A NEAT hog wallow has been established at the foot of Court street, opposite the State National Bank. This makes seven new ones within a week.

A LITTLE of son Mr. John Skinner, aged five years, fell while sliding down the banisters of a staircase at his father's residence, on Sunday afternoon, and broke his arm.

The elections of councilmen in the first and second wards are in progress to-day. The main point of interest is in the question how the candidates stand in regard to the hog problem.

PROF. C. J. HALL has declined the position offered at Georgetown College and will remain in charge of the Maysville Literary Institute, the session of which begins on the first Monday in September. See advertisement.

The pavement in front of the public school building corner of Third and Short streets, is in a dilapidated condition, and ought to be repaired. The city is very prompt in requiring citizens to do such things, and what is sauce for the goose ought to be sauce for the gander.

For its soothing and grateful influence on the scalp, and for the removal and prevention of dandruff, Ayer's Hair Vigor has no equal. It restores faded or gray hair to its original dark color, stimulates the growth of the hair, and gives it a beautiful, soft, glossy, and silken appearance.

LEE R. PERRY, of Manchester, was arrested Saturday evening on the charge of having used insulting language to a daughter of Captain Miller, of this city. Her brother, Wilson Miller, who resented the insult to the lady, was assaulted by Mike Donough, a companion of Perry's and badly beaten. McDonough was arrested also, and both men will be tried before the Mayor to-day. They are from Manchester and are members of a base ball club that played here on Saturday.

CAMP MEETINGS.

RUGGLES CAMP GROUND, Aug. 10.

The sun arose without a cloud this morning presaging the bright day that we all the enjoyed so much, after the rain. There was a sunrise prayer service in the Tabernacle, but there were so many cottages moving that we held no testimony meeting at the usual hour.

At 11 a. m. Rev. S. G. Pollard, of Covington, preached on 1st Cor. 1: 30. The sermon was a very simple and lucid exposition of the main point of the text followed by an earnest and touching appeal to those who have not accepted Christ as their "wisdom, righteousness, sanctification and redemption."

At 3 p. m. Rev. H. C. Northcott preached from 1st Cor. 6: 19 and 20: "And ye are not your own, for ye are bought with a price, therefore, glorify God in your own body and in your spirit which are God's."

Rev. C. Foster, of Fox Springs Circuit, occupied the pulpit at 8 p. m., preaching on Heb. 12: 1 and 4. The theme was the Christian race, the preparation, the manner in which to run successfully and the prize at the end. The sermon was followed by an earnest altar service conducted by the Presiding Elder in which many renewed their vows. The indications presented by this day's service are encouraging. We are looking for a good meeting, and we ask all Christians to pray for it to be realized. Arrivals to-day from Maysville were the families of Douglas and Henry Ort and Lucy Ort. I omitted to notice yesterday, from Maysville, the arrival of Jno. G. Brodant family and Mrs. Capt. Miller. Two ministers reported this evening, viz: Rev. C. Foster, of Fox Springs, and W. A. Phillips, of Covington. Another important accession to the population of this camp for to-day was Marshal Dawson, of your city. He is for the present chief of our police force and we know him to be capable to fill the place. The hotel, under Mat. Tolle and his excellent wife, is now in first class condition. The confectionery is superintended by Wm. Daugherty, of Maysville. He makes and dispenses ice cream, lemonade, sells melons, cakes, candies refreshes the thirsty from the soda fountain. We were honored to-day by the presence of Hon. George Halbert, of Vanceburg, with his excellent lady. They returned to Esculapia this afternoon.

PARKS HILL CAMP GROUND, Aug. 11. Devotional exercises were led by Rev. W. D. Power. Many talked, some of them a little too long. The women talk better than the men.

Rev. M. D. Reynolds preached to the children at 10 o'clock a. m. Subject: "Consider the Lilies of the Field, how They Grow."

At 11 a. m. Dr. Hanner preached from Luke 16th chapter 16th verse. He discoursed on the "Kingdom of God," and how men got into it. He chased away a great deal of rubbish about the subject, and gave a most inspiring view of the religion of Christ.

At 3 p. m. Rev. J. C. Newton filled the pulpit. He preached a thoughtful sermon from the text, "All things rush together for good to those that love God."

At 8 p. m. Rev. J. W. Fitch, Presiding Elder of the district, preached on the text from John 6th, 68th. The theme was, "Jesus, the only Authoritative Teacher of Eternal Life." The sermon was clear, strong and pathetic. Mr. Fitch is a forcible speaker.

At the night service there was a very touching scene. Bro. Walker's little daughter, not more than six years old, sang a solo, the words of which could be heard over that audience of a thousand people.

Preachers going around with little pills for the curing of human ills, are at a discount here.

One thing is clear to an outsider—the views of religion preached here are honoring to God.

The preachers, as a rule, are too long-winded. One wishes for something to happen to stop the breath, at least for that occasion.

A critic at my elbow just said: "That Dr. West is a most remarkable man for sustained power in preaching."

Everybody votes Sunday trains a nuisance.

The Committee on company is behind the times or they would make better provisions for the entertainment of the vast throng of people which gathers here on Sunday. They need four times the stabling capacity.

About six thousand people are in the grounds to-day.

Mr. Nolin looks heroic since he has carried the vast multitude safely through the dining hall.

Sixty cottages have been spoken for above the number now built.

PARKS HILL CAMP GROUND, Aug. 12. Devotional meeting led by Rev. J. W. Fitch; a goodly number spoke. Many seemed to be impressed with the idea that it would be the last occasion of the kind this year, so they made good use of it.

At 11 a. m. one of the largest crowds of the camp meeting assembled to hear the grand old hero, Dr. J. B. West. The auditorium was packed and the spaces on either side between the cottages were filled with expectant people. Precisely at eleven Dr. West arose and read for the opening hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name." His theme was "The Temptation of Christ." His opening sentence showed that he had placed himself in full sympathy with Christ in that awful hour. The burden of the discourse was to show that Christ in that temptation and triumph, sounded the depths and worth of humanity, showed what man could do. The effect of the sermon was largely dissipated by the whistling of the trains, and the loud talking of the vast throng of people outside the enclosure of the auditorium. Man is a very selfish animal—if he can't hear himself, he won't let anybody else hear.

The afternoon was devoted to the communion services. Fully five hundred communed. It was an impressive scene.

At 8 p. m. Rev. F. W. Noland preached, ed, with his usual earnestness and directness.

The camp meeting closes to-morrow at noon. On the whole it has been a success. Not many accessions to the church, but that the people have been broadened in their views, and character is being developed. Parks Hill is a fixture, and it is impossible to imagine the good yet to be done on this hill-top.

PERSONALS.

Mr. John Waller, of Lexington, is in town to-day.

Mrs. Jennie Vickroy is visiting friends at Lexington.

Mrs. R. Albert and Miss Annie Albert are spending a few days at Esculapia springs.

Miss Anna Miller, of Versailles, and Miss Clara Keer, of Lexington, are visiting Miss Mollie Piper, of Maysick.

Mr. Hermann Lange will leave for the East in a few days for the purpose of buying a large stock of goods in his line, for the fall trade. The public is invited to await the arrival of this stock, as superior inducements will be offered to buyers.

Miss A. Harrison, who taught with Mrs. Riddick last year, will return to Maysville in September and open a school for boys and girls. She is a very fine teacher and gave great satisfaction to all who had an opportunity of judging of her ability.

ABERDEEN ITEMS.

Aberdeen is painfully quiet of late. The people seem to be simply vegetating.

Personal you didn't know it, but it is really beneficial for girls to look in the mirror. It affords reflection for the mind.

We heard Miss Mary Cheesman was rustically amid romantic rural scenes, surrounded by babbling brooks and warbling songsters.

Some people are never satisfied. Do let the girls be glad and let the boys be boys. A change couldn't be for the better, and it's more than likely it might be for the worse.

The Orpheus Choral Society will soon indulge the public with another concert, which will be the grand one, as the programme will be composed of the best selection of musical compositions.

A hardware firm is well represented on this side of the water, and from present prospects we think they will succeed in their respective business, although it depends on encouragement.

There is a genuine Maysville dade who finds favor on this side. We are informed he came over every evening in the week and on Sundays he would only three times. No one could keep better time than that.

Somebody on Second street must have been happy Tuesday afternoon. Although he had been sick for several weeks, on his return from over the river he noticed a colored change. There is nothing like the Aberdeen air for invalids.

He was a commercial tourist, on his return from a recent trip. When asked by his wife what the coming fall styles in bonnets were, he replied they were to be exceedingly small in form, but immense in price. So that would make it about balance. Of course she was perfectly satisfied.

Mr. R— and Miss H— were sitting out on the spacious veranda of a hillside residence. The first part of their conversation he availed himself of the delightful pleasure of offering a cigarette. This lovely blonde dilette smoked her cigarette, and sent the smoke curling around his head with all the charming style of an Irish dilette. "Ah," he said, "I perceive you are an old hand at it." "No," she replied, "I never smoked before. The first part of my conversation I was enjoying myself, but now I can't return to the parlor, for you see my breath is too highly flavored." "I tell you," he replied, "you are a daisy in smoking, for you have smoked two to my one." She broke him up, and the dade had no more change to replenish his cigarettes, so had to sit his coat. HIPPONA.

MARRIED.

August 13, 1883, at the Central Hotel, this city, by Rev. A. N. Gilbert, Miss MOLLIE E. METCALFE, to Mr. JOHN B. FRONK, both of Bracken county, Ky.

DIED.

At Lexington, Ky., August 4th, 1883, MR. JOHN ALEXANDER, of Maysville.

In Mason county, after a short illness, TOMMIE J. HIGGINS, only child of James D. and Grace Higgins, aged one year and three weeks.

Dearest Tommie, thou art gone, Now thy gentle spirit fled— Thy short journey here is run; Thou art sleeping with the dead.

Why so soon didst thou depart To thy long and silent rest: The gentle Shepherd took the lamb And clasped it to his loving breast.

While the parents' hearts are bleeding For their little Tommie, dead, Jesus stands with oil and healing, And a balm to cheer the heart.

Ah! methinks I hear him whisper— "Listen to me, ma-ma dear, I am with the blessed Saviour, All is bright and happy here."

Weep not, dearest father, mother, Wipe away that falling tear, Jesus wept with weeping Mary, He feels for thee, thou need'st not fear.

He'll bind up the broken-hearted With the soothing balm of love, Then thou shalt see thy little Tommie In that happy home above. M. A. C.

Rev. Father Wilds' EXPERIENCE.

The Rev. Z. P. Wilds, well-known city missionary in New York, and brother of the late eminent Judge Wilds, of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, writes as follows: "75 E. 4th St., New York, May 16, 1882. MESSRS. C. AYER & CO., Gentlemen: Last winter I was troubled with a most uncomfortable itching humor affecting more especially my limbs, which itched so intolerably at night, and burned so intensely, that I could scarcely bear any clothing over them. I was also a sufferer from a severe catarrh and catarrhal cough; my appetite was poor, and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by observation of many other cases, and from personal use in former years, I began taking it for the above-named disorders. My appetite improved almost from the first dose. After a short time the fever and itching were allayed, and all signs of irritation of the skin disappeared. My catarrh and cough were also cured by the same means, and my general health greatly improved, until it is now excellent. I feel a hundred per cent stronger, and I attribute these results to the use of the SARSAPARILLA, which I recommend with all confidence as the best blood medicine ever devised. I took it in small doses three times a day, and used, in all, less than two bottles. I place these facts at your service, hoping their publication may do good. Yours respectfully, Z. P. WILDS."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla cleanses, enriches, and strengthens the blood, stimulates the action of the stomach and bowels, and thereby enables the system to resist and overcome the attacks of all Scrofulous Diseases, Eruptions of the Skin, Rheumatism, Catarrh, General Debility, and all disorders resulting from poor or corrupted blood and a low state of the system.
