SHOOTING AFFRAY.

The Night Watchman at the Elevators Attacked and Four Persons Wounded; One Dangerously—Statements of the Participants in the Affair.

A shooting affray, which resulted in the wounding of four persons, occurred at the Maysville Coal Elevators, at the corner of Limestone and Front streets, on Saturday evening, about half-past seven o'clock. The participants were Joseph Weaver, the night watchman; Charles Tully, son of J. W. Tully, of Glenville; Alex. Snetz, of Cabin Creek; and Joseph Archdeacon, of this city. Weaver was shot in the left thigh; also in the left hand, and was cut on the back of the head with a pair of brass knuckles. Snetz was shot in the left groin and the left thigh. His injuries are very serious and may result fatally. He was taken to the old jail building, where his injuries were attended to by Dr. J. T. Strode. Archdeacon was wounded in the left groin and also in the left thigh. His attending physician, Dr. J. T. Browning, does not think his injuries are very serious. Tully was shot in the leg but during the melee made his escape and at this writing has not been apprehended. Weaver is attended by Dr. Cartmell, and is not considered in a dangerous condition. He is twenty-three years of age; Snetz, twenty-two; Archdeacon, twenty; Tully, about seventeen. Weaver was perfectly sober when the affair occurred, and the others were more or less under the influence of liquor. The former is a young man of good habits and has the entire confidence of his employers. The affair was witnessed by a number of persons, but as their accounts disagree so widely, we give below the statements made by the participants to a reporter for the BULLETIN. The bystanders, however, agree that about fifteen shots in all were fired.

says: I am the night watchman at the coal elevators. About half-past seven I saw two men passing through the yard and told them they had better get out. They paid no attention and I warned them again. While this was going on two men from the outside ran in and the four got to fighting. I ran down to put them out and caught Snetz, who had a pistol. The weapon went off while I was taking it away from him and wounded me in the left hand. One of the party got me down and while on top of me I shot him. As I got up one of the party struck me on the back of the head, I think with the butt of a pistol. Several shots were fired after this and the party scattered. I then went off to have my wounds dressed. I don't know who fired the shot that wounded me in the thigh.

ALEX SNETZ

was not in a condition to talk freely, and told his story briefly. He said he started from home to attend the circus in a skiff with Charles Tully. Landed at Maysville and put the oars away at the coal elevators. Drank some during the day and just before going home got a small jug of whisky from one of the grocery houses. While buying it two young men stopped at the door and waited for us to come out and afterward followed us to the elevators, where one of the asked where we were going. Tully answered, "none of your business." At this one of them ran up and struck Tully and the fighting began. The night watchman came down and grabbed Tully and when he did so I struck him on the head with a pair of brass knuckles. I had no pistol. I started away and when about five feet off was shot by the watchman in the groin. I then started to run and as I jumped over the bank was shot in the leg, by whom I don't know. The crowd scattered, some of them going to a small boat at the river. As they passed me one of the party said: "It's a good thing that you are in the fix you are in, or we'd fix you right here." I ran by them to Pat Dugan's and as I ran four shots were fired at me from the boat. I was arrested by Officer Redmond and subsequently taken to Dr. Strode's office and later to the old jail. I had been drinking but was not drunk to know what I was about. After I jumped over the bank Tully passed me. I asked him if he had been shot and he said, "yes, in the leg."

said that he had not followed Tully and Snetz. Was going down toward the elevators where Nat Geis and Joe Weaver were. I met Tully and Snetz crossing Limestone street to the elevators. One of them asked me where I was going and before I could answer pulled his pistol, and at the same time Weaver and Geis and myself closed in on them. While the firing was going on I did not see Geis. Snetz shot me in the leg when my back was turned. I don't know who fired the shot that wounded me in the groin. I was not armed. I had been drinking but was not drunk. I did not go to the boat after the shooting but went with Geis to Dr. Shackelford's office and finding no one there went to Dr. Strode's office and he being out went to Dr. Browning's office where I had my wounds dressed. After that I went home.

Marshal Redmond on Sunday morning removed Snetz from the jail to the jail residence where he is receiving every attention his condition requires. He is resting easily but his state is a very critical one. The general impression in the community is that Weaver acted in self defense only, and did not use his weapon until obliged to do so.

The Testimony of a Physician.

James Beecher, M. D., of Sigourney, Iowa, says: "For several years I have been using a cough balsam called Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and in almost every case throughout my practice I have had entire success. I have used and prescribed hundreds of bottles since the days of my army practice (1863) when I was surgeon of Hospital No. 7, Louisville, Ky."

Vox Populi.

The voice of an intelligent people declares that Sododont in an article of genuine merit, and their patronage confirms what their voice proclaims. There is no gainsaying this pronouncement. Facts attested by the evidence of numberless respectable citizens prove that it is correct. No article for the teeth has such a wide popularity, and assuredly none exerts such a beneficent influence upon them, rendering, as it does, their structure more solid, and exterminating the seeds of its decay.
