

THE SNOB CARAVAN.

Rufus Hatch's Bench Show of Dudes.

The Sore Troubles of a Worried Old Man—His Foreign Guests Eating Him Out of House and Home—"Charge It to Buster" on Gigantic Proportions—Disgusting Cases of Aristocratic Dead-Beating.

St. Paul, Aug. 27.—Rufus Hatch is having no end of trouble with the English dudes and menagerie. At dinner each day they run a huge wine bill against him and had him charged $23 before they had been in the hotel a half hour. One of them alone has cost him $2,500 since he left England. One of them went over to the only store and purchased a pair of drawers and told the proprietor to charge it to Rufus. The manner in which these dudes got into the party is astounding.

Mr. Hatch invited the head of a great family who boasts of a Lord High Chancellorship. The said head wrote to know if he could send a substitute. Permission being granted the said head asked if he couldn't ring in a companion. Rufus acceded to the request and said the two couldn't come unless a chum of theirs was sent along who had already been invited to spend the summer with them. Rufus finally let in the third. Then said head wrote that the third party had a twin brother who was inseparable, and the game was "whole hog or none." In desperation Uncle Rufus gave consent.

The dudes, six in all, came on with only one idea—that this is a free country—and they have used the Hatch pocket to the tune of $10,000 already. They have snubbed all the rest of the party, demanded the best and first places, and with consummate gall overlooked the existence of others.

Lord Hoadly, a peer of Parliament, is scandalized, and he and others, in mortification, have paid every bill of theirs they could keep away from Mr. Hatch, and Uncle Rufus is reported to have said that if he gets out of the scrape with enough to keep his family through the winter he will never do it again.

FATAL MINGO.

Another Severe Crash Near the Old Spot.

STEVENSVILLE, O., Aug. 27.—Another accident has occurred at Mingo Junction, within one hundred yards of the big accident in 1878. The eastbound freight, No. 46, had until 1:13 to make Mingo, but the Cincinnati express, No. 1, on time, collided with her, ten minutes late. Beside the engines one postal car was wrecked. Engineer Charles Wolf, of Dennison, and Postal Clerks William M. Newman and John B. Hoyt, both of Indianapolis, were injured, Hoyt fatally.

Engineer Wolfe, of the passenger train, had two ribs broken and a thumb mashed, and postal clerks Hoyt and Newman, of Indianapolis, were seriously injured, the former probably fatally. The passengers escaped with a bad shaking up.

The accident was caused by carelessness on the part of the crew of the freight train.
