HICKS' ARMY CRUSHED,

AND FRANCO-CHINESE WAR BEGUN.

Exciting News Front the Old World-Entire Annihilation of the Egyptian Army---China Delivers Her Ultimatum to France.

LONDON, Nov. 22 .- A dispatch to Renter's Telegram Company, dated Cairo, at 8:25 this morning, says the army of Hicks Pasha has been destroyed by the forces of El Mahdi, the False Prophet. Intelligence of the disaster was brought to Khartoum by a Coptic official. The fighting is said to have continued from the 3d to the 5th inst. The engagement is said to have resulted in the complete annihilation of the Egyptian troops. It is stated that a European artist was the only person who escaped. El Mahdi's force comprised, it is estimated, 300,000 men and included Dervisches, Bedouins, Mulattoes and regulars. The battle was fought near El Obeid. El Mahdi first sent forward the Dervisches, declairing they would vanquish the enemy by divine aid. Subsequently the regulars joined the attack, and later the engagement became general.

The army of Hicks Pasha, which early in the battle was divided into two bodies, was subsequently reunited and formed a square, which the forces of the False Prophet broke after three days Prophet desperate fighting. A council Ministers has been held, a it has been decided to concentrate at Khartours what Egyptian troops remain at Duem, Goba and other places in Soudan. What was probably their last communication. with the Government of France was the delivery of the ultimatum of China, that an attack upon Bacninh will be regarded as a declaration of war. All the Powers have received official notification of the delivery of the ultimatum, and it is considered probable here that the Embassy has private information that the French have already marched upon Bacuinh, and that war may have actually commenced.

Western Corn Crop.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—The Tribune publishes elaborate reports of the condition of the corn crop in Himsis, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska. Advices from the first of the three States say the crop is the poorest harvested in many years. Owing to frost and thaw following in quick succession, a large percentage of grain is soft and fit only for food for hogs and stock. Large quantities of this soft corn, undoubtedly ninety per cent., will go to waste on the approach of cold weather, hence the farmers will have much more of it than they can feed to their stock. The question of seed for next year proves a serious one, as there will be a large deficiency in Ne-Grain is in excellent shape. In Kansas the crop is the largest ever seed supplies, as there is general complaint in other States that the grain grown from Kansas seed suffered more than any other.

Inportant Experiment in Steel Manufacture.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 23,-A comparalow carbon Bessemer steel has been commenced at the works of the Pittsburg Bessemer Steel Company, at Homestead, which, if successful, will completely revolutionize the work of puddling, doing away with that process altogether. Heretofore but little Bessemer steel has been made below a certain per cent, of carbon, which renders it impracticable to use for many purposes for which wrought iron is em-ployed, but, by the late experiments by the management of the Homestead works, steel is expected to be made as low in carbon as the 6-100 of one per cent., which the superintendent states will answer all purposes for which wrought iron is used.

Conflicting Reports as to the safety of Passengers.
CRICAGO, Nov. 22.—Reports concerning the probable loss of the propellor Manistee are conflicting. A reporter at Duluth, Minn., telegraphs as follows: "The Manistee left here Saturday, November 14, loaded with oats and bran, for Ontonagon, with a fair list of passen gers, a crew of fifteen and three deck hands. Saturday until Thursday, where her passengers transferred to the City of Duluth. Captain McKay was from Rochester, N. Y., the purser, G. L. Seaton, the steward, F. M. Kelly, the mate, Andy Mack, and the engineer, Pat Cullen, were all of Chicago." The above dispatch, it will be seen, indicates that the passengers are all in safety on the Duluth. On the other hand a Milwaukee reporter telegraphs as follows: "The local representative of Leopoid and Austrian, of Chicago and Milwaukee, said Tuesday evening that he feared the Manistee had gone down with all on board in the terrific storm of Saturday last. Eleven Men Detected on One Horse-Car Line and Arrested.

Sr. Louis, Nov. 23.-For the first time since the introduction of the street railway system into St. Louis prosecutions of dishonest condutors are to take place. Eleven arrests have been made on the Union Depot line, and President Scullin says every man of the lot shall be given the butt end of the law. They caught eleven conductors out of thir-ty-six stealing, and some of them are charged with taking from 75 cents to $1,00 between terminal points on a single trip. President Scullin says that arrests of the kind have often been made before, but the companies, on account of the heavy costs have always refrained from prosecuting. This time, however, he will try and push every man to the wall, believing that the move will pay, however expensive it may He also says that 99 per cent of the discharges on his line during the past year have been for dishonesty.

DEATH FROM PURE JOY

BAD EFFECT OF WINNING HIS CASE.

A Rhode Island Man Actually Gets to the End of a Lawsuit, and Dies of Astonishment and Unexpected Happiness,

NEWPORT, R. I., Nov. 22.-George C. Munro, a prominent citizen, died suddenly this morning. Joy at recovering a verdict against the Aquidneck Bank about ten his death. The case has been in court ever since 1865, and deserves more than a passing notice. From November, 1863, to November, 1866, Messrs. Munro did most of their business through the Aquidneck Bank, then a State bank. Their account with that institution during these two years amounted to $446,400. August, 1, 1865, as is alleged by plaintiffs, George Munro, the senior member of the firm, de-posited a $2,000 check, drawn on the Lime Rock Bank of Providence, and signed by P. Meed, as Treasurer of a sugar refinery, with which the Munros had had dealings. Some time after, when their bank book was made up, the firm discovered that the cheek had not been credited to them. On reporting the fact to the bank officials the latter claimed that there was no account on the books to indicate that such a check had been received. Subsequantly Messrs. Munro obtained the canceled check from the bank on which it was drawn, and still failing to get satisfaction, brought suit against the Aquidneck Bank for the recovery of the amount of the check, and the case has been on the court dockets in various forms ever since. When the suit was begun the Aquidneck Bank was a State institution. The case was continued from time to time for several years, and when it finally came to trial the institution having been changed from a State to a National bank, the defendants claimed that there was no such institution as the Aquidneck Bank, and then plaintiffs were non-suited. Suit was then promptly brought against the Aquidneck National Bank, and there have been three trials. In the first two trials the jury failed to agree, but in the last one a verdict was rendered for plaintiffs for the full amount of the claim with interests and costs, amounting to upwards of $4,000, The bank based its defense on the claim that the check must have been cashed over the counter. At the time the trouble began the bank was suffering from the acts of a dishonest cashier. For some thirty years, up to 1865, the Messrs. J. C. and W. J. Munro were extensively engaged in the shippin; business, they having offices here and at Wilmington, N. C. The firm also owned a number of coasting vessels, and were known in all leading shipping circles throughout the country.

Fish Oil Poured on the Waters to ." m the Troubled Scn.

NEWPORT, Nov. 22.—The brig Louisa Caipel, Captain Parker, of Yarmouth, N. S., has arrived here after encountering the most extraordinary hurricanes and owles the captain ever knew. He thinks the vessel and all on board would have been lost but for the fact that he had a large cargo of fish oil.

The waves swept continuously over the ressel and finally the deck load began to slip, when he gaves orders for a number of small holes to be bored in the casks con-taining the oil. While this was being done the men engaged were nearly swept overboard; but in a few minutes the oil trickled on the deck through the scuppers and into the ocean and almost as soon as the oil reached the water the waves were less boisterous, and in less than a half hour there was an unmistakable diminution in the force and number of the waves that broke over the ship. In an hour they had almost entirely subsided. The chief mate says he has never before seen oil used but he is enthusiastic in the declaration that the fish oil saved the brig, cargo and crew.
