THREE thousand immigrants arrived at New York last Sunday.

THE distillers' convention to be held at Lexington has been postponed.

SEVENTEEN cases of yellow fever and two deaths are reported at Brewton, Ala.

RUSSELL SCOTT, a fifteen-year-old boy, has mysteriously disappeared from his home at Weston, Nicholas county.

A VEIN of iron ore nearly ten feet thick has lately been discovered in the vicinity of Mt. Sterling. It is thought it can be profitably worked.

THE National turnpike over the Allegheny mountains, from Cumberland to Wheeling, the nearest approach to a perfect road ever seen in the United States, cost $1,700,000, or $13,000 a mile.

THE Carlisle Mercury says that the case of the Commonwealth against John B. Smart for shooting Dr. Robbins has been referred to the next grand jury. In the meantime Smart is to continue under bond.

EXCITEMENT prevails near Yeoman, Indiana, over the discovery of a huge saurian, which several trustworthy persons say they have seen this week in a prairie swamp. It is said to be twelve feet long, has four short legs, a flat tail, and flees to the water when aroused.

THE Covington Commonwealth says: There is a young woman in a tobacco factory in Covington, who, as a "wrapper," earns $20 to $24 per week. The dextrous way in which she does the work is surprising. It equals that of two ordinary men, and is well done, too.

THE returns to the Agricultural Department of the condition of the cotton crop up to October 1 show a reduction in the general average condition of from seventy-four to sixty eight per cent. The indications are that the crop will fall short of the last crop more than 1,000,000 bales.

AN exchange says: Advances from Ohio, New York, New England, Michigan, Kentucky and Indiana indicate that the apple crop is almost an entire failure. The failure is generally attributed to the extremely wet weather and heavy rains which prevailed about the time of blossoming. The trees blossomed beautifully, but the fruit did not set. The Southern States report light crops, except North Carolina, where a fair yield is reported.

THE Western Tobacco Journal says: There is no doubt but what the past two or three weeks has given renewed hope to tobacco growers and the tobacco trade at large, and what promised to be a very short and inferior crop, will now, if frosts hold off for a few weeks, prove very close to an average one. The Ohio crop of White Burley will probably be below an average, as conditions have not been as favorable to its growth as in Kentucky and other White Burley districts.

THE Sheriff of Carter county with Craft in charge, arrived at Grayson about six o'clock on Wednesday evening. On the road from Lexington large crowds assembled at the different stations to see the prisoner, but no demonstrations against him were made. After leaving Morehead, which is thirty-five miles from Grayson, Craft became extremely nervous, fearing, as he said, that a mob would hang him. Arriving at Grayson the Sheriff was met by an additional guard of twenty-five men, and the procession wended its way to the jail, where Craft was safely imprisoned. He reiterated his innocence, though it is said he showed strong signs of breaking down before the execution. The hanging will take place about one o'clock this afternoon.

A MORMON missionary, who is now at work in Washington City to obtain converts, claims to have recently added to his list seventy six persons mostly young girls between the ages of fifteen and twenty-five, but says he has only secured one in that city. He is an associate of the Mormon gang who were recently mobbed in Indiana and driven from the State. Congressmen who are at the capital express themselves earnestly about the Mormon question and say it is evident that some more stringent act than the Edmunds law will have to be devised if it is expected to abolish polygamy in this country. One plan proposed is to legislate the present Utah government out of existence and to have a provisional government created, the officers of which would be appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate. It is probable that this question will occupy the attention of the next Congress.

MISSING BOYS.

The Police Hunting for One Case Across Another.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—A search is being made for George Breerton, a boy of twelve, who is believed to have been kidnapped and taken on board a vessel bound for China. He was with two other boys in City Hall Park when they were all enticed away by strange men and became separated. The other two boys became convinced that they were being deceived and escaped. In his search Police Detective Hart came across a boy whom he took for Breerton in the Globe Dime Museum, in the Bowery. He proved to be Francis Whistler, another boy of twelve, who had disappeared from his home in Catawba street, St. Louis, three weeks ago. He was confined at police headquarters.

A STREET DUEL.

Great Excitement in Front of the Baltimore City Hall.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 11.—James Bussey, a well-known Democratic politician, was shot and mortally wounded by Wm. Harris, in a pistol duel, in front of the City Hall, at noon. Women fainted and spectators fled in all directions. When Bussey fell wounded, Harris held him down and beat him terribly over the head with his pistol, a forty-two caliber English bull dog. Immense crowds of politicians are now thronging the City Hall clamoring for news, and a large force of police are keeping them at bay. All work in the public offices is suspended. Bussey has always been dangerous, and has killed several men. The tragedy is the result of an old political feud.

MOODY AND SANKEY.

Almost Mobbing Them in Limerick, Ireland.

LIMERICK, Oct. 11.—The determined opposition to the meetings of Messrs. Moody & Sankey, the American Evangelists, has caused considerable excitement here. A crowd of men and boys assembled in front of the theater in which the meetings are held, last evening, and endeavored by jeering and hooting to interrupt the services. They were driven away by the police, who will hereafter guard the theater. Threats are freely made that force will be used to prevent a continuance of the meetings.

Cold Blooded Murder.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 11.—Five murders have been committed in Grant county during the past six months, three of which have been cold-blooded, mysterious affairs. The body of Wm. Bonner was found in a cabin on the John Day river. The remains were decomposed and a bullet hole was in the skull. The cabin had been rifled of its contents, including considerable money, and Bonner's horse was stolen. There is no clue to the murderer.

Important Trial.

VIENNA, Oct. 11.—A party of Roumanian soldiers attacked and captured an Austrian military post Velean Pass in the Carpathian mountains, alleging that the Barracks stood upon Roumanian territory. A company of Austrian troops came to the rescue of the garrison and recaptured the station, taking sixty of the Roumanians prisoners.

Sensational Divorce Suit.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 11.—Frank Marion Sanders, senior member of Sanders & Wharton, a leading commission firm of this city, was sued for divorce by his wife who avers that he is an habitual drunkard, has repeatedly ill-treated and threatened to shoot her. The suit is sensational, as the parties are wealthy and well connected.

Invited to Resign.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—Mayor Edson has sent a letter to the Commissioner of Accounts, Wm. P. Sherman, asking for his resignation. When asked his reason for this action, the Mayor stated one reason was that Sherman had furnished for publication the information contained in commissioner's report on the coupon frauds before it was furnished to him, the mayor. But main cause was that Mr. Sherman did not devote enough of his time to the duties of his office.

Ben. Butterworth Offered Commissionership of Patents.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Edgar M. Marble has tendered his resignation as Commissioner of Patents, to take effect Oct. 31. It was accepted by Secretary Teller in a complimentary letter. The position has been tendered to the Hon. Ben. Butterworth, of Ohio.
