortment of the latest style shoes, at prices that will be found exceedingly low. He has also a full line of misses' and children's and men's shoes of all styles and qualities. As he makes custom work a specialty you are certain to get a good and comfortable fit. Give him a call.

ED. BELL indicted at the last term of the Circuit Court for giving spirituous liquor to a minor, and who has been in jail and unable to give bail, was tried before Judge Coons on Tuesday morning and fined $50. Henry Banks, colored, charged with petit larceny was also tried and sentenced to confinement in the county jail at hard labor for thirty days. Bank's offense consisted in stealing certain articles from Messrs. Frank Devine and Lewis McCarthey, at Washington, last week.

THE Carrolton, Ky., Democrat says: If a farmer really wants to raise a crop of tobacco, he should not fail to canvas his tobacco beds. The wisdom of canvassing the beds has been thoroughly demonstrated in this county. In fact, it may almost be said that a bed never fails with cotton over it. The canvas keeps off the fly, shields the plant from the burning sun and in cold weather creates a warmth which sprouts the seeds and makes the plants grow fast.

PERSONALS.

Points About People Here and Elsewhere.

Mr. Thomas Y. Nesbitt has returned from Owingsville.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hall have returned from the South.

Miss Mary Swift, of this city, is visiting friends at Lexington, Ky.

Mr. Wm. Bertram, who has been very sick for several weeks, is much better.

Tuesday afternoon, at Lexington, Miss Ella Swift, of this city, was united in marriage with Mr. Martin O'Neil, of that place. Ceremony by the Rev. Father Brossart.

Mr. George T. Wood will leave for Cincinnati to-morrow. Miss Dee will return with him on Saturday. It is a mistake that he is going down to attend the Dramatic Festival.

Sales of Land.

The following changes in the ownership of land have been recorded at the office of the Clerk of the County Court, since our last report:

C. T. Worthington and wife to J. T. Wilson, house and lot in Mayslick; consideration $757.75.

John R. Thomas and others to Emeline Brunel, 302 acres, 1 road and 25 poles of land; consideration $8,954.84.

A GENTLEMAN who wishes to buy some hogs has spent several days trying to find the owners of those that roam the streets of the city, but thus far he has been unable to find a single person in town who owns a hog. He has finally come to the conclusion that they "just growed" here and is thinking of gathering up a lot of them and taking the drove out to his farm in the country.

A DESPATCH to the Courier-Journal says: Judge J. W. Barr, of the United States District Court at Paducah, has rendered a decision in the case of Edward Claybrook and others, colored, against the city of Owensboro for an equal share in the common school fund of that city.

He sustains the right of the colored children to enjoy equal privileges with the white children in the distribution of the school fund, and grants an injunction against the Treasurer of Owensboro to prevent the paying out of five-thirteenths of the fund received for common school purposes further than negro schools. Only a pro rata share was contended for.

THE Washington correspondent of the Courier-Journal has telegraphed the following to that paper:

At the Ebbitt to-night I met a prominent Kentuckian of the Republican faith and asked him who he thought the President would appoint Postmaster General. "I have no idea who he will appoint, but I think he should appoint a Southern man, and I have in my mind's eye the very man for the place if he would accept."

"Who is it?" "Wm. Henry Wadsworth, of Maysville, Ky. He is a pure man, a good business man and a big man, and would add more brains and statesmanship to the Cabinet than any name I have yet heard mentioned for the vacancy."

"Why don't you Kentucky Republicans bring his name before the President?" "We are thinking of it. General Grant is an ardent friend of his and would do most anything to see him in the Cabinet. Wm. Henry Wadsworth would be an addition to the President's Cabinet."

Mr. Wadsworth is the best man who has yet been named for the place, but as he has kept himself severely aloof from the questionable practices of the Republican party it is hardly probable that his name will be considered in connection with the office.

MR. JOHN N. THOMAS, the only man in the State who owns a whole market-house, said to a reporter for the BULLETIN this morning:

"When I bought the building, it was understood that it was to be removed within sixty days from the time of the sale. The time has about expired, but the weather has been so unfavorable for work, I have not been able to take it down. Of course, if I intended to dump it over the river bank, I might have done it, but as I wished to save the material in as good condition as possible, in order to get my money out of it, it couldn't be expected that I should tumble it down in the slush and mud."

"How soon do you expect to take it down?" "I can't say precisely, but I think certainly some time during the next thirty days."

"No," he said, in response to a question by the reporter, "I haven't heard that any special ceremonies have been arranged for the occasion, but I think it would be appropriate to have, say, a rip-roaring speech by Hutchins, a song and dance by Dr. Phister and Ed. Myall, and as the BULLETIN once suggested, 'Good-bye 'Liza Jane,' by the council in full chorus. The venerable landmark ought not to go down I think, unwept, unhonored and unsung."

And the BULLETIN agrees with him.

ABERDEEN ITEMS.

J. R. Bennington, of Vanceburg, was here last Monday.

W. R. Ellis has moved to his Front street property.

Mrs. George Wheeler will open a millinery store on Front street.

A wedding among the "bon-tons" of this place is near at hand.

Miss Mabel Masterson, of Ripley, has returned home after a pleasant visit to the teachers at "Idle Wild."

Miss Effie Mann, a handsome young lady of Lexington, Ky., is the guest of Mrs. Fannie Hutsell.

The new orchestra of this place is a rascal. H. F. True & Son are rushed this week taking in tobacco.

The W. P. club is in a flourishing condition. The Sons of Temperance are doing a work in this place that is beginning to be noticeable.

The building boom will strike this place this summer.

The new school house will be commenced soon.

The city council are to be commended for having the dirt logs removed from our streets.

It is rumored that one of our young merchants will soon go to Frankfort, Ky., to double up, and will reside at Mason Heights.

Mrs. JULIA S. CRESWORTH on Tuesday sold to Patrick Comar, one hundred acres of her farm near this city, for $125 an acre. The sale was made by Judge G. S. Wall, and as the land was unimproved the price is considered a very good one.

Peck's Bad Boy at Phister's—50 cents.

NOTICE.

IT has been asserted that I am preparing to move to the country and give up my interest in the Sewing Machine business, I take this method of announcing to my friends and the public that there is not a word of truth in it except that I will move my family to the country but will continue to sell the OLD RELIABLE SINGER at the same place, second street, opposite postoffice, and run my wagons in the country as heretofore. Competitors please notice the above. I am thankful to the public for the large patronage I have received for the passed nine years, and respectfully solicit a share in the future. jan24&w G. A.
