

THE melancholy days have come, The saddest of the year, But he who uses printer's ink Will have no cause to fear. The chilling winds, borean tides, The polar blasts that rise, Trifling things are going to be To those who advertise.

HALLOWEEN—look out for your cabbage patches.

JUDGE Wm. S. BOTTS died at Flemingsburg this morning, aged seventy-three years.

MR. ROBERT TUTTLE, of Lexington, who had his foot crushed by an engine, at Paris, not long ago, was in Maysville yesterday.

JERRY WHITE, colored, was convicted of wilful and malicious cutting and stabbing another, in the Circuit Court, Tuesday, and fined $50 and costs.

A SMALL piece of charcoal placed in a pot of boiling cabbage will, it is said, prevent the odor that usually arises from this vegetable when cooking.

THERE will be services at the Baptist Church to-night, and every evening during the week, by Rev. F. J. Crisp, of Carrollton, Ky. Everybody is invited to attend the services.

AN old sow, yesterday, invaded the residence of Mr. Isaac M. Lane, and when discovered was in the parlor trying to get out through a front window. Will you vote next January to continue such things in Maysville?

Is the Circuit Court, Tuesday, 'Squire Grant was tried under the indictment charging him with making out and presenting illegal accounts against the Commonwealth of Kentucky. He was found not guilty and discharged.

THE Ohio and tributaries are rising at Pittsburg, with prospects of coal water. The Licking, Kentucky, both Kanawhas and Big Sandy are also rising. At Cincinnati, the Ohio rose over eight feet, making fifteen feet of water. The larger class of steamers are at work again.

The Ball-Myall Nuptials.

The marriage of Mr. W. W. Ball, Clerk of the Mason Circuit Court, and Miss Mary H. Myall, daughter of Mr. Edward Myall, one of the leading citizens of Maysville, was solemnized at the Christian Church, on Tuesday, at noon, the Rev. A. N. Gilbert, pastor of the church, performing the ceremony. The church was well filled by the friends of the contracting parties and the ceremony was beautiful and impressive. The bride's costume was a navy blue Ottoman silk, combined with brocade velvet, while the groom was dressed in conventional black and bore himself as a groom ought to bear himself on such an occasion. The ushers were Messrs. J. H. Sallee, P. P. Parker, Charles Parry and John Duley. Mr. and Mrs. Ball left shortly after the ceremony for Cincinnati, Louisville and other cities. The following is a list of presents received by the fair bride:

- Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Riley, set of pearl-handled knives and forks, in case. Messrs. J. H. Sallee, P. P. Parker, John Duley and Charles Parry, elegant ebony clock. Mr. and Mrs. Dr. James Shackelford, imported bronze statues. Mr. and Mrs. John Lovel, one dozen trined glasses. Miss Hattie Hord, half-dozen silver knives and forks. Miss Lida Turner, of Lexington, Ky., elegant hand-painted wisp. Mrs. Lucy Keith, toilet tray and bottles. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Newcomb, Ripley, Ohio, jewelry casket. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Richison, silver spoon holder. Miss Julia Lovel, silver spoon holder, gold-lined. Mr. Madison Skinner, solid silver cream spoon. Mrs. George Myall, solid silver sugar spoon. Mrs. H. M. Forman, solid silver butter knife. Mr. W. W. Melville, napkin rings. Mr. James M. Mitchell, handsome silver cake basket. Bride's parents, set of solid silver table and tea-spoons. Miss Nanbie Ball, half-dozen solid silver tea-spoons in case. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ball, pickle castor. Miss Lee A. Baker, dozen napkins. Mrs. Edna Myall, counterpane. Smith, Baird & Co., two boxes of cigars to the groom. Church Myall, fire set and coal vase. Mrs. John W. Watson, French toilet mirror. Mr. R. D. Wilson, pair blue vases inlaid with gold. Mr. Church Myall, set of silver knives and forks. Mrs. R. Skinner, silver spoon. Mr. Robert T. Bissett, Jr., tin set. Grooms to the bride, $100 in gold. Miss Lida Ball, silver fruit stand. Mr. and Mrs. Holt Richeson, card receiver. Wm. P. and Madison Lindsay, individual castor. Mr. A. F. Respass, half dozen after dinner coffee spoons, solid silver, gold lined, in case. David M. and Dudley S. Lindsay, individual castor. Mr. W. Parry, pickle castor. Mrs. H. K. Adamson, handsome oil painting. Mr. John T. Parker, ice cream set. Misses Florence and Frank C. Morrison, silver fruit basket. Hon. G. S. Wall and wife, jewelry casket, brocade velvet, satin lined. Hon. G. S. Wall, silver-headed walking cane to the groom. Dr. H. K. Adamson and wife, holy bible. Mr. M. F. Marsh, volume Byron's poems. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mathews, solid silver table, in case. Miss Alice Watson, tambourine plique, hand painted. Mr. J. M. Hill, pair blankets. Mrs. Mary Skinner, pair of embroidered towels. Miss Annie Myall, table cloth. Mr. Lee Ball, lace bed set.

Holiday Goods. There are positive indications in the shop windows of this city that Christmas is fast moving this way, and it is stated by dealers that the preparations for equipping Santa Claus' are more complete and elaborate than ever before. Stocks were never fuller nor more attractive in every branch of the business, and Maysville merchants were never better prepared to offer inducements to buyers than they will be during the approaching season, which is near at hand. Our friends in the country are cordially invited to give Maysville a trial this year, with the BULLETIN'S assurance that they will be surprised and gratified to see the extensive preparations that have been made on all hands to meet the wants of the season.

Temperance Literature. The Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union, of Louisville, Ky., has an agency for Temperance Literature, at headquarters over Hegan's store, Fourth street, Louisville, Ky. Orders sent to the above address will be promptly filled. Persons visiting the city are invited to call between three and five o'clock. Catalogue free on application.

PERSONALS.

Miss Emma Montgomery, of Decatur, Ohio, is visiting Miss Annie Campbell, of Grant street. Miss Lida Mitchell, who has been visiting Miss Lilly Green, of Covington, has returned home. Mrs. Maria Hixson, widow of Dr. Nathan Hixson, died at the residence of Mr. Charles Dimmitt, of this county, on Monday evening, of paralysis. The remains were interred at the Dimmitt family burial ground this morning at ten o'clock, after services by Rev. H. B. Taylor, of the Christian Church.

ABERDEEN ITEMS.

Mr. Frank Power is visiting in Indiana. Miss King, of Georgetown, Ohio, is visiting Mrs. Martha Dennis. As a last resort of conversation they turn to the photograph album. The cold, bleak winds forebode remind us that Christmas is coming. Mr. Oliver Spears and Mr. T. C. Carr left on Monday for Lexington, Ky. Mr. T. C. Carr sold his handsome horse last week to a gentleman in Ripley, O. Silent contempt is a motto that can be used on many occasions with good results. Judge David Tarbell, of the Georgetown Democrat, was in our town last week. Mr. T. F. Hill will resume the grocery business at his old reliable stand, corner of Third and Main street. Mrs. Charles Brown has returned to Aberdeen, after a pleasant visit to Mrs. Allie Means, of Maysville. Mr. Alex. Ellis, a most popular young man, for his urbanity of manner, will continue to clerk for Mr. T. F. Hill. Unpleasant news, if spoken of at all, should be whispered as gently as the sighing autumn winds over the death of summer. Mr. Burt Barkley has returned to dear old Maysville. This week's news to some of Aberdeen's fair daughters. Miss Ella Clark, of Higninsport, Ohio, who has been on the invalid list, has resumed her duties as teacher in our district school. The Misses Chambers entertained a number of their friends one evening last week. The guests report having spent a most enjoyable evening. Mr. Palmer will soon return to the dry goods business at Mr. Sparks' store in Maysville, where he had formerly been a most popular clerk. Mr. A. T. Botts and his lovely bride have returned from their Louisville trip, and will now settle down to "love in a cottage" on Second street. Miss Josie Davis, one of our siren beauties, has returned from a pleasant visit to Ripley, Ohio. Report says she made a grand conquest while there. Mr. J. Bridwell and his daughter, Miss Ella, who have been visiting Mrs. Will Wheeler, of Front street, have returned to their home in Knoxville, Tenn. The terpsichorean social given last Friday night, at the public hall, was a most enjoyable affair, and reflected great credit on the gentlemanly managers. Mrs. Emma Newton, after a lingering illness, died on Saturday night of consumption. Her burial took place Sunday afternoon at the Aberdeen cemetery. Madam Grundy certainly must have been dissipating in too many wine suppers last week. Hence she is not accountable for some of the false reports she gave us. Never was the popular song "When The Leaves Begin to Turn" quoted so frequently as during this beautiful autumn weather, all the sentiment of the song has been worn thread-bare. The origin of throwing a slipper after a newly married couple is to indicate the chances of matrimony are rather slippery. It requires a good deal of dexterity to keep on your feet. The Carrie Stanley Dramatic Company left on last Thursday, for Ripley. We hope Ripley will accommodate them with a more commodious opera house than the one they left at Aberdeen. Mr. J. Boswell, our enterprising merchant, has returned from the East with all the latest fall and winter styles. His store is making quite an attractive display, where the most fastidious could not fail to be pleased. The woods abound with small game. The sportsman in his hunting costume, followed by a troop of yelping hounds, is the exciting sport of the season. From early morn till dewy eve, the woods resound with the hunter's gun. We have often expressed our opinion in regard to duels in general, but we have never spoken of any one in particular. Hence it is somewhat amusing to us when we hear of any one gentleman having been discontinued. "Guilty conscience needs no accusing," and some gentlemen only give themselves "away," when they so readily apply it as being personal. When the cap fits, of course they are welcome to wear it.

CITY ITEMS.

Advertisements inserted under this heading line per line for each insertion. Try Langdon's City Butter Crackers. Children's cloaks and cloakings at Hunt & Doyle's. Ninety-eight different styles of new neckwear open to-day at Hunt & Doyle's. Buy your cloak from Hunt & Doyle, they know how to fit you perfectly. Five hundred dolmans, jackets and cloaks at Hunt & Doyle's to-day. Bring on the babies. Pictures taken instantaneously by Kackley at M. & K's book store. Ten real squirrel fur-lined circulars, $25, $30, $35, $37, $50, received to-day at Hunt & Doyle's. WANTED—To rent a large hall, suitable for a skating rink. Address "Skater," in care of Mrs. Bateman, Front street.

COUNTY POINTS.

SARDIS. Our town is beginning to fill up with visitors for the debate. Mrs. Lucy Keith, of Maysville, is visiting Mrs. W. W. Spates. Miss Lida Metcalfe has a fine school at Mt. Hope Academy. Jacob Stroble, a German knight of the brush, has just completed Squire Grigsby's house painting. He also did a fancy job of painting and papering for E. F. Herndon. His bachelor quarters are invitingly cozy. Col. Sam. Forman and wife, of Minerva, were visiting the family of his brother William, last week. Desha Valley is resuming its wonted gaiety since the return of its young mistress. Among the visitors we may mention those pleasant young ladies, Misses Dora Berry,

Amanda Trigg, Allie Chanslor, Annie White and Hattie Forman, of Helena. Mr. A. O. White and wife visited the capital of Nicholas county three days of last week, spending the time pleasantly with relatives at that point. en route, Mrs. White seeing for the first time the Blue Lick Springs, now in its autumnal quietude and glory of its picturesque scenery. A gay and festive grape party from Shannon were out on the vine-clad hills of Robertson county on Saturday last, in quest of that delicious fruit. The party was made up as follows: Mr. Frank Bland and Miss Amanda Trigg; Mr. Wm. Gault and Miss Dora Berry; Mr. Jeff. Arthur and Miss Ollie Bland; Mr. Wm. Chanslor and Miss Phoebe Herndon; Mr. Tom Browning and Miss Lottie Proctor.

MATSLICK.

The Hopper House is receiving a new roof. Mr. John T. Wilson and wife have gone to Chicago. The measles are very bad in this place and vicinity. W. H. Arthur has put a new roof on his store room. C. W. Cook, of Newark, Ohio, was with us this week a few days. Born, to the wife of Mr. Alexander Duke, on the 27th inst., a fine daughter. The Catholic Church is now ready for the roof. Egnew & Allen do the work. Miss Emma Ball, of Fleming county, was visiting Miss Katie Foster last week. O. A. White with his new bride passed through this place Saturday morning. Dr. H. L. Parry's new house is now completed and is a most elegant mansion. Miss Lizzie J. Pael, of Sharpburg, was visiting friends and relatives here last week. C. M. Worthington and company returned last Friday from a hunting expedition in Lewis county. Miss Jennie Evans is on an extended visit in Fleming county. The Mayslick and Flat Fork turnpike is progressing slowly, but surely. C. W. Williams, Esq., gave the young folks a party on the evening of the 24th inst. John LaRae, wife and daughter, Tillie, of Blue Lick, spent the day here last Sunday. J. Clary has some apple and plum trees in full bloom, and on the latter there is fruit forming. The growing wheat crop never looked better at this season of the year, and the fall prospects are good. Mrs. Conde, who has been visiting Miss Annie Myall, left, on Tuesday morning, for her home in Indianapolis. Mrs. Rebecca J. Wilson, a charming widow of Lexington, is visiting her many friends and relatives in this vicinity. A number one beef for sale—a heifer two and a half years old, cost $25. Call on J. A. Jackson, of the Stonehall House. Miss Lula Woodman returned to her home in Clark county last week, but left many aching hearts behind her. Too bad. Rev. W. H. Tiller was absent last week, attending the missionary meeting at Cincinnati. His wife is visiting at Germantown. A. S. Piper and his daughter, Miss Mollie and Miss Annie Clarke, returned from their visit east last Friday night, all well and delighted with their visit. J. A. Jackson & Son have lately received an immense stock of dry goods and notions and are selling them at low down figures, give them a call. They are paying from 25 to 50 cents a bushel for potatoes in trade. Rev. M. M. Riley preached his farewell sermon last Sunday. Had one word to say about a selling them at low down figures, give them a call. They are paying from 25 to 50 cents a bushel for potatoes in trade. A short time ago in our rounds we took in Vanceburg and spent a short time very pleasantly among their mill, which was the acquaintance of many pleasant and very interesting ladies. We also had the honor of making the acquaintance of the editor of the Vanceburg Courier, a gentleman of the first water. Messrs. Porter & Hopkins, of Washington, Ohio, have been in this place one time, buying walnut lumber, and in that time having secured a mill, which was located here, 250,000 feet, and shipped on the railroad 75,000 feet in the log; and have spent in this vicinity about twelve thousand dollars. They move their mill this week near Washington, Ohio, by they are a nice, gentlemanly set of men, and we regret to see them go, but our loss is Washington's gain. Success to you, gentlemen.

HE KNEW THE HABIT OF THE FAMILY.

Texas Sitings. The Lampton family have lost by death five or six children, but the births are pretty much in the ratio of the deaths so that the family is far from being childless. A few weeks ago there was another death in the family, and the undertaker's assistant called at the house. A small boy met him at the door. "Is your pa in?" "What do you want see him about?" "I want to ask him when the funeral will take place." "You need not see him at all then, if that's what you want. I can tell you that. Pa always buries us at 4 o'clock in the afternoon."
