

THE DAILY BULLETIN

MONDAY EVENING, MAY 26, 1884.

THE late Republican claming match was a tame affair as compared with the doings at the court house last Saturday evening.

A DESPATCH to the BULLETIN from Paris, on Saturday evening, announced that the Bourbon delegation to Winchester was uninstructed, but the delegates are for Scott and Moore.

SAYS the Chicago News: You can easily distinguish the Blaine boom from other booms by the parasol it carries. When the wind is southerly it knows a sunstroke from a platter of ice cream.

MADISON, Montgomery, Bath, Fleming, Clark and Robertson Counties have instructed for Riddell. It requires eighty-four votes to nominate and Judge Riddell, who was here Saturday, claims that he has ninety-six certain, which is twelve more than is necessary to nominate.

WHERE the BULLETIN is in doubt as to what its political duties are it will apply for advice as to what its course shall be to some of the distinguished gentlemen who are now criticising it for supporting Riddell. But at present we are not in need of any counsel on the subject.

LET the hogs run at large and strangers will think this town is Maysville.—Ripley Budget.

The above reminds us that Dr. John A. Mitchell who was crossing the street this morning, was run into and capsized by an old sow. But such things are of frequent occurrence here and the item is, therefore, not of startling interest.

THE Democracy are warned against holding mass conventions in this city. It is just as impossible by that means to express the true sentiment of the voters as it is for a cat to jump up to the moon. The element drummed up in the town, organized, drilled and provided with leaders and strikers take possession and run things to suit themselves. The scenes of turbulence that take place disgust the better class of representatives and drive them from the room. This is how it has worked in the past and will work in the future. If you do not wish to see renewed the scenes of Saturday, put your foot down hereafter on mass conventions.

Certainly Not.

The Maysville BULLETIN alludes to "the Mt. Sterling demand" in reference to the Appellate race. Be it known that Mt. Sterling does not demand anything, but a fair expression of the will of the majority. And also understand that Mt. Sterling is not owned by one man, and please don't visit upon our fair little city, the sins of one or two of our citizens.

Riddell and Moore.

In 1865 Col. Moore claimed to be a Democrat, and supported the nominees of the party that year, at which time no rebel was allowed to vote. At the session of 1865-6 the Legislature passed a law removing the political disabilities of the ex-Confederates. This was too much for Col. Moore, and he left the party and denounced it a rebel party and supported Gen. Hobson, the Republican nominee, for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, against Hon. Alvin Duval, the Democratic nominee.

Broken Bulletin.

Judge Robert Riddell, is also a candidate for the office of Appellate Judge. We have never heard anything derogatory to him either politically or otherwise. He has always been a true and consistent Democrat, voting at all times for, and supporting the nominee of the party; he is one of the smartest and best informed lawyers in the State, and has made a first-class Circuit Judge, a position he now occupies.

What Judge Hargis Said.

A recent utterance of Judge Hargis has also intensified the feeling of Riddell's friends. I give the source of this information, so that if it be denied it can easily be traced up. Coming up on the train last week, Judge Hargis stated to Mr. Goodpaster, of Owingsville, that Riddell could not be elected if nominated, and that in case Judge Holt, of this city, was opposed to him on the Republican ticket he (Hargis) would vote for Holt, and would stump the district for him. This statement was repeated to Mr. Brooks, of Owingsville, by Mr. Goodpaster. Mr. Brooks, in turn, told it to Mr. Lewis Apperson, of this city, from whom I received it. I am also assured by person of standing here that all three of these gentlemen are thoroughly reliable. I am thus particular because, talking to Col. Will Hamilton about the report, he told me he was confident that Judge Hargis could not have said such a thing. I therefore give names, so if the report is not true it can easily be disproven, and if it is true it can easily be substantiated. It is generally believed here to be true. I was also informed that Judge Hargis spent Saturday and Sunday nights last with Mr. Stone, in this city; that on Sunday night Hargis and Stone had a consultation with Judge Holt, and that Judge Holt was the person alluded to in Stone's speech as able to carry Montgomery county and the district against Riddell, in case the latter should be nominated. It is believed by Riddell's friends that the action of Stone or Monday was determined on in that conference and his speech prepared or written either then or immediately afterward, and that he in his utterances became merely the mouthpiece of Hargis and Holt.

STABBED TO DEATH,

But He Whipped His Adversary After the Fatal Wound Was Made.

HANNIBAL, Mo., May 26.—George Riley and Henry Penrose were discussing a horse trade in which Riley had got the best of the bargain. The latter, who was intoxicated, accused Penrose of cheating him and a fight began between the two men. Riley drew a knife, plunged it into Penrose's breast and then cut a deep gash in his arm. Penrose continued to fight, however, and succeeded in soundly thrashing his assailant. After the difficulty was over Penrose started for a physician's office, but fell exhausted from loss of blood and will die. Riley fled, pursued by two or three citizens whom he threatened to kill if they tried to stop him. Reaching his house, he attempted to get possession of a shotgun, but was foiled by his wife, who reached it before he did, and ran out of the house with it. In the meantime officers had come up and he was captured and taken to jail.

Should Be Tarred and Feathered.

CINCINNATI, May 26.—The marriage of Katie Schetner and George Roth took place yesterday, in spite of the interference of the girl's brother. Katie and George work at the same dairy out near Fairmont, and day before yesterday the girl appeared at Squire Anthony's office and made affidavit that George was the father of her unborn babe. He was brought before the Magistrate and expressed his willingness to marry her, and the girl being willing, a license was procured. Just as the ceremony was about to take place Katie's brother entered and protested against the tying of the nuptial knot, saying he wanted money. This caused a delay, and the two lovers reappeared at Squire Anthony's office yesterday, accompanied by the brother, who preferred a few dollars to the honor of his sister. The greedy wretch insisted on Roth paying up, and set the price of his sister's virtue at $50. The two, however, insisted on becoming man and wife, and Squire Anthony performed the ceremony for them.

He thinks that his property will realize $70,000 toward paying the debts of the bank. A large crowd surrounded Brabender's house, making loud threats of violence, and the police force has been detailed to guard the returned prodigal.
