The Mt. Sterling Sentinel says: "No liquor can be had by retail in this county or city, except upon the prescription of a physician, and no physician can be found in the county who will give a prescription that is not needed, and no druggist will sell liquor without a prescription."

A SYNDICATE has been formed to buy Cuba from Spain. General Grant, Cyrus W. Field, W. H. Vanderbilt, C. J. Osborn, Aug Schell and Mr. Cammack, are named as leaders in the movement. The plan has progressed so far that General Sickles will shortly go to Spain to open negotiations. The syndicate is willing to give $100,000,000 for the island.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: Leonard Case, of Cleveland, a bachelor millionaire and the munificent founder of the Case School of Applied Science, was a man of amiable character, of fine culture and of remarkable abilities, but his life was so clouded by constant ill-health and by a singular constitutional shyness, that his talents were unknown even to his own townspeople, and hardly appreciated by his few intimate friends. He wrote poems, sketches and tales for his own amusement, rarely publishing anything but an occasional mathematical paper in the transactions of the Smithsonian Institution. The manuscript of a complete novel, said to be excellent, was found after his death in a mass of documents.

An Example to Follow. Ripley Budget.

During a recent visit to Maysville we were very much impressed with the business activity of the city, and when we saw her extensive manufactories of flour, lumber, sash, doors, knit goods, cotton, hemp, plows and other interests too numerous to mention in detail, illustrating the enterprising spirit of her citizens. And when, in conversation with some of her prominent business men, we noticed that they talked up their city first, last and all the time. This is as it should be; such men are benefactors to their race wherever found. The above, we think, accounts for the progress and growth of Maysville.

Population Figures.

The following are the totals of the population of the great cities of Europe: London, 3,832,440 inhabitants; Paris, 2,225,910; Berlin, 1,222,500; Vienna, 1,103,110; St. Petersburg, 876,570; Moscow, 611,070; Constantinople, 600,000; Glasgow, 562,940; Liverpool, 552,430; Naples, 493,110; Hamburg, 410,120; Birmingham, 400,790; Lyons, 373,890; Madrid, 357,520; Buda-Pesth, 360,580; Marseilles, 357,520; Manchester, 341,510; Warsaw, 33,340; Milan, 321,840; Amsterdam, 314,660; Leeds, 309,130; Rome, 300,470; Sheffield, 284,410; Breslau, 272,910; Turin, 252,830.

Facts for Women.

Suits of terra-cotta color are fast losing their popularity. Velveten is sometimes employed as a wall hanging in paper. Pretty table-cloths have a band of flowered satin down the center. Taffetas are in favor to make up in combination with other materials. A suggestion of silver throughout an entire black suit is popular in mourning. For evening wear are wide sash-ribbons in gold and white or silver and white. Some dresses have two and even three vests, only one of which, however, buttons. Dark wall papers not only absorb light but infectious qualities in the atmosphere. Lace fichus are in demand. Favorite styles are known as the Fedora and the Marie Antoinette. Much attention is now paid to tapestry, which has come largely into use in the decoration of fine houses. Canvas belts are worn with the flannel and cloth dresses. These come in a variety of colors as well as in white. Colored silk mitts are embroidered in self colors across the hand, the wrist, and on the top, which reaches to the elbow. Washing the hands twice a day with Indian corn-meal and rubbing on a little glycerine at night will keep them soft and white.
