The "constantly tired-out" feeling so often experienced is the result of impoverished blood and consequent enfeebled vitality. Ayer's Sarsaparilla feeds and enriches the blood, increases the appetite, and promotes digestion of the food and the assimilation of its strengthening qualities.

THE MAY MEETING.

Fine Sport Promised and Fast Time Expected—Excursion Rates—Special Arrangements for the Exhibition of the Great Attractions of the Turf.

St. Julien, Monroe Chief, Little Brown Jug and Capt. Lewis.

The management of the Maysville Trotting Association are wide awake and alive to every interest, offering purses that will attract in regular competition, the best trotters in America, and in addition to which a special committee has been sent to visit the owners of the most celebrated horses in America, and make special arrangements, whenever possible, for the exhibition of these animals on our grounds during the ensuing races.

It is pretty certain that arrangements will be made with Mr. Hickok, of San Francisco, for the appearance of that celebrated gelding, St. Julien, 2:11 1/2, and who will doubtless lower that over our track, and thus beat the world as a trotter. At Hartford, for the first time on any track, the blackboard was illuminated with 2:11 1/2, 2:11 1/2, 2:12 1/2 in an actual race with all the disadvantages thereby implied. This record was made by the noted side-wheeler, Little Brown Jug, now the property of Commodore Rittson, of Minnesota, and is the fastest three successive heats ever won in harness. The Commodore has over a million dollars in fine horses—trotters, pacers and runners—and the best of the former will be entered at Maysville during the May meeting. Chief among which will be that rare, attraction Little Brown Jug, who sold as a two-year-old for $27,500, the purchaser re-selling for $40. This occurred five years ago, and the animal is now valued at $30,000, and is the fastest pacer in the world. Monroe Chief, winner of the free for all stallion race last September, at Chicago, is the property of Budd Doble, and has the fastest two-mile record ever made in harness. These are but a few of the attractions that will be offered to interest the people of this section. Rainard, half-brother to Jerome Eddy, who sold last month for $25,000, is now on the track, as is also Henry Clay, the fleet Mollie Harris, Pegasus, and others. They will be supplemented in a few days by Bay Billy, Romeo, Director, Ruby, Bliss, Fannie Witherspoon, Von Armin, Lucy, Mattie Hunter, and other celebrated horses, so, taking the arrangements all in all, the outlook for a grand and thrilling meeting was never better.

Following is a letter from Mr. Brown, traveling and passenger agent of the Kentucky Central Railroad, who is always liberal and accommodating:

Covington, Ky., April 30, 1883. J. D. Kehoe, Esq., Secretary Trotting Association, Maysville, Ky.—Dear Sir: Reply to yours of 29th inst. I am pleased to advise you that special excursion tickets will be on sale at all stations on this line at reduced rates, from May 14th to 18th, good to return until the 19th. Yours truly, C. L. Brown, General Passenger and Ticket Agent.

In regard to boat to run from Maysville to the grounds, we append the following letter from Capt. Jno. Woodburn:

Cincinnati, April 21, 1883. Mr. J. D. Kehoe—Dear Sir: You can depend on my having a boat to run M to B 15th to 18th. I will give the name of the boat, the first of May so you can have it put on your bill or circulars, so you need not look to me as I will be glad to furnish the boat. For reference I give Uncle James Hall and Ed. Mitchell, as they will go bail for my good conduct while the races last. Yours most respectfully, Capt. John Woodburn.

Prof. H. K. Taylor, of Vanceburg. Ed. Bulletin: The common school system is very justly claiming the attention of our people at this time. There seems to be an all prevalent conviction in the minds of the people that our system of free education is not what it ought to be; that it needs developing, improving, possibly supplanting. All great and successful enterprises, whatever be their nature, must be embodied in the man who is at their head. He must have brains to devise, heart to sympathize with the undertaking and will to execute. This is no less true with regard to the Superintendent of Public Instruction than it is in other things. The man must contain the system; it must develop from him; be the product of his being. The gentleman whose name heads this article is announced as a candidate for the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction. He has brains, heart and will, fearless in following out his convictions of right. Prof. Taylor is such a man as Kentucky should be glad to honor, and to avail herself of his services. He asks the nomination of the Democracy of the State. Let Mason County Democrats consider his claims and if they can not give him first instructions, at least, give him second instructions. Certainly this much is due him, and due the neighboring county of which he is a native. REFORM.

MADAME HAYNES RULEY can be professionally consulted Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays at the Hill House in this city, until the first of September.

COUNTY POINTS.

HELENA.

Farmers busy planting corn. Fruit much improved by the frosts. J. J. White's house is being painted. L. T. Thomas is off on a business trip to Kansas. Mrs. A. W. Allen, of Moorefield, Ky., is visiting relatives here. Much sickness, and the M. D.'s are busy. Mrs. J. H. Shanklin is visiting friends at Cairo.

The work of building the Millcreek turnpike is being pushed rapidly. We are glad to see our old friend W. B. Rollins is able to go about again. Cook Brothers have added a neat veranda to their residence, improving the appearance thereof. Charles D. Calvert has completed his storehouse and opened a full stock of groceries. Services at the M. E. Church on the second Lord's day will be in the afternoon instead of morning.

Wm. Calvert has enclosed his premises with a neat fence. R. W. Wells attended the Louisville tobacco sales this week. The residence of J. H. Wood caught fire Saturday evening from a defective flue, but was extinguished after slight damage. GREEN HORN.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Gill has returned home from Ashland, Mo., accompanied by Mrs. Gill's cousin and brother. Regular preaching at the M. E. Church Sunday by Rev. F. S. Politt.

Mr. W. P. Hollerby and little daughter, of Augusta, are the pleasant guests of Mrs. D. L. Hunter. Mr. Charles Collins has been building a barn for Mr. Chanson, of Bourbon county. Dr. Alex. Hunter is having a nice brick pavement laid before his residence. John McCarthy is doing the work. Miss Sude Laytham, of Mayslick, spent a few days with her aunt, Mrs. James Marshall. Misses Annie Thompson and Willa Burgoyne visited Mrs. J. J. Thompson, of Fern Leaf, Saturday and Sunday. DARKNESS AND DAYLIGHT.

Mr. J. T. Nash has completed his store house. Robert Hord sold to John King last week a bay mare for $125, cash. Mr. Bruce Lyons returned from Cincinnati last week and reports the market pretty fair. Prof. Tate preached a very interesting discourse here on Sunday last. He will preach on the second and third Sundays here in each month. CITIZEN.

Wheat has come forth wonderfully in the last few weeks. Gardens that were cultivated and planted in the middle of April have come up and look nicely. There have been several frosts but they have not damaged the fruit. Prof. Calvert's school will close in June, and as he is such a competent teacher in mathematics and other branches it would be to the advantage of patrons of the school to secure his services for next term. Hogs are selling very high $6.50 to $7.50. Mumps are prevalent in this vicinity. Rev. Sims and Godby will hold a protracted meeting at Fitch's chapel beginning next Sunday. Mr. T. L. Best has gone to Cincinnati to attend tobacco sales. Mr. Best is well expected in the tobacco business and parties who still hold their tobacco would do well to call on him. FIDELITY.

Mr. and Mrs. James Asbury, have been visiting friends on Shannon. The prospects for a fair crop of wheat in this locality is much better than it was a few weeks ago. Mr. John Jones and sister, Miss Ida Jones, returned on Sunday evening from a visit to the family of Mr. Horace Fleming, near Murphysville. Mrs. Sallie Worthington, who has been on a visit to her daughter near Louisville, has returned. We gave a plain statement of facts in reference to the difference in the church at Mt. Gilead and have nothing further to say on the subject. We wish to say to the gentlemen who lost their sack of meal last Saturday, that if they will inquire of the young gentleman who helped to carry off a certain wagon load that he can give them information concerning it. Mr. and Mrs. Worthington are visiting relatives in Cincinnati. We returned Tuesday from a pleasant visit to the family of Mr. W. W. Bean, in Dayton, Ky. We understand that a lady upon Shannon, when reading the Fern Leaf items about for company, week before last, skipped the first item. We wonder why? Mrs. Joshua Burgess and Mrs. J. W. Evans, left this morning for the Queen City, where they will remain the balance of the week. A young gentleman of this vicinity having a sweet heart named Mollie, who wished him to write an original poem for her album, indited the following: "Oh! Mollie, Mollie, Oh! Poet, Poet!" We arrived on Sunday afternoon from a delightful visit to Murphysville and Shannon. One of the most pleasant, social events that we have enjoyed for some time was at the residence of Mr. Joshua Burgess, last Wednesday evening. We returned many thanks to the young gentlemen who took such special care of our conveyance during the evening. P. E. M.

Old Si seemed in an unusual good humor yesterday morning. "What are you grinning about now?" asked the society editor. "I wuz dess memberin' about de cake-wuk las' nite." "Were you there?" "Deed I wuz—I wuz de cheer-man ob de judges." "Oh, you were? Well, who took the cake?" "De judges!" "Why, how was that?" "Well, day kep up de wuk for kursid'bul time, an' de price ob de cake wuz only fo' dollars an' de time ob de judges wuz wuf' bout six dollars—so de judges took de cake an' de winner took de wuk!" And again the old man chuckled audibly over the episode.—Georgia Major.
