TO-DAY'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

S. J. Daugherty—Monuments, For sale—Business at Pittsburg.

CLERK Moss Taylor brings the news, That soon there'll be afloat A craft that's bound to take the horns From any other boat.

LONG evenings are here and gas bills will be long in due time.

THE next sacrifice you will be called upon to make is the Thanksgiving turkey.

THE new Maysville packet Handy No. 2 will be launched at Cincinnati to-day or to-morrow.

If you would reap a satisfactory fall and winter trade, insert a business-like advertisement in this paper without delay.

MAYOR JANUARY is visiting the Louisville Exposition. During his absence Squire James Chamberlain is acting mayor.

REV. A. N. GILBERT, of this city, was one of the delegates to the General Missionary Convention of the Christian Church, held at Cincinnati, on the 23rd inst.

THE watch lost by Mr. W. W. Gibson, and advertised in the BULLETIN, was found by a son of Mr. Timothy Desmond and promptly returned. He is a lad of good principle.

In going a distance of three squares yesterday we counted twenty-five hogs. Fourteen of them were on the pavement and one was in the yard of a dwelling rooting up a flower garden.

THE jury in the case of Shackelford vs. Finch & Co., known as the warehouse case, went out yesterday afternoon, and this morning returned a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $700.

THE "German" to-night will be an elegant affair. Only a limited number are invited to the first meeting. We are glad the club has been organized and hope it will be a permanent institution.

It is about time you were making up your mind whether you will vote for or against making the streets of Maysville a rutting place for hogs. If you favor public decency there is only one way to vote.

The Vanceburg Courier says: Johnny Lovel came up Saturday to see the wife and that blessed baby, who have been visiting here for several weeks. The happy little family returned home on Monday.

REV. DR. RUTHERFORD, of Paris, Ky., preached an exceedingly interesting discourse at the Presbyterian Church last night. He will preach again this evening at seven o'clock. Everybody is invited.

MR. S. J. DAUGHERTY has just received direct from the quarries in Vermont, a car load of very handsome monuments and headstones. They are very artistic in form and finish and will be sold at exceedingly low prices.

MRS. FANNY LACEY, daughter of the late Onesimus Atherton, of this city, died at Bloomington, Ill., on the 23rd inst. Many persons in Maysville who have kindly recollections of Mrs. Lacey will hear of her death with sincere sorrow.

A LETTER received from Thomas Tudor, jr., a soldier in the regular army, stationed at Fort Wingate, New Mexico, advises all young men out of employment to join the army. But the advice is not good. As long as there is any other kind of work to do keep out of the army. He reports himself and brother in good health.

AN infant, fifteen days old, that had traveled from Montana, Territory, and one hundred and twenty-five miles in conveyance to a railroad station, through snow, was a passenger on the steamer Morning Mail, last Monday. Its mother died in child-birth, and the remains were taken to Maysville for burial. The little one seemed to have stood the journey remarkably well.—Ripley Bee and Times.

The little traveler is the child of the late Mrs. Maggie Kemper, whose remains were buried at Millwood, one day this week.

In referring to the BULLETIN's statement that Miss Ora Lang, of Lewis county, is the most graceful lady rider in Eastern Kentucky, the editor of the Paris Kentuckian says:

This young lady was one of the contestants for fast driving at the Germantown fair, but as she had an unmanageable team, did not meet with success. We rode to and from Maysville in the same vehicle with her, and as we were a judge of the lady's riding, we were gallant enough as a bachelor to dislike to see the married lady from Ohio, carry off the prize over the attractive Kentucky maiden.

THE RAPE CASE.

James Carlisle Discharged, and Marshall Boston Charged With the Crime.

The examining trial of James Carlisle, colored, charged with rape upon the person of Lucy Connors, colored, closed Thursday about 12 o'clock. The warrant was dismissed, and Carlisle discharged. The trial developed a singular state of affairs, and all the circumstances of the case are a strong argument against resorting to mob violence. The evidence developed the fact that some one deceived Mrs. Connors away from her husband Tuesday night about ten o'clock upon the false representation that one of her neighbors was dying. The man, whoever it may be, was a stranger to the Connors. The woman, on her return home, described her ravisher, and James Carlisle answered her description. Under this state of affairs the warrant was sworn out, and Carlisle arrested. Upon being taken before Lucy Connors she identified him as the guilty party, and was positive of this in her testimony at the examining trial on the 25th inst. The accused Carlisle was employed as a laborer by Mr. Thomas Lashbrooke at the time of his arrest, and several of his co-laborers were introduced, and swore positively that he was at Mr. Lashbrooke's house Tuesday night between the hours of seven and twelve o'clock. Under this proof Mr. Lashbrooke was inclined to believe that Carlisle was innocent, and upon inquiry sufficient facts were obtained to warrant him in the belief that Marshall Boston, colored, was the guilty party. He accordingly swore out a warrant for Boston's arrest Thursday morning, which was executed by Deputy Marshal W. B. Dawson. Before Carlisle's trial was finished Boston was taken before Lucy Connors and identified as the guilty one, by certain marks on his clothing. She was then put on the witness stand and retracted what she had sworn to as to the identity of Carlisle. Under this state of affairs the magistrates dismissed the warrant against Carlisle. Boston's bail was fixed at $500 for his appearance to-day at ten o'clock to answer the charge. Mr. Charles E. Dimmitt, for whom he works, went on the bond, but later in the day surrendered him, and he was lodged in jail.

PERSONALS.

Mr. M. Blum, of Baltimore, is in the city. Dr. J. D. Dougherty and family, of Helena, are in the city. Miss Sarah Vaughn, of Louisville, is the guest of the family of Mr. Wm. Ort. Mr. J. Mat. Long, the new sheriff of Adams county, Ohio, was in Maysville Thursday. Miss Ida Walton, who has been visiting relatives at Germantown for some time, returned to her home at Covington, Ky., Thursday. Mr. F. M. Foxworthy, of Fleming county, aged sixty-six, and Mrs. Polly D. Powers, of Lewis county, aged fifty-nine, were married last week.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

Draper's Uncle Tom's Cabin Company has achieved a wonderful success this season—overflowing houses greeting the troupe wherever it has appeared. It has more novel features and more original talent than any company now traveling. The full company will appear in this city on Monday evening, October 29th, and at a matinee in the afternoon at two o'clock. Don't fail to witness this entertainment.

Terpsichorean.

The first grand ball of the season will take place at the Neptune Hall to-night, under the auspices of the Cigar Makers' International Union which is sufficient guarantee that a pleasant time will prevail. The music on this occasion will be rendered by the Maysville orchestra, under the direction of Prof. Haucke. You are invited. On with the dance.

A Piece of Advice.

Rev. Mr. Gilbert's first entertainment at the Christian Church to-night. If you like fun, if you like pathos, if you like lofty poetry, if you like Mark Twain, if you like elocution, go!

THE Denier Pantomime Company drew a good house last night, and the entertainment gave satisfaction.

THE Jessamine Journal gives a biographical sketch of a former pastor of the Methodist Church at Paris, from which we take the following:

E. H. Pearce was born near Maysville, Ky., graduated at college in 1863; subsequently studied law in the office of Hon. T. W. Barley, Cincinnati, and also with R. H. Stanton, at Maysville; was admitted to the bar in 1867; practiced that profession three years in the Maysville Judicial District. In 1870 he entered the licentiate of the ministry, acting until 1874 as Assistant Superintendent of the American Bible Society. Receiving leave of absence from his duties he was appointed by Gov. P. H. Leslie as State Commissioner to the International Exposition at Vienna, making a general tour of Continental Europe and Great Britain the same year. After his resignation with the American Bible Society he completed a course of study at Drew Theological Seminary and subsequently entered the Kentucky Conference, and was stationed at Covington, since which time he has filled the pulpits of Paris, Versailles, and is now stationed here. He was married in 1874 to Miss Annie E. Armstrong, daughter of Chas. Q. Armstrong, of Louisville.

Mr. J. T. Henry, of the firm of Newell & Henry, visited Vanceburg this week, and made large sales of their roasted coffee. This is a new and important industry. The firm is supplied with expensive machinery which is operated by water power. The trade in roasted coffee is growing rapidly.

It appears very much as if the next contest for the Republican candidacy for United States Senator in New York State will be between Mr. Whitelaw Reid and Ex-Senator Conkling.

The story is told of Senator "Zeb" Vance, of North Carolina, that soon after his second marriage he remarked to his bride: "My dear, I'm a stubborn fellow, and you may anticipate trouble. Now, in the beginning, while I am submissive, I want to give you one piece of advice. If you follow it, we'll get on might well. It is this: Make me do just as I darned please."

COUNTY POINTS.

WASHINGTON. Mrs. James Marshall, Mrs. Amanda Ward and Miss Mary, left Thursday morning on the nine o'clock train, for the Louisville Exposition. Miss Fannie Bronough, a former resident of this place, but now of Missouri, was visiting old friends and acquaintances here this week. Rev. Henry Scudder, of Elizaville, will preach in the Presbyterian Church Sunday. Miss Sallie Berry, of Mt. Olivet, is spending a few days here. Miss Dillie Burkyne entertained friends from Fern Leaf Saturday and Sunday—Mrs. J. J. Thompson and Johnnie, and Misses Lettie and Fannie Wood. Miss Sue Hunter has just returned from Indiana, where she made quite a lengthy visit. The Misses Adair gave an entertainment Wednesday evening, in honor of their guest, Miss Culbertson, of Maysville. Mrs. Thomas Wood, of Cincinnati, is sojourning with the family of Mr. George Wood. We wish there was some attraction in our churches to draw our young men off the street corners. There is a better crowd on them generally, than in the churches. Mr. Ezekiel Taylor will leave for Texas in the time. Dr. Barnes and wife, of Orangeburg, spent a few days with the family of Mr. James Gaul.
