The Republicans in Nebraska made a gain of about 10,000.

A COURT HOUSE to cost $50,000 will be put up at Falmouth, Ky.

ADMIRAL PORTER says the Navy now is "mostly officers and water."

THERE are forty thousand hogs in the Chicago yards. Packers are fighting for lower prices.

UNITED STATES Senators and the regular army between them seem to monopolize the scandals of the day.

THE earnings of the Big Four and Kentucky Central for October show an increase over the same month last year.

JOHN KELLY's New York organ, the Star, says the late election places Arthur at the head of Republican candidates for 1884.

THE Ohio Senate stands 82 Democrats to 11 Republicans, and the House 60 Democrats to 45 Republicans. The Democratic majority on joint ballot is 28.

AMERICA has of late been so overloaded with Englishmen of note that Mr. John Bright has concluded not to tax our boundless hospitality by visiting this country.

UNLIKE the other western States, Colorado is not only not a shipper of agricultural products, but is actually compelled to rely on its neighboring States for its supply.

If Thurman goes into the national convention with a united and faithful delegation from Ohio, the Pittsburg Post predicts that his chances will be strong for the Democratic Presidential nomination.

SENATOR MAHONEY's son was arraigned in a Petersburg court for drawing a pistol on election day, and was fined $15. The latest returns from the State indicate that the Democratic majority will reach thirty thousand.

Prosperity.

We are glad to chronicle the prosperity of our brethren of the craft. The enterprising proprietors of the BULLETIN have introduced a water motor to run their presses.

Some Names in Print.

The retiring army bill appears to be Wm. Tecumseh Sherman.

The Princess of Wales has a passion for having her photographs taken.

Bismarck has regained his former strength, but finds his capacity for work curtailed.

The wedding ring given by Martin Luther to his bride is still in existence, and has been placed on exhibition in Frankfort-on-the-Main. It bears a representation of Christ upon the cross and the instrument of the Passion, and in it is set a small ruby. The inscription is: "Dr. Martin Luther; Catherine Bora, June 13, 1520."

Although Father Anderledy, the future general of the Jesuits, has passed his sixty-fourth year, he continues to enjoy vigorous health. His black hair is unstreaked with gray. Little known as a writer, he is highly esteemed as a professor and administrator. He has some celebrity as a preacher, and understands, besides the dead languages, English, German, French, Spanish and Italian.

Mr. Gebhard appears to have got on the right side of the old lady. A letter from Burlington, Vt., where Mrs. Langtry appeared lately, says: "Mrs. Langtry arrived in town on the early train from New York Friday morning. Her private car was placed on the side track, and in this she lived. Freddie was present and attended the rehearsal."

WORTH'S LATEST WHISPERS.

Copies of a Hat Worn by a Queen Who Had a Very Hard Time of It.

Notes from Paris and New York.

Shirred yokes and full waists are again in vogue.

Cloth bonnets are much worn with cloth costumes.

Gauzes will be very fashionable and a great variety is to be had, tinsel and chenille being largely introduced.

A wrap seen at the Metropolitan Opera House, in New York, the other evening, was of light blue plush, embroidered with gold in designs representing fruits.

The colors most worn in Paris this autumn will be the whole scale of grays, terra-cotta and a combination of rifle green and golden brown known as morore, also a tint known as gris russe having a slight purple hue like the breast of a pigeon. It makes the most dainty toilet in silken tissues, as the shade is more obtainable in silk than wool.

The newest and sweetest thing in hats is decidedly the Marie Antoinette, copied from a picture in the Louvre of that unfortunate Queen. The full, soft crown, and broad, slightly curving brim are in rifle-green velvet. Around the crown is a torse of palest pink silk crepe, on the left side a large pacache of pale pink and coral feathers with high aigrette. Given a pretty face beneath this elegant hat, and broken hearts will be numberless.

CONDENSED NEWS.

It has been decided by the National Line Steamship Company, of Liverpool, to run a monthly service between Philadelphia and London.

ANNE BERRINGER, a domestic in the family of J. H. Nagan, at Indianapolis, was burned to death while kindling a fire with coal oil.
