

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY. ROSSER & MCCARTHY, Proprietors.

RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION. THE DAILY BULLETIN will be delivered to any part of the city at 6 cents a week, or one year for $3.

BRIDAY EVE., SEPT., 16, 1887.

The Rowan feuds seem to be spreading. The State officials are becoming involved.

The Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette can see no good in what the Democratic administration is doing for the country.

J. HALE SYPPER is attempting to try the Carlisle-Thobe contested election case in the newspapers. It is a poor lawyer, indeed, who argues his case outside of the court room.

It is reported from Morehead that the good citizens of that place are greatly encouraged at the present outlook, and better times are expected.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: "If there was ever a man who personally knew Luke P. Blackburn, of Kentucky, and did not like him, his name has not come to our attention."

The Republicans of New York have nominated Colonel Fred Grant for Secretary of State. They may learn by the time the campaign closes and the ballots are recounted that Freddie is not near as popular as his illustrious pa was.

The first pardon granted by Governor Buckner was to an ex-Federal soldier, notwithstanding the statement of the Louisville Commercial to the contrary.

The Standard Oil monopoly has been laid in the shade by the "Cattle Trust," recently organized by Steve Dorsey and crowd.

The last hasn't been heard of those rifles belonging to Colonel Z. T. Young that were captured at Morehead during the last term of court.

COLONEL Z. T. YOUNG, it is said, has entered suit against Governor Buckner, General Castleman and Governor Knott for forcibly detaining and holding property not theirs.

J. HALE SYPPER, attorney for Thobe in the latter's contest for Speaker Carlisle's place in Congress, is being laughed at at Washington for his process of Syphering out his client's election.

The wrangling in Ohio over the question of mixed schools is as bad and as loud as one would find in the South.

Our contemporary, the Republican, has lately been manifesting quite an interest in the political affairs of Louisville, and expresses its belief that the Republicans have a fair chance to win at the approaching election.

Politics and Prosperity.

The New York Tribune is getting sick of its own medicine. The general prosperity of trade, threatened only by excessive taxation, is so displeasing to the Tribune that it bursts out after this fashion:

"The old fashioned Democrat who condemned the Whig national Administration of his day because there were no eels in the eel-pots that year has some imitators in the men who attribute ever sign of national prosperity to the wisdom of President Cleveland's Administration."

For twenty years the Republican press and Republican conventions have "claimed" that it was the Republican party which was paying the public debt, providing pensions for the soldiers, attending to the crops, and nursing our infant industries, all without any assistance from Democrats.

Now a change comes. The Democrats are in charge of affairs, and at once the Tribune insists on altering its old phrases and exposing its former false pretenses.

Under the excellent provisions of the new Revenue law, $1,345,820.01 has been paid into the State Treasury by Sheriffs, on the taxes of 1887, since the 1st of September.

SOMERSET, Ky., is just now the scene of a warm fight over the liquor question. A local option law went into effect the other day.

The Paris, Georgetown and Frankfort Railroad Company has asked a subscription of $150,000 from Bath County, and the Court of Claims will convene at Owingsville on the 29th of this month to submit the proposition to the voters of that county.

THE Union Pacific Railroad's main track is 1,834 miles long, with branches 2,761 miles long. Including the land grant, the concern is worth $220,368,247.

Will any man undertake to show that it will be to the interest of a single individual, except those engaged in the sale or manufacture of rum, to longer continue this iniquity among us?

We affirm that the whisky traffic is a constant menace to all that is good in any community, and that it will be to the highest interest of all to forever do away with it.

Would it not be a desirable thing to have all the places in towns and cities now used by the whisky people changed into school houses, churches, &c.

The people who sell whisky, as well as those who drink it, are alike a drawback to any community, and there is no place on the face of the earth but would be better off were neither of them ever heard of.

"I Feel so Well." "I want to thank you for telling me of Dr. Pierce's 'Favorite Prescription,' writes a lady to her friend.
