

ROSSER & MCCARTHY, Publishers and Proprietors, TO WHOM ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS

ON Friday night, My gentle gazelle, The "old war horse" Will be here to tell, In plainest talk To you and to me, Of rascally tricks By the G. O. P.

BUTTER advanced in price to-day to 30 cents a pound.

THE Sunday train on the Kentucky Central from this city to Cincinnati has been discontinued.

WILLIAM REESE'S tobacco barn, near Mt. Sterling, burned on Sunday night. The loss was $4,000.

DON'T fail to hear Hon. W. B. Fleming, the Democratic State elector, at the court house to-night. The speaking begins promptly at seven o'clock.

POLICEMAN GORMAN, who died from a wound by a forty-four caliber bull dog revolver in the hands of a United States Marshal on election day, was buried at Cincinnati yesterday.

THE funeral of Dr. William Nelson will take place this afternoon, at two o'clock, from the residence of Mr. Newton Foster. The burial will be with the honors of Masonry.

SOMETHING over eight thousand persons attended the Wild West entertainment at Cincinnati yesterday. The troupe will exhibit here next Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

THE still-hunt by the Republicans is still going on industriously in every county in the district. Democrats should be on their guard everywhere. Every Democratic vote will be needed.

AN instance of careless riding on Saturday came near resulting seriously with Dr. A. G. Browning. He was run down by a drunken horseman but fortunately escaped with only a soiled suit of clothes.

Public Speaking.

Hon. W. B. Fleming, Democratic State elector, will address the people of this city at the court house, to-night at seven o'clock. Let there be a large attendance. Everybody is invited.

MARSHAL FRENCH, a colored convict from Louisville, working on a turnpike near Carlisle, was killed, on Saturday, while blasting rock. He was ordered away by the overseer but refused and was struck and fatally injured by the falling rock.

GEORGE M. BEDFORD, one of the largest farmers and stock breeders in Bourbon County, has made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors. His liabilities are about $80,000 but it is thought his estate will be sufficient to pay all the claims in full.

Notice.

The members of the Cleveland, Hendricks and Powers clubs, of this city and Chester, are requested to meet at the council chamber this evening at seven o'clock for the purpose of attending the speaking in a body. A full attendance is earnestly asked.

THOS. J. CHENOWETH, President.

General John S. Williams.

We take great pleasure in announcing that General John S. Williams, the old Democratic war horse, will, without fail, address the people of this city and county at the court house, next Friday evening at seven o'clock. Don't fail to hear him. Let the audience be the largest that ever assembled in the court house.

A DISTRESSING accident occurred Monday afternoon, at the residence of Esquire Buckler, about three miles from Mt. Olivet. Two of his little girls were playing in one of the rooms and took from a bureau drawer a loaded pistol, which was accidentally discharged, shooting one of the little girls, about eight years of age, in the hip. The wound was a very painful one.

THE Courier-Journal says: One hundred Democrats have organized with the determination if any bull-dozing is attempted by negro or other deputy Marshals, to resist it, and if any Democrat is shot to see to it that the shooter at once suffers the same fate. So the matter stands, and if feeling keeps growing in intensity there will be serious trouble in Chicago on election day.

THE centennial meeting of the Covington District M. E. Church will begin in this city to-night at 7:30 o'clock, in the church, on Third street. Rev. Bidwell Lane and Rev. C. J. Howes will deliver addresses. There will be a meeting tomorrow morning at 9 a. m., and at night at 7:30. Interesting subjects will be discussed at all the sessions by distinguished ministers of the church.

THE Covington Commonwealth says: "However that may be, it is beyond dispute that many of these deputy marshals 'raked out of the stumps—jail and work 'house birds, cut-throats and shoulder-hitters, armed with the deadly British 'bull dog—were arrogant and insulting 'in manner and provoked nearly all the 'troubles that occurred at the polls in 'Cincinnati last Tuesday. Above all 'rises a question than which no more 'important one ever presented itself for 'the consideration of a free people. Will 'they submit to a partisan law, under 'which a partisan officer, in no way 'responsible to the people, may secretly 'recruit and arm two thousand or more 'partisan ruffians to terrorize voters of an 'opposing party at a popular election? If 'the people submit to this infamous sys-'tem they will surrender the last hope 'of free institutions."

Mr. Wadsworth belongs to the party that introduced this infamous method into American politics, and approves it or else he could not claim to be a Republican. Guns were fired last Thursday from the hill on which stands his residence to commemorate this victory by United States Marshals with bull dog revolvers. Will you vote for him, and by such a vote thus approve the villainy in Ohio?

The Wild West.

Speaking of Buffalo Bill's "Wild West," the Boston Globe says: "It is for this reason that the scenes of years ago which were common in border life, are giving way before the advance of immigration, and are giving place to the events of former existence, that the "Wild West" brings to the thickly populated regions pictures and events which must soon become historic only. Once seeing the realism of the attack upon the Deadwood coach is better and more impressive as a study than a hundred pages of description of the early struggles and dangers of the Western settler; to see the attack upon the settlers' cabin, and the gallant rescue, will give a young or old student an idea of what our ancestors underwent, such as no history can furnish."

THE ladies of the Southern Presbyterian Church desiring to raise the funds necessary for furnishing their church building now in progress of erection, have determined upon instituting a series of entertainments, to continue throughout the winter. These entertainments will consist of a social gathering once each month, which will be enlivened by readings, recitation and music, furnished by the talent of the ladies and gentlemen of our city, and a performance once each month by the Thespian Club, organized and kept in working order by Mrs. G. W. Sulser. The first of this series will be given by the Thespian Club, Tuesday, October, 23th. Further particulars will be found in our columns this week.

When This Fierce Election Fight is Over.

When the Presidential contest, now waged so fiercely, ends on November 4th, the public mind, now excited, will take a rest, content that the country is saved—no matter who shall win—but then will be an opportunity to win a fortune of $75,000 by investing in the 174th Grand monthly drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery, at New Orleans, on Tuesday, November 11th. The particulars can be had of M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La.

In the Circuit Court, Monday, William Thomas was convicted of carrying concealed, a deadly weapon and fined $25 and costs.

In the case of the commonwealth against Robert Farrell, Governor Knott yesterday notified Commonwealth's Attorney, Thomas A. Curran, that he had not yet appointed a special judge, but that the matter would be attended to and the case tried during vacation.

They Voted As They Shot.

Marshal Wright's deputies got in their work with great vigor in Cincinnati. If they all voted as they shot it would account for a considerable Republican gain. The Deputy Marshal's pistol is more potent than the policeman's club.

TALKING SORGHUM.

Additional Facts About Our Saccharine Interests.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Professor Wylie of the Department of Agriculture, has just returned from a tour in the West, where he has been studying the sorghum sugar industry. He thinks the production of sorghum sugar steadily increasing, the amount being manufactured in this country this year being nearly double that made last year, and the number of large factories having been largely increased. Still there is little encouragement for the prosecution of the experiment, for the price offered for the sugar after manufacture is so low that there is little profit.

Prices generally for sugar are very low, so much so as to be quite discouraging for the sugar growers of the South as for those of the sorghum belt. Much of the sorghum sugar made now ranks high in quality, and brings as good price as the Southern or imported sugars of that grade, but there is little profit in sugar-making for anybody at the present prices. The quantity of sorghum sugar made in this country this year will probably amount to a million and a half or two million pounds. There are large factories in New Jersey, Illinois, Tennessee and Kansas. The one in New Jersey is the oldest and is run on the most thoroughly scientific basis, as was described in this correspondence a year or more ago. Word comes from the West too that the best sugar factories of California are hard at work turning out sugar from beets. There seems no good reason why this country should not make her own sugar instead of sending abroad nearly a hundred million dollars of it, as she annually does.

The representative of the Department of Agriculture, who went to France and Germany a few weeks ago to study the methods of evaporation used in the manufacture of sugar there, is back. His hope and the hope of the Department and of the sugar growers of the South generally was to be able to adopt for the cane sugar making in this country some of the methods which enable the French and Germans to make sugar at so little cost. They evaporate their sugar at about one-half the cost that is required by the present methods in this country. The indications, however, are not very satisfactory as to the possibility of adopting the methods here. "The difference in the quality of the best juice and that of the cane," said Professor Wylie, "is such that I fear we shall not be able to adapt the methods used there for beets to cane sugar here. There is a considerable per cent. of glucose in all the cane of this country which the beets there do not have, and it is very evident that their methods of evaporation applied to our cane juice would turn the glucose into a bitter product which would be difficult to get rid of, and would of course render the sugar valueless. We may be able to adapt some of the principles used there in a much modified way, but the prospects are not very flattering for the benefits to our country making that we had hoped might accrue."

HARRISON'S FINANCIAL WRECK

The Result of Self-Sacrifice Made to Save the Public.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 21.—The announcement that an application for a receiver for the Harrison Wire Works had been filed caused a great deal of sympathy for the gentlemen connected with it. Messrs. Thomas W. Fitch, Edwin Harrison and Ralph Lute, the company, had been embarrassed for some time. Fitch, the president of the company, is the Lieutenant Fitch who married Miss Minnie, daughter of General Sherman. He lost nearly all his wealth. The rumor that General Sherman backed him is denied. It is not long since Harrison was worth a million and a half in excess of his liabilities. By assigning about the time that the St. Louis Ors & Steel Company had a receiver appointed, he could have saved a large amount of property, but at the urgent solicitation of a number of St. Louis bankers, who represented to him the bad effect the assignment would have on the financial situation, he concluded to try to carry his burdens through. It is said that the very men who were most anxious that Harrison should sacrifice himself for the public good declined to render any assistance when he, in turn, needed it. If Harrison had assigned he would still be a wealthy man. As it is, he prevented a panic in St. Louis at his own expense. Those who know the condition of the Harrison properties believe that but little will be saved from the wreck.

OREGON NEWS.

Forgery, Stage Robbery and a Killing by Wild Animals.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 21.—J. J. Hedges, a young attorney of this city, who was convicted a few days ago of forgery, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for five years. The stage was stopped Saturday near Weiser, Idaho, by three masked men under cover of their rifles. The driver threw them the express treasure. He was then ordered to drive on. Several passengers were in the stage, but no attempt was made to rob them. It is not known how much the robbers got. A party of citizens were immediately organized, and are in pursuit. The body of an unknown man was found Saturday, near Harrington, Washington Territory, in the midst of dense timber. A few yards distant the body of his horse was lying dead. Both bodies were frightfully torn and mangled. There is no clue to the identity of the man. The only solution of the tragedy is that both were attacked by cougars and killed. Tracks of these ferocious animals were found in the immediate vicinity. The whole country is infested with them.

BOWMAN'S BREAK.

A WIDOW the sufferer of His Misappropriation of Money. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—The failure of R. W. Bowman, a capitalist and real estate broker, which was announced last Thursday, will prove to be much more serious than first supposed. It is now pretty well established that the misappropriation of moneys placed in his hands for investment will reach $50,000. One of the heaviest losers will, it is said, be Mrs. Harriet Bowie, at present in Europe. She was immensely wealthy in her own right, and Bowman had absolute charge of her affairs. He was a heavy borrower from the Bank of California, but it is believed the bank is fully secured. It is difficult to get at the facts, as interested parties refuse to say anything until the assignee has made his settlement. Bowman, who is ill in bed, has been placed under arrest.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 21.—Dominick McCaffrey, of Pittsburg, arrived here Saturday night and was tendered a reception at Clark's Club Theater. "The next man I will fight will be Sullivan," he said; "I understand he desires to meet me and I shall not decline."

Rice, returned to her home in Liberty, Mo. Wm. Luttrell has improved his residence with a new coat of paint, which makes it one of the finest dwellings in this section.

Why Not?

Why did the Administration party when they took possession of the polls in Cincinnati, arm their forces with imported 44-caliber British bull-dog pistols manufactured in Birmingham, England? Could not one of our native Ohio voters have been shot with an American arm as well.
