

DYSPEPSIA

A Question

Often asked, but seldom answered satisfactorily: "Is there a remedy known to the medical profession that will ally the sufferings peculiar to women who are subject to Dysmenorrhoea and its attendant discomforts?"

Ladies If you have not tried it, do so AT ONCE. There is relief for you; it has been found in

Tongaline

Read what an eminent physician has to say upon the subject: "I have derived particularly gratifying results from the use of Tongaline in cases of Dysmenorrhoea. In the case of a lady of rheumatic condition, and a chronic sufferer from this disease, who had been driven almost to the verge of insanity by her monthly sufferings, its action has been most satisfactory. It relieved her promptly, and she now passes the once dreaded periods with but little discomfort. I could mention other instances of a similar character, but this is a remarkable case."

OUR WASHINGTON NEWS.

THE MOST IMPORTANT EVENTS AT THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

The Secretary of the Interior Will Not Revoke the Commission of Major Wagoner, of Tennessee, and Thinks That the Past Should Be Forgotten--Notes.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Several weeks ago Maj. Wagoner was appointed pension agent at Knoxville, Tenn., to succeed Robert L. Taylor, resigned. In the meantime some utterances of Maj. Wagoner's, of twenty years ago were published, which, it is alleged, gave offense to some of his endorsers, and they have been working to have his appointment revoked. The secretary of the interior declines to recommend the revocation of Maj. Wagoner's commission. He says: "Maj. Wagoner was appointed upon the recommendation of the leading and best citizens of Tennessee of all parties, who represented him as a man fully qualified in integrity, intellect and character, for the duties of the position, and as a man endeared to the people by his consistent support during the past twenty years, of their highest and best interests."

"The fact brought out against him since his commission was issued that he had given an unjust and unwise vote for disfranchisement when he was a young man, not more than twenty-one years of age, immediately after the war, when the passions of both sides were roused to the highest pitch, should not be used now to ostracize him from public trust among a people to whose rights and interests he has ever since been true and loyal. We have all been contending that the issues of the war and the passions growing out of it should not be kept alive, and I do not know of any instance in which precept can be better enforced by example than this. Both sides in Tennessee showed the courage to fight. I am confident they have also that higher quality, magnanimity mutually to forgive."

Cutting's Claim on Mexico. WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Mr. A. K. Cutting, the Texas editor, who was recently imprisoned in a Mexican jail for alleged libel, has doubtless carried out his expressed intention of seeking monetary redress. The state department, it is understood, has received from him a bill for $50,000 damages against the Mexican government, together with a statement of his side of the case. No official information on the subject is yet obtainable.

AFTER MANY YEARS.

Mr. Blaine Visits the Scenes of His Childhood at Brownsville, Pa. BROWNVILLE, Pa., Oct. 25.—Mr. Blaine spent a day among the scenes of his childhood. He arose early to take a drive of five miles into the country, the people turned out en masse everywhere to greet him. The house in which he first saw the light is now occupied by John Hall and his family. Mrs. Hall stood in the door to greet her distinguished caller. "I knew your father," she said, "and I'm glad to welcome the son. Yes, certainly, go where you please." Mr. Blaine called his sons to his side and said to them with a look of joy in his face: "Come, boys, and I'll show you the room where I was born." He rushed forward to the room, then he looked around and slowly said: "This is not the room."

His memory had deceived him for the first time. He had remembered the most trying things, but failed in this. The room where he first saw the light was in another part of the house. After leaving the house Mr. Blaine announced that he would visit the graves of his father and mother in the old Catholic graveyard. In the evening Mr. Blaine spoke in the public square. His speech was simply a talk to the people, of interest to them only. Politics were not mentioned. Mr. Blaine and party left for Washington, Pa., the next day.

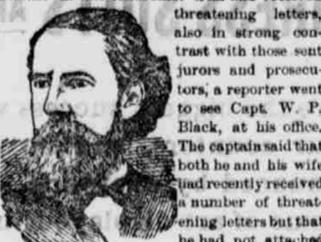

McCabe's Insanity. NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The insanity experts, Drs. Hamilton and McDonald, who have been selected by the prosecution to inquire into the claims of the defense as to the alleged mental incapacity of ex-Alderman Francis McCabe, began their examination of the prisoner at Ludlow street jail to-day. They will, however, submit no formal report to the district attorney until the latter part of next week. Dr. Hamilton has assured Mr. Martine that he will make a most careful examination, and has stated that he will probably require several days in which to complete it thoroughly. There is no doubt that the greater part of next week will be occupied in finally disposing of the McCabe case, and no other alderman will be called to the bar until the November term of the general sessions.

Skull Fractured in a Fight. HILLSBORO, O., Oct. 25.—A simple-minded boy named Clark Trimmer came here a few days since, from Pike county, in search of work. The boys around town soon commenced to plague and tease him, as is customary, and the poor fellow was worried and vexed almost continually. While at work about the railroad yards he was provoked into a fight with Frank Chaney, a boy of about his own age, in which the Pike county kid received a blow on the head which fractured the skull. He was removed to the county infirmary for treatment, his condition being serious, and Chaney was placed under arrest.

A Murderer's Confession. OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 25.—David Goeglin, the German who nailed up a house containing a woman and two children and set fire to it, and then murdered the woman when she succeeded in breaking out, has confessed the crime. He claims that the woman attacked him first, and by her language aggravated him into dealing blows which caused her death, but denies having thrown her body into the flames.

CAPT. BLACK INTERVIEWED.

He Has Received a Number of Threatening Letters From Anarchists.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—In order to hear that some of the lawyers and witnesses for the defense in the Anarchist trial had received threatening letters, also in strong contrast with those sent jurors and prosecutors, a reporter went to see Capt. W. P. Black, at his office. The captain said that both he and his wife had recently received a number of threatening letters but that he had not attached a great deal of importance to them, believing that they were the product of idlers for the most part, but that they nevertheless gave his wife much uneasiness. He was doing his duty, he said, by his clients, simply as an attorney, and would continue to do so, in the belief that they had been improperly convicted, and that in the supreme court a new trial would be granted, which had been refused in the lower court.

A man named Simonson, who was a prominent witness for the defense, claims to have received a number of anonymous epistles. His wife has also received letters informing her that her husband's corpse would be delivered to her some evening in the near future. Simonson became so worried over these threats that he applied for a license and is now carrying a revolver.

EARTHQUAKE'S DAMAGES.

The Shock at Summerville More Distressing Than Was Supposed. CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 25.—The damage by the earthquake shock at Summerville is much greater than at first stated. About seventy-five chimneys will have to come down. A number of geysers have been discovered, where an oily water spurts up continuously. The water has an odor similar to kerosene oil, and is accompanied by fine sand of different colors. The people of the town are thoroughly worked up again, and great uneasiness is felt by all.

The Force of the shock was so great that persons found it exceedingly difficult to open their doors and get out of their houses to a safer locality, and some cases are reported where persons were thrown down by the shaking. There was a slight shock in Charleston and Summerville at 11:55 last night, but no damage was done.

The Haddock Murderers.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—It is reported that two men directly implicated in the Haddock murder at Sioux City, Iowa, and who have been searched for all over Iowa, Wisconsin and Nebraska, were arrested here by Sioux City officers. No absolute confirmation can, however, be obtained. Prosecuting Attorneys Wood and Leavitt, with their wives, are registered at a State-street lodging house, but the landlady, under instructions, refuses to admit that they are still in the city. An indication of the capital which Leavitt is making out of the affair, the city is billed with the announcement that "Leavitt, the principal witness of the Haddock murder," will appear nightly at a variety theater, and render amusing sketches.

Prohibition in Texas.

WACO, Tex., Oct. 25.—The Prohibition State convention met here. The party divided, one faction being in favor of a third ticket and of making a long canvass for the state ticket nominated in September. The other faction will stick to the Democratic party in the hope of obtaining local option and final prohibition legislation. In the test of strength it was found that the third party prohibition has a small majority. No action was taken either endorsing or condemning the Prohibition state ticket. The Democrats and the administration were strongly re-nounced by the Prohibition nominee for governor. The general sentiment is that the Prohibition Democrats will vote the Democratic ticket.

A Barge Foundered and Sunk.

SAULT ST. MARIE, Mich., Oct. 25.—The barge Eureka foundered and went to the bottom in forty-two feet of water, ten miles above White Fish Point, Mich., and five miles off shore, in Lake Superior on Wednesday, and it is supposed that her crew of eight were lost. No trace of the crew has been found, although a number of vessels have passed the spot where the Eureka is lying. The Eureka was laden with ore from Marquette, and was valued at $6,000. She was owned by D. C. Whitney, of Detroit, and was in tow of the steam barge Prentice when she broke loose in a storm and went down.

Opposing Frank Hurd.

CONDITION OF RUSSIA.

NIMILISM IN A MORE FLOURISHING STATE THAN EVER BEFORE.

High German Duties Gradually Reducing the Value of Land—No End to the Cable War—Justin McCarthy's Seat in Parliament—Growing Interesting at Sofia.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—Reliable reports describe the condition of Southern Russia as deplorable in the extreme. Discontent is universal, the Nihilistic propaganda is in a more active and flourishing state than ever before, the prisons, especially those at Nicolief, Odessa and Katerinoslar are filled to overflowing, and the proportion of officers and students comprising those who are confined in the prisons and those who are under police surveillance is a source of great alarm to the authorities.

This year's harvest in Southern Russia has been unusually abundant, but the high German duties consequent to the war tariffs, which have never been reduced, absorbs the profits which might otherwise be realized on the crops, and the value of the land is therefore diminishing year by year. Land owners are selling out at ruinous sacrifices, and Moscow merchants declare that commerce is at a complete standstill. The scarcity, and in many places the entire absence of banking institutions of any kind, combine to complicate matters, and the near future promises no improvement.

Cable War.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The cable war shows no signs of abatement. The Gould officials are pushing their numerous libel suits against certain individuals and newspapers, and a number of writs in these cases were issued today. A curious feature of the fight of the cable kings among themselves is the fact that the list of registered owners of the Electrician, one of the papers served with writs, includes Mr. John Pender and Sir James Anderson, the leading London holders of the stock of the Gould pool cables.

Justin McCarthy's Seat in Parliament.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—A dispatch from Londonderry says: Mr. C. E. Lewis, Conservative member of parliament for Londonderry city, who contested that seat with Mr. Justin McCarthy, Nationalist, and was elected by a small majority, and against whose seating the Nationalists protested on the alleged ground of fraud, has abandoned the seat. It was at once claimed for Mr. McCarthy, and after some argument, the seat was awarded the latter gentleman. The decision causes great excitement.

The Colliery Dispute.

EDINBURGH, Oct. 25.—The arbitrator in the colliery dispute has decided that the Fife and Clackmanan colliery companies broke contracts in restricting the output, and condemned them to pay the colliers five shillings a day each and the costs of the inquiry. The decision affects 6,000 colliers, and is of vital importance throughout Scotland, where restricting of the output has been general. This is the first decision rendered in regard to restriction.

Confessed to Being Spies.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—A despatch from Paris states that the two Germans recently arrested at Fere-Champeroux have given their names as Estenger and Wenzel, and admitted that they were engaged in taking plans of forts and the various routes in France for the German government, and that for each letter containing information regarding routes and forts sent to Germany, they received a sovereign.

Kaulbars' Request Denied.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—A despatch from Sofia says that Gen. Kaulbars has demanded that the meeting of the great sobranje be adjourned indefinitely, and that the provisional government declined to grant his request. Midnight Conference With the King.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—Sir William White met the king of Servia at Belgrade, about midnight, and had a conference with him lasting two hours, afterward conferring with the Servian foreign minister. MAJENDIE'S MISSION.

Studying the American Method of Keeping From Being Blown Up.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—Col. Tajandie, of London, her majesty's chief inspector of explosives, is in the city. He is accompanied by B. Redwood, secretary of the petroleum association, of London. In an interview with a reporter, Col. Majendie said: "I am in America looking into the question of petroleum, and observing the practices and laws here regulating the storage of petroleum. We made an investigation on this point in the continental cities three years ago and now commence our work here. It is contemplated to have legislation on the subject at the next session of parliament."

"We have large quantities of oils and other inflammable material stored near great cities and the question of caring for it is an important one. It behooves us to proceed carefully, so as not to interfere unjustly with so important a trade and so that consumers may not be put to a disadvantage. America is the greatest of oil producing countries, and we are now engaged in looking into your system of storage in large cities. We shall visit the oil producing regions or some typical examples of them during our tour."

"Will you look into the subject of dynamite?" "My principal duty is an advisory one to the secretary of state in regard to the petroleum, but it will be secondary to me to learn all I can about dynamite in this country. There is so much dynamite manufactured and other high explosives that this will be of interest to me professionally. We have in Scotland the largest dynamite manufactory in the world, but it does not concern us as much about its place of manufacture as where it goes to afterward. We have no importation of high explosives from America except when we did not want them. I hope to have an opportunity of investigating the storage of powder, and also to inquire into the explosions of magazines near by your city."

THE SALVATION ARMY.

A Decision That Will Silence Disputes, but Not Drums and Tambourines.

TORONTO, Oct. 25.—A decision was given in an interesting case here by Chief Justice Wilson, in the court of appeals, which will silence all disputes about the legality of the Salvation Army to beat drums, etc., in the streets, and relieved that body of persecution in the courts. George Martin, a Salvation Army soldier, was sent to jail for ten days by a judge in Lakefield, Ont., for disturbing the inhabitants by beating a drum or tambourine on the streets, on Sunday, contrary to a municipal by-law. The chief justice in quashing the conviction by the Lakefield judge, quoted Edmund Burke, showing that while ringing a fire bell at midnight disturbed the people, it was to save them from possible destruction by being burned to death.

It was not shown in the evidence against Martin that he was not beating the drum for the spiritual good of the inhabitants. He thought the law was too far strained in the Massachusetts reports where the statutes prohibit traveling on Sundays except for religious worship and of necessity, but under which it had been held that a person attending a clairvoyant exhibition, where there was no dancing, and for which no charge was made for admission, was attending a religious service. The conviction of Martin was quashed.

An Impious Joke on the Preachers.

AKRON, O., Oct. 25.—The Universalist general convention wound up with a grand hoax. Some waggish student at Buclet college had sent printed cards to about a hundred of the delegates, inviting them to take 5 o'clock dinner at the house of Dr. Cone, president of the college. At the appointed hour the divines turned up, swarming all over the house of the president, much to the dismay of the good doctor and his wife. Some took the joke good-naturedly, but others let out on the offending joker in a manner that had no regard for the Universalist creed. An investigation has been started among the students, by the president, to discover the perpetrator.

Revolution in Mexico.

EL PASO, Tex., Oct. 25.—A few days ago there was an attempted revolution in Zacatecas, scarcely any particulars of which reached the United States. The attempted rising was for the purpose of making Gen. Garcia de la Cadena president, but the Mexican Central enable the administration to concentrate troops at a moment's notice to every important point and thus a revolution must be widespread and deep-rooted to be successful. Yesterday thirty-five of the conspirators were placed in jail at Zacatecas to be tried by court martial for their crime. This means being stood up against an adobe wall and shot. At the time of the capture twenty-five horses and a lot of ammunition were obtained by the Federal troops. The chief conspirator, Gen. Cadena, succeeded in escaping.

Another Effort to Save the Anarchists.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—One of the counsel for the seven condemned Anarchists stated that another motion for a new trial would be called to the attention of Judge Gary, on the ground of newly discovered decisions, which it is claimed show that the instructions of the court were improper, which held that a man who incited an offense by speech or writing was to be held equally guilty with the actual perpetrator of the deed. It was claimed that as the term has not yet expired the court can grant the motion.
