LOOK OUT FOR BURGLARS.

BUTTER is a higher in price this week. It is quoted at 20 and 25 cents a pound.

SEVEN houses were robbed by burglars at Lexington on the night of the 19th inst.

FIRE bugs are warned that this is a dangerous neighborhood for their business.

In a street fight at Paris on Sunday evening, Walter Dimmitt was seriously cut by Alfred Dean.

MR. G. A. McCARTHY has a novelty in the way of a coal oil lamp, that is said to be the best in use.

We are indebted to Mr. Frank Reynolds, Express Messenger on the Kentucky Central, for late Lexington papers.

MR. W. D. HIXSON is announced elsewhere as a candidate for City Assessor. He is capable of making an excellent official.

THERE was a large audience at the Opera House last night to witness the presentation of "Kit," and the play was heartily enjoyed.

THE sixteenth volume of the Encyclopedia Britanica has been received by Mr. W. D. Hixson, the librarian of the Historical Society.

We learn from a source that we consider reliable, that the electric light in Maysville is a certainty, and the only question is what light will be used.

REV. F. J. CURSE, of Carrollton, Ky., has made an engagement to preach regularly at Brooksville, one Sunday in each month, and on the other Sabbaths will assist country churches in protracted meetings.

THE price of gas in Covington will be reduced January 1, from $2.50 to $2 per thousand feet. The company anticipate that the amount consumed will be largely increased in consequence. The attention of the Maysville company is called to this item.

THE United States Electric Light at the knitting factory continues to give perfect satisfaction. It may be seen in operation every afternoon from five to six o'clock, and those who wish to look at it will be made welcome by the gentlemen of the Knitting Company.

A FRAME stable in the rear of Dr. John Shackelford's residence on Third street, caught fire Tuesday night about eight o'clock, and burned to the ground. The fire department was at hand promptly, but owing to the combustible nature of the structure, it was impossible to stay the flames.

THERE will be preaching in Sardis at the M. E. Church, South, next Sunday by the pastor, taking as his subject, "That the church established in the family of Abraham was the same church continued under the gospel dispensation, and as infants were admitted to the privileges of the former by circumcision, they should now be baptized."

AN attempt was made Tuesday night to burn a frame building in Chester, near the street car stables, belonging to Holiday & Hutcheson, by saturating the outside with coal oil. When the flames were first seen an effort was made to put them out by throwing on what was thought to be water, in a bucket near by, but it proved to be coal oil. The fire was however distinguished, and only slight damage done.

Tax receipts for wharfage at this place since 1875 are as follows:
1875 $1,990 25
1876 4,217 05
1877 4,678 80
1878 4,520 88
1879 4,546 55
1880 4,189 05
1881 4,189 75
1882 4,050 90
2,640 70
Total $34,924 70

The decrease in 1883 is due to low water in the river, and the discontinuance of the railroad boats which paid a wharfage of $60 a month.

Hark, Ye Adelpheans!

The oracle calls—rouse, rouse ye Adelpheans, to the temple at 9 p. m. to-night (Wednesday.) A brother has been taken captive and a strange experience awaits him, from which he must be rescued, if there be human means to save. "The Knights of the Golden Fleece" must come in full armor, and the "Plutonian Band," in full regalia, and each brother shall bear in his right hand a flaming fagot of rye straw. The oracle so speaks and expects every brother to duly perform his duty.

THE HIGH PRIEST,
Amanensis to the Oracle.

Accidentally Killed.
Special to DAILY BULLETIN.
AUGUSTA, Ky., November 21.—A. C. Armstrong was instantly killed yesterday, while helping to move a house. It fell upon him breaking his neck, several ribs and his leg. He was a useful and enterprising citizen. He was the school commissioner for eighteen years and represented Bracken county for three terms in the lower house of the Legislature. He will be buried by the Masonic fraternity on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock.

PERSONALS.

Mr. John Riff, of Lexington, is the guest of Maysville friends.

Miss Mollie Caldwell, of Ripley, is the guest of Miss Annie P. Lynch.

Miss Buchanan, of Crab Orchard, and Miss McKinney, of Stanford, will arrive on Monday to visit the family of Mr. R. B. Lovel.

Cards have been issued announcing the marriage of Miss Adah Bryan Stitt, of Paris, to Mr. John D. Duley, at the Bourbon House, Paris, on Wednesday, November 28th, at four o'clock p. m.

COUNTY POINTS.

WASHINGTON.
—Mr. Wm. Tarleton and bride of Martinsville, Indiana, are spending a few days with relatives in this place.

Miss Lizzie Rankins, of Augusta, is the welcome guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles Wood.

The Misses Lamb entertained Mrs. Rittenour and Miss Lydia Thompson, of Washington, Ohio, and Miss Lizzie Sargent, of Portsmouth.

All who had the pleasure of attending the masquerade party at the residence of Charley Hunter, last week, spent a most delightful evening. Hope there will be several more of the coming winter.

There will be services in the Methodist Church in this place, Thanksgiving. Preaching by Rev. Mr. Pollitt.

Holman Boudien, of Sardis, is a visitor of the family of Dr. Hunter.

Mrs. Sue Wilson, of Dover, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Lydia Lurley.

Owing to the inclement weather the supper given by the members of the Presbyterian church was not as great a success as they would like for it to have been. Try it again, ladies.

STONE LICK.

Mrs. Malinda Wallingford is visiting her son, J. H. Wallingford.

Miss Ada Glascock was thrown from her horse last Sunday, and, fortunately, sustained no serious injury.

Miss Belle Tolle and her sister, Nannie, of Mt. Carmel, are visiting Miss Nannie Calvert.

Miss Emma Durant is visiting her uncle, Mr. W. T. Calvert.

Our "edification" was quite a success financially and in point of numbers. Nearly enough was contributed to pay off the church debt.

Elder Keyes has been employed as pastor of the church at Stone Lick.

In the good old days of the apostles the preach was "Jesus Christ and him crucified." Now a large majority of it is "Money and missions." Then religion was noted for its piety, now it is measured by the amount of cash given.

FIVE WEDDING GOWNS.

Some Bridal Costumes that were Worn in New York this week Described.

New York Telegram.

At the Cole-Myer marriage on Wednesday, the bridal costume, was regarded as very handsome. The court train is of white satin brocade and the rest of the dress is covered with point lace. It has a Pompadour neck filled in with point lace and fastened with a diamond pin, short sleeves, also trimmed with point lace, caught up with orange blossoms and diamonds, other ornaments of diamonds, corsage bouquet of apple blossoms.

On the same evening occurred the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Marie and Mr. Barnwell. The bride was attired in a costume of white satin trimmed with point lace, waist cut square and filled in with the same, court train, tulle veil caught up with orange blossoms and a diamond pin and falling gracefully over the shoulders, hand bouquet of lilies of the valley, other diamond ornaments.

At the Merritt-Newton wedding the bride was attired in a costume of white silk, flounces of duchesse lace, tulle veil caught up with Mermet roses, neck cut square and trimmed with duchesse lace, Catherine de Medici collar of duchesse lace, court train; diamond ornaments, hand bouquet of Mermet roses.

The dress of Miss Myer, now Mrs. Underhill, was of white silken train, with point lace trimming and flowing point lace veil. On her right arm she carried a silver basket filled with white chrysanthemums.

The bridal costume at the Tertbury-Quinn marriage is of white satin, duchesse lace veil, duchesse lace trimming, high neck, court train, hand bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla works directly and promptly, to purify and enrich the blood, improve the appetite, strengthen the nerves, and brace up the system. It is in the truest sense an alterative medicine. Every invalid should give it a trial.

New Books.

Mark Twain's "Life on the Mississippi," "Tom Sawyer," "Innocents Abroad," Will Carleton's "Farm Ballads," "Farm Legends," "Farm Festivals." For sale by M. & K. n17dlm

If people troubled with colds would take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral before going to church or places of entertainment, they would avoid coughing, greatly to the comfort of both speakers and hearers. Public speakers and singers find that the pectoral wonderfully increases the power and flexibility of the voice.

Lost Faith in Physicians.

There are innumerable instances where cures have been effected by Scoville's Sarsaparilla, or Blood and Liver Syrup, for all diseases of the blood, when the patient has been given up by physicians. It is one of the best remedies ever offered to the public, and is so prepared with the greatest care, as a specific for certain diseases, it is no wonder that it is more effectual than hastily written and carelessly prepared prescriptions. Take Scoville's Blood and Liver Syrup for all disorders arising from impure blood. It is endorsed by all leading professional men.
