He Didn't Exaggerate. Texas Sitings. "Ate a quart of raw oysters at one time? Oh, pshaw! you couldn't do it, Patrick."

Improved Dentistry Down in Texas. From the Rock Hill Herald. About four years ago Dr. J. A. Glenn extracted a tooth for a gentleman in this county, kept it out an hour and ten minutes, long enough to put in two fillings, and then replanted the tooth in the cavity.

A Man Who Kept His Wits About Him. New London Day.

A narrow escape and a heroic rescue occurred on the Northern Railroad bridge this side of Montville Tuesday night. As the train swept around the curve the engineer saw a man and woman on the bridge directly in his track.

John Marshall's Nose. Philadelphia Press. After the unveiling of the Marshal statue several descendants of the great chief justice visited the congressional library.

"Has the artist taken any liberties?" asked Mr. Spofford. "Yes," replied the lady, "he has made the nose an improvement on the original."

A YOUNG GIRL'S FALL.

Kindly Treated, but Still She Persisted in Going to the Devil. LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 26.—A special to the Commercial from Eminence, Kentucky, says of Miss Fay Sewell, of Washington, D. C., who was taken from a house of ill fame in this city Tuesday night: "Miss Sewell entered Eminence College about April 1st upon the recommendation of friends of her family. She demanded and received private instruction, but seemed discontented, notwithstanding she was permitted to visit the town twice per week, accompanied, always, by a teacher, but since the close of the school her private instruction has continued, while her privileges have been extended, and she appeared more content. She was taken into and treated as one of President Giltner's family. Her departure was a source of great surprise to Mr. Giltner, who did not know of her absence until he was about leaving for Mt. Sterling, in which locality he still remains, but has been telegraphed to return. Miss Sewell left the College with the plea that she was going to the dressmakers, where it was known she was having work done. The cause that led to her rash step is unknown, but since her departure many rumors have been started, which cannot be traced to a reliable source. She was treated with every courtesy and kindness by the president's family and the faculty. Her mind is evidently, from some cause, unbalanced, either temporarily or permanently. The many and extraordinary statements that she has made in this community fairly justify this conclusion. Miss Sewell is now at the home of Mr. Caldwell, Superintendent of the House of Refuge, awaiting the action of her parents or guardian at Eminence. She claims she was taken to Madam Daly's by a hack driver, and that she was ignorant of the character of the house.

JUDGE LYNCH.

Dakota No Longer a Paradise for Horse Thieves. BISMARCK, Dak., June 26.—For some time horse thieves have infested McLean County and the country along the Missouri River. Sunday afternoon one named Jacob O'Neill was caught by farmers and hanged to a telegraph pole. He was found hanging, by a stage driver, with a note in his pocket bearing the words "O'Neill, the horse thief." A report reached this city last night that four more of the gang were pursued north to Mouse River where a fight ensued and one thief was shot and three others hanged. The farmers have been exasperated and rejoice over the news. They say they will lynch horse thieves as fast as they catch them.

RAPE AND MURDER.

Terrible Work of a Son Who Was Follied in His Lecherous Work. CHICAGO, June 26.—A dispatch from Geneva Lake, Wis., states that Andrew J. Odell of East Troy, Wis., was arrested there yesterday for an attempted assault on Susie Ingalls, of that village. Miss Ingalls was staying with Odell's people near East Troy and night before last he attempted the assault. The girl's cries were heard by Andrew Odell's father. He armed himself with an axe and went to the room. The son took the axe from his father and beat him on the head, inflicting wounds from which he died to-day. The murderer has been in the State prison for committing assaults on married women. He is now lodged in jail.

The Hero of Five Wars Dead. WASHINGTON, June 26.—General Ward Burnett, of New York, after a lingering illness of several years, died in this city this morning. He was a veteran of five wars, and the oldest living graduate of West Point who became a general in the Mexican war. In 1841 he made plans and estimates for the Croton Water Works in New York City, and in 1855 he made the plans of the Brooklyn Water Works. Funeral services will be held in this city and the remains will then be taken to West Point for burial.

Probable Wife Murder. MATTOON, Ill., June 26.—Dan Cook, a colored laborer of this city, is under arrest, charged with murdering his wife, who has not been seen since last Friday. Near an abandoned well in the west part of the city were found pools of blood, the woman's ring, and other evidence that she had been murdered and her body cast into the well, which is eighty-five feet in depth. A club covered with blood was also found near the well, and a hair-net glove on the surface of the water near the top.

Lightning's Terrible Work. NEILSVILLE, W. Va., June 26.—During a storm yesterday afternoon lightning struck the house of George Brooks in Grant Township, killing his eldest daughter, aged eighteen, and partially paralyzing the next oldest girl. The house caught fire, and burned with the entire contents, including the body of the dead daughter. The paralyzed girl managed to escape. The rest of the family were in this city, and no assistance was or could be rendered.

Loss by the Morgan Failure. NEW ORLEANS, June 26.—The failure of Morgan's Sons strikes the Canal Bank, of this city for a small amount, but not enough to affect its standing. The bank declared a dividend yesterday of 4 per cent., and has still undivided earnings greatly in excess of all possible losses. Morgan's Sons were not stockholders in the bank, although they have done business with it for many years. Morgan is a native of this city.

Departmental Changes. WASHINGTON, June 26.—Through private advices from Chicago it is learned that the U. S. Circuit Judge Drummond has forwarded his resignation to the President to take effect on July 31. Postmaster General Fresham will be appointed to succeed Drummond. The pay is $6,000 a year and the position a life one. It is considered probable that President Arthur will promote Frank Hatton, First Assistant Postmaster General, to General Postmaster's place.

Temporary Possession to the Base Ballists. CHICAGO, June 26.—Judge Drummond rendered his decision yesterday in the mandatory injunction suit of the United States against the Chicago Base Ball Club, which was brought for the purpose of ousting the club from their present location on the lake front. The club is allowed to continue in possession until the close of the season.

CONDENSED NEWS.

JULY 5 is fixed upon for the adjournment of Congress. HON. GEORGE W. STEELE was nominated for Congress by the Republicans of the Eleventh District, Indiana, on the fourth ballot. JAMES HOWARD, Dillard Johnson and Joseph Neall were killed in Harlan County, Ky., while quarreling over a disreputable woman. A RAILROAD collision near Sunbury, Pa., killed train dispatcher Wm. Mallick, fireman Schultz, and a tramp who was stealing a ride. OVER seven hundred and fifty suits are pending against the Wabash Railway, mainly for construction, aggregating over $2,000,000. THE Mexican Pension Bill was passed in the Senate by a vote of 37 to 27. It will increase the pension annual expense about $12,500,000. HENRY MULLER, a postal clerk, a brother of Congressman Muller, of New York, is under arrest at Jersey City, charged with robbing the mails. THE United States Circuit Court is considering a case in which 1,700 acres of land in the heart of Duluth, Minn., worth $7,000,000, is involved. EX-GOVERNOR MOSES, of South Carolina, is under arrest in Chicago for swindling. Two indictments for swindling are pending against him in Boston. THE fall of a scaffold 175 feet, from the steeple on Grace Church, New York, resulted in the death of one man, named Simpson, and the serious wounding of two others. REV. CHARLES O'REILLY, of Detroit, Treasurer of the Irish National League, has received a letter from China, threatening death unless he immediately sends $25,000 to Ireland. REPORTS from Texas are greatly different from those of a few weeks since. The largest grain crop ever made in Texas is expected, and the largest yield of cotton in several years. Free Luncher's Death. LEADVILLE, Col., June 26.—James Crocker, of Stillworth, England, was found dead in his chair at an early hour yesterday morning in the Monarch gambling house. He had been out of employment more than a year and has lived on free lunch for most of the time. On examining his stomach it was found that he had actually starved to death. Taxing Railroad Land. WASHINGTON, June 26.—The bill to compel land grant railways to pay the cost of location and survey of their land in order that they may become subject to local taxation was among the bills which the Senate caucus last night decided to consider if possible before adjournment.

Body of a Murdered Man Found. EAST SAGINAW, Mich., June 26.—The body of a young man supposed to be named Twierle was found floating in the river this morning, his head crushed and bearing other evidences of foul play. He was the son of an old German grocer in this city. An investigation is in progress.
