DROWNED OYSTERMEN.

It is Now Known that Thirty-Seven Were Lost.
BALTIMORE, Md., Dec. 16.—The bay steamers arriving here bring additional information in regard to Tuesday's storm and the loss of life is shown to be even greater than the reported yesterday. Of the tongmen who were at work near Monocin, in the Rappahannock River, there were thirty-one, thirty of whom were drowned. In addition to those, at least six men, whose names have not yet been ascertained, were drowned at Canoe House Landing, on the same river. These thirty-six men are all colored. At Mill Creek, another landing on the Rappahannock, a young white man was drowned. Thus far eighteen bodies have come ashore. The negroes all along the river are greatly excited and frightened over the disaster.

A Centese Exaggeration.
RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 16.—It is stated as a fact here by prominent lawyers that a family in Nash County, claiming an estate in England, will prove the truth of their assertions in regard to property by a man now living in Nash whose age is 100 years. It appears to be the best authenticated case of extreme old age on record in this country.

She Had Confidence.
Mrs. H. C. Harshbarger, Manor Hill, Huntingdon County, Pa., writes: "Dr. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, O.: I have been afflicted for three years, caused by over-work too soon after confinement. My kidneys became seriously affected; could not retain my urine day nor night. It was high colored, thick and bloody. My monthlies had left altogether for fourteen months, during which time I was confined to my bed with a beating in right ovaries. The discharge from the womb was so offensive no one could stay in the room. The urine continued bloody, with pain in voiding it, and when in bed would pass from me in my sleep. I have had three doctors attending me regularly, one for four months, one of the others, one whole summer, and the third all winter. We had two others in consultation with them, and used twenty bottles of different kinds of patent medicines, all to no good. I then got a bottle of PERUNA, and before I had three-fourths of the bottle taken I quit wetting the bed and could retain the urine sufficient to attend church, which I had not done for three years, and my monthlies came back as natural as ever; indeed, I considered myself a well woman again. Since that time I have had pneumonia. My confidence in PERUNA was so great that I did not send for a doctor. I followed the directions in your 'Ils of Life' and am over it, as well as can be expected of one so delicate as I have been. Others in my neighborhood had the same disease, and among them were strong men, and had the best physicians, and yet died, while I sailed through in safety on PERUNA and MANALIN. I sincerely believe, and would say to all the afflicted in the wide world, that PERUNA and MANALIN are the only two medicines that any one needs in any disease, if used as directed in your book entitled 'The Ils of Life.'
J. E. Fleming, publisher of the New Dominion, Morgantown, W. Va., writes: "Some months since, I received some of your medicine in exchange for advertising. My wife has taken five bottles of it, and has derived great benefit from it."
Mr. M. C. Pershing, Bradenville, Pa., writes: "My wife has been using PERUNA for some time for weak lungs and liver and kidney complaint, and thinks it is doing her great good. Has used only one bottle as yet. Please send your book on the 'Ils of Life,' as we can't get any from our druggist."
Mr. John Denny, Mt. Vernon, O., writes: "We have a large sale in PERUNA. It gives satisfaction."

Opposing the Treaty.
NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—At a special meeting of the Leaf Tobacco Board of Trade of this city to-day, it was unanimously agreed the board should oppose the ratification of the Spanish Commercial Treaty and send a protest against it to the Senate.
A mass meeting of cigar makers was held at Steinway Hall to protest against the Spanish Treaty. Signor De Costa presided, and after speeches by Samuel Gompers, Henry Ecks, A. Strasser, and others, resolutions were adopted that the ratification of this treaty would cause a disastrous competition with our home products; that the manufacture of the finer grades of cigars would be entirely impossible, and many thousands of workmen would be deprived of employment.

Depredating Tramps.
MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 16.—It is said that from seventy-five to one hundred tramps pass up and down the Louisville, New Orleans & Texas Railroad in the vicinity of Walls Station daily, and their depredations have so incensed the residents of that region that they seriously contemplate taking the law in their own hands and executing summary vengeance upon those caught in acts of rascality. An unknown German laborer was fatally beaten there by tramps last Thursday and robbed of all the money he had.

Shocking Accident.
CORRY, Pa., Dec. 16.—As train No. 49 was passing Grant Station on the New York, Pennsylvania & Ohio Railway, at 5:15 this morning, engineer James Ballard, while looking out of his cab window toward the rear of the train, struck his head against a box car standing on a side track. His head was terribly crushed. He died shortly after.

JUDGE S. DEHAVEN, of the seventeenth judicial district, has been appointed a special judge by Governor Knott to preside in the case of the Commonwealth against Robert Farrell. The case will be called for trial in this city on the fifth day of next January.
A DESPATCH to the Louisville Times says that Mr. Z. T. Young, the county attorney of Rowan, has been obliged to leave home on account of threats against his life made by the friends of John Martin, who claim that he was indirectly responsible for his death. The people are doing their best to allay the excitement and settle the trouble between the opposing factions, but an outbreak is likely to occur at any moment.
Those who find cause of complaint at the inequality of the laws, or at least in the administration of justice, in this country, might perhaps find consolation by examination and comparison with the judicial systems of some of the governments of the Old World. In England, for example, the greatest severity of punishment always attaches to offences committed by the poor against the rich. Recent English papers give some striking illustrations of this unjust discrimination. At Ayr two poachers killed a hare and were found with a snare in their possession. One of them was sentenced to three months at hard labor, and at the end of that time find security in $40 not to offend again for two years, or suffer a further imprisonment of two years. The other was sentenced to one month's imprisonment, with hard labor, and six months more unless he finds security in $30. At Hawarden, however, a man described as "a prominent preacher," knocked down his mother, aged seventy-five, and his sister, and dragged them about the room by the hair of their head. He was merely fined $3 and costs in one case, and $2 and costs in the other and bound over to keep the peace for six months. A hare is much better protected from sportsmen than are women from brutality, it would seem.

A SUCCESSFUL ROAD.

The Baltimore & Ohio's Virtual Triumph Over the Pennsylvania.
HARRISBURG, Pa., Dec. 16.—The Telegram will to-morrow contain interviews with prominent railroad men, showing that the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad has this week completed arrangements for a trunk line from Baltimore through to New York and Philadelphia by the way of Harrisburg, over the Western Maryland from Hagerstown to Shippensburg, from Shippensburg to Harrisburg by the Harrisburg & Potomac Railroad, and then over the bridge of the new Vanderbilt road to the Philadelphia & Reading tracks to Philadelphia, and by the Bound Brook to New York. Six miles of railroad in Cumberland County and the proposed Vanderbilt bridge will have to be built before May 1, and the contracts for both were given last week, the Phoenixville Iron Works getting the latter. It is also asserted that President Garrett, of the Baltimore & Ohio Road has gained control of the Jersey Central stock, recently held by Vanderbilt, and thus was enabled to force terms upon the Reading Road. General Passenger Agent Bond and other officers of the Baltimore & Ohio went over the proposed new line yesterday, and the coming week the work of making the connections will be vigorously pushed. This is considered a victory over the Pennsylvania Road connected with the suit now pending in the Philadelphia courts against the Baltimore & Ohio.

The New Orleans Exposition.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 16.—Wonders have been effected on the Exposition grounds the past week, and the great show approaches completion. There are five double track lines of street cars leading thereto and a steam propelled train, which can carry any number of passengers, will run from Canal street in a week or so, utilizing the track used to carry lumber to the buildings. In addition, boats will be run from Canal to the wharf boat in front of the Exposition Park, and there is no limit to the number of passengers they can transport. Although the city is rapidly filling up, there will be accommodations for 100,000 more.
At this moment everybody in New Orleans and the surrounding country is praying for clear and beautiful weather so that New Orleans, always gay and picturesque, may put on her gayest and most picturesque attire and be able to display her charms under the friendly rays of a smiling sun. There are miles of bunting in the streets and thousands of flags thrown to the breeze.

School Notes.

DISTRICT NO. 23—WOODLAND OR MILLWOOD.
This school house is located on the Mt. Sterling turnpike near Millwood, or Weedon's corner. The house is new and comfortably furnished, though not yet painted or fenced. There is also needed a recitation seat to complete furnishing. J. C. A. King, S. D. Clark and Wm. Steel, are the trustees. None of these had visited the school. They manifest decided interest in the work but having confidence in the teacher they trusted everything to her, forgetting that a visit, if of no other value, would encourage the pupils and give additional interest to the pupils. The census report shows a pupillage of one hundred and six, the roll forty-three, while twenty-nine were found in attendance. Hattie Hughes has never been tardy and has not missed any time; Charley Clark, Ollie Cord, Linne Bradford and Allie Higgins have not missed a day but have been tardy; Charley Clark, twice, Ollie Cord, three times, Linnie Bradford, and Allie Higgins once. This is the tenth week of school. Of the patrons Mrs. Dr. Cook has visited the school. There is a small debt on the school house yet and we understand the trustees are having trouble in raising this money. We hope the patrons will take enough pride in this matter to help the trustees make the school house what it should be. Miss Lattie Mefford is teaching her second term here. She is a teacher, not a mere school keeper, has attended a normal school, has a teacher's library and takes an educational journal. The school room presented to the experienced eye signs of the presence of a working teacher, there were charts for the primary classes, eclectic writing cards and a globe, all furnished by Miss Mefford. The written methods are used in all the school works. Those too small to write script print on their slates. There will be a class in letter and note writing before the session closes. Besides the common school branches there are two classes in algebra, one in Ray's fourth part of arithmetic and one in philosophy. The discipline of the school is first class, and its systems and methods throughout demonstrates the advantage of normal training, and we trust the teachers of the county, as they more and more realize the advantage of special training, will go forward to higher altitudes of professional excellence.
