

ROSSER & McCARTHY, Publishers and Proprietors, To Whom Address All Communications

ED. MYALE, the wagon man Has firmly made the stand, That when Old Kris goes on his route, He's going to be on hand.

FANS have been ordered in, and skates are now at the front.

With a full determination to do your whole duty, go you churchward to-morrow.

Good country sausage meat was sold in Maysville, yesterday, at ten cents a pound.

Mr. WYATT CHEASEY, a useful citizen of East Maysville, died last night after a short illness.

Mr. BEN HUFF is building a neat double frame house in East Maysville for Mr. W. W. Ball.

Fifty thousand pounds of hemp were sold at Lexington a few days ago for $5.75 per hundred.

The illuminated dial of the new town clock does not shine as brightly as it ought. Maybe it needs greasing.

The lost watch recently advertised in the BULLETIN, was returned to the owner within an hour after the paper was issued.

READ Morrison & Kackley's several advertisements elsewhere. They have just received some new and beautiful goods.

Do no fail to read all the new advertisements. Our merchants mean business plain and simple, and you should inform yourself as to what they propose to do.

Rev. J. C. Howes, presiding elder of the Covington and Maysville district of the M. E. Church, will preach to-morrow morning and evening at the M. E. Church on Third street.

It is said to be a good plan to burn a little sulphur in the cellar occasionally. The fumes sweeten the air and kill the germs which taint the butter and meat, and they will do no harm in any sanitary way.

A CHICAGO physician announces that "swell-head," the new cattle disease, is contagious, and can be communicated to man. This will be unpleasant news to gentlemen who have cultivated the disease in the old way.

"Pig album parties" are fashionable in Texas.—Courier-Journal.

We would like to see the party that could put a Maysville pig into an album. An attempt to do it would find the album inside of the pig on the shortest kind of notice.

One of our leading merchants desires to buy the verse department of the BULLETIN, in the interest of his business, and although he is willing to pay a high price for it, the offer is declined with thanks.

The Kentucky Central train, due at Lexington last night at seven o'clock, was thrown from the track near the Louisville and Nashville depot in that city. The express coach was badly damaged, but no person was hurt.

Mr. D. D. SPALDING, U. S. Revenue Agent, is in the city, and has made an examination of the Maysville office. He speaks in very complimentary terms of Mr. Phister's management, and says no other office in Kentucky ranks better.

Secure your seats for the Chanfrau entertainments at the Opera House on Monday and Tuesday evenings. The box sheet is at Harry Taylor's news depot. The ladies' matinee is announced for Tuesday afternoon. Don't miss the opportunity to see these eminent artists.

A DAY or two ago an old sow walked into the hall at Dr. J. T. Strode's residence on Third street, and coolly took possession. He is constantly annoyed by visitations of this kind, and there is no remedy for it except by voting the hog out of town. Will the people do it?

The following marriage licenses have been issued in Brown county, Ohio, since our last report:

W. L. Sullivan and Mary F. Perry. Edgar L. Martin and Florence B. Gardner. John Laycock and Zella Brangover. Stephen D. Johns and Elizabeth A. Reed. John C. Dean and Sarah E. Redkey. S. P. Hawthorne and Mary R. J. J. Charles Pabst and Elizabeth Troutman.

PERSONALS.

Judge Robert Bowman and wife, of St. Louis, are the guests of Miss Mattie Power, of East Maysville.

Mr. Tim Hierley, who has been connected with the Clark County Democrat for some time past, is at home again.

Master Will Green, son of Mr. Thomas M. Green, who has been very sick of malarial fever, we are pleased to announce, is better.

The Churches. Services will be held as usual at St. Patrick's church to-morrow.

Rev. S. H. Chester will preach to-morrow morning at Washington Hall. Subject: "Christ Tempted of the Devil."

There will be preaching at the Christian Church, in Washington, by Rev. A. N. Gilbert, on Sunday afternoon, at 3:15, if the weather is fair at 2:15.

Rev. A. N. Gilbert will, on Sunday night, at the Christian Church, resume his lectures on "The Harmony Between Science and Revelation." These have both been made objects of skeptical attack, and the justice of these attacks will be examined. The lecture will be illustrated by a diagram specially prepared by Mr. Gilbert, intended to exhibit the exact geographical location of the Garden of Eden. Below will be found a syllabus of the lecture. Mr. Gilbert will also preach in the morning.

Man not a development from the ape—he did not begin existence as a savage—the oldest known skulls averages with those of to-day—science traces all races to one geographical origin—where was Eden?—not all a garden—identification of its rivers—the Persian gulf—explanation of the diagram—the beauty of the garden—some rectifications of Milton's picture of Eden—the thorn and thistle difficulty—is the story of the fall a childish narrative or an absurd myth? an analysis of the temptation—an epidemic of all temptation through all time—the question of inheritance—the final voice of mercy and blessing stills all others.

If people troubled with colds would take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral before going to church or places of entertainment, they would avoid coughing, greatly to the comfort of both speakers and hearers. Public speakers and singers find that the pectoral wonderfully increases the power and flexibility of the voice.

A Druggist's Story. Mr. Isaac C. Chapman, Druggist, Newburg, N. Y., writes us: "I have for the past ten years sold several gross of Dr. William Hall's Balsam for the Lungs. I can say of it what I cannot say of any other medicine. I have never heard a customer speak of it but to praise its virtues in the highest manner. I have recommended it in a great many cases of whooping cough, with the happiest effects. I have used it in my own family for many years; in fact, always have a bottle in the medicine closet ready for use."
