Public Speaking To-night. Workingmen, do not forget the speaking to-night at the court house by Mr. Samuel Gompers. His object is to further the cause of trade unions; to impress upon the minds of workingmen the high importance of their mission; to show the necessity of trade unions under the present industrial system for the maintenance and advancement of the standard of life of the wage-earners and for the cause of humanity; to bring the unions of the different trades and callings in a closer connection with each other in the American Federation of Labor, so as to be able to more successfully assist each other in their struggle against the encroachments of capital.

A THOUSAND LIVES LOST.

SUCH IS THE EFFECT OF THE GREAT BLIZZARD IN DAKOTA.

Hundreds of Dead Bodies Already Recovered. White Many Places Are Yet to Be Heard From—Sad Scenes Revealed to a Traveler—The Death List Growing.

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—A special to the Tribune from Nebraska City, Neb., says: Judge J. A. Kinney, agent of the Yankton Sioux Indian agency in Dakota, arrived here yesterday after being nine days on the road. Five days were necessary for the party to travel thirty miles. The thermometer during the five days was at 40 degrees below zero most of the time. The judge says the loss of life in Dakota has been greatly underestimated, as the Dakota papers have tried to cover it up.

He describes the scene which took place on board the cars. The coal was running low. The passengers were crowded into one car trying to keep warm. Two babies perished. The men discarded all the outer garments they could spare and gave them to the ladies and children. Finding these not enough they brought mail sacks from the postal car and wrapped the children up in them. While at one station in Bonhomme county, the judge says, nineteen frozen bodies were brought into the depot in one day. In Bonhomme county the list of dead will reach fully 100.

The estimates as made at Yankton Thursday of the loss throughout the territory figure up over 1,000 lives lost. The counties where the loss of life was the largest are: Bonhomme, 100; Hutchinson, 14; Lincoln, 13; Beadle, 25; Spencik, 12; Hand, 10; Ward, 15. The northern and central parts of the territory have not been heard from fully. Roads from the agency to Yankton are lined with dead cattle, many farmers losing all they had. One man lost over 100. The loss of stock cannot be estimated. Judge Kinney was accompanied all through the scenes of suffering by his wife. Both were slightly frozen about the hands and feet.

A Brighter Account.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Jan. 23.—The Journal says: The Nebraska City, Neb., special quoting Indian Agent Kinney to the effect that the loss of life in Dakota by the blizzard has been greatly underestimated, and that the total loss will figure up to 1,000, is an evident absurdity. Future reports are rather likely to decrease than increase the list. Over a week has now passed since the blizzard broke, and the Journal has had complete returns from its corps of correspondents in every important point in the territory. It is simply impossible that news has been suppressed, for the Journal's reports have been verified entirely by those of the morning papers. How a man who confesses to have been snowed up for the past nine days, can estimate the loss of life with more accuracy than newspapers in constant telegraphic communication with the whole territory, is incomprehensible.

Wild Range of Temperature.

FORT KROGH, Mont., Jan. 23.—This place claims the honor of having the wildest range of temperature of any place on earth. During last week's storm the thermometer marked 65 degrees below, while last summer it ranged from 130 to 130 degrees above; a total range for a year of 190 degrees.

Down to the Bottom.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Jan. 23.—This is the coldest day ever known here. Last night the thermometers showed 48 below, and at 7 a. m. a standard government thermometer showed 40 below, the lowest that can be registered in it. There was a dense fog this morning which is now lifting.

Frozen to Death.

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Jan. 13.—William P. Lewis, a wealthy farmer, was found dead in his buggy on the public road between here and Cadiz. He was old, and had frozen to death while trying to reach home after night.

Cold in New Hampshire.

HANOVER, N. H., Jan. 23.—The mercury dropped last night to the lowest point this season—28 below zero.

At Lyme the thermometer registered 30 below and at Norwich 30 below.

Fifty Degrees Below.

MARKEGAN, Wis., Jan. 23.—It is 48 degrees below zero here this morning, and some thermometers indicated 50 and then 60.

DEATH OF "GRANDMA" GARFIELD.

The Mother of the Late President Garfield Joins the Great Majority.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 23.—"Grandma" Garfield, the mother of the late President James A. Garfield, died at 5 o'clock this morning, at the home of Mrs. Garfield in Mentor. She has gradually been failing during the past two months, the result of old age.

Ninety-six years ago the 25th of last September, Eliza Ballou was born at the foot of Mount Monadnock, New Hampshire, and married Abram Garfield, of Watertown, Mass., in 1827, coming to Orange, Cuyahoga county, Ohio, in 1834, when her eldest child, Thomas Garfield, now of Grand Rapids, Mich., was six years of age. She was a woman of strong sense and spirit, and had a singular capacity for managing and educating children. Abram Garfield died when Tom, the eldest boy, was ten years old, leaving his widow with four children and a cabin in the woods. Her care and energy produced one of America's greatest public men, and carried the family in respectable poverty to the point where it could make its own way. James A. Garfield was her pride and joy, and she has aged rapidly from the day that Gulteau's bullet struck him down. Not until December 1 last, however, was she compelled to take to her bed. For several weeks past she has hourly made the plaintive remark that she wanted to see "Jimmy," as she always called her distinguished son.

Smallpox at Brooklyn.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Jan. 24.—This city is threatened with a smallpox epidemic. During the last three days of last week twenty-two victims were brought to the Flatbush hospital. On Saturday ten cases were reported. There are now forty cases under treatment at the Flatbush hospital. The pest began in the Italian colony, which covers several blocks in the Second ward.

Another Blizzard in Texas.

LAMPASAS, Tex., Jan. 24.—Another blizzard struck this section Saturday night and raged yesterday, but not so severely as the storm of last Monday. Reports of the disastrous effects of that unprecedented cold spell continue to arrive.

THE STATE'S LAW-MAKERS.

Pointed Paragraphs About the Bills Passed or Now Pending at Frankfort.

Representative Reed has been chosen Speaker pro tem of the House during Mr. Johnson's illness.

The bill repealing so much of chapter 288 of acts of 1885 and 1886, regulating the jurisdiction of Quarterly Courts of Mason, Shelby and Spencer counties, as applies to Mason County, has been passed by the Senate, and awaits the Governor's signature.

The Senate has passed a bill that prohibits the advertising within the State of outside lottery companies. There is already a law against advertising of home lottery companies.

A bill is pending that fixes the number of guards for conveying prisoners to the penitentiary at not more than one for every two of the other.

The bill allowing juries to fix the punishment for carrying concealed deadly weapons was rejected.

A bill for the benefit of D. B. Logan, of Rowan County, was passed. He is allowed to collect a fee from the State for going to Pennsylvania to apprehend a prisoner, who died on the day of Logan's arrival there.

The Rowan County Investigation Committee met Thursday afternoon and resolved to go to Morehead February 2nd to investigate, and meanwhile they will send a petition to the Rowanites to please be investigated peaceably, as this is not intended as a reflection upon their character, but only to satisfy the discordant element in other parts of the State that there is nothing really the matter with Rowan County.

TWO COUNTS NOLLIED.

But the Relief to Hopkins is Comparatively Small.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 24.—The attorneys defending Hopkins, ex-assistant cashier of the Fidelity bank, had the wind taken out of their sails by Judge Sago Saturday. He ruled that it was too late to attack the counts in the indictment. That ought to have been done when the objections were heard preliminary to the trial.

The jury overruled all the demurrors to the evidence and nollod counts 19 and 30. The nineteenth count relates to the $30,000 paid to J. W. Hoyt March 25, which it is charged Hopkins aided Harper in misapplying. The thirtieth count relates to the $100,000 paid J. W. Hoyt on May 9 and charges Hopkins with aiding Harper in its misapplication. This leaves about forty counts still pending.

Ten Men Roasted.

DULUTH, Minn., Jan. 23.—Last midnight the frame boarding house and saloon of Nelson Barnaby, at Tower, caught fire. The house was filled with boarders, all of whom were asleep in bed. Many of the boarders succeeded in saving their lives by jumping from the second and third story windows, but about ten unfortunates, hemmed in by the flames on all sides, perished. The following is a list of the victims as far as known: Robert Whitfield, William Burns, Mike Tierney, Dan O'Connell and a stranger who arrived last night from Duluth.

Dull at Ohio's Capital.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 24.—But few were present this morning and little was done. Mr. Spencer, of Wood county, offered two resolutions in the house requesting congress to equalize bounties of soldiers in the late war and grant pensions to soldiers' widows and minor children, according to the Logan and Boothman bills now before congress. Mr. Williams introduced a bill reducing county examinations for school teachers.

Fishery Negotiations a Failure.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—An Ottawa special says: Dispatches to the leading papers of the Dominion from Washington and Canadiana returning from Washington are unanimous in stating that the fisheries' negotiations are now concluded by all, except by Joseph Chamberlain, Sir Charles Tupper and their assistants, to be a complete failure. The early intimations published as to the results of the conferences are fully confirmed. It is believed that in order to cover up the failure some sort of a recommendation will be made having the effect of indefinitely postponing the question raised.

Slipped on the Ice.

RIPLEY, O., Jan. 23.—Mrs. Mary Tweed, an aged lady living on a farm about four miles east of this place, in attempting to leave the house this morning slipped on the icy step and broke her leg just below the hip joint.

A Coroner's Verdict.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., Jan. 23.—The coroner's jury in the case of Robert Hamilton, rendered a verdict to the effect that he came to his death by blows on the head, inflicted by Peter Dowling.

A Lovely Complexion.

"What a lovely complexion," we often hear persons say. "I wonder what she does for it?" In every case the purity and real loveliness of the complexion depends upon the blood. Those who have sallow, blotchy faces may make their skin smooth and healthy by taking enough of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" to drive out the humors lurking in the system.

ABERDEEN.

The holiday fever having subsided, it seems as if the schools are making better progress than ever, the pupils applying themselves in earnest to accomplish much during the remainder of the term. Owing to slippery navigation the scholars were somewhat tardy in attendance last week, taking two steps towards the school house and three the other way thereby mixing matters, and some of the older pupils had, of course, to go skating with their girls but nothing injurious has resulted. Appended is a list of the average daily department of the High School room:

Anna Cluxton, 10; Willie Ellis, 35; Maggie Hartman, 100; Jennie Russell, 85; Mary Hall, 60; Sallie Midghal, 100; Mattie Morgan, 90; Mary Reidle, 90; Blanche Reidle, 90; Minna Reidle, 100; Lizzie Rothenbush, 90; Nannie Simons, 90; Bettie Sherman, 90; Anna Wheeler, 100; Iva Neaves, 90; Maud Neaves, 85; Lottie Wood, 95; Edith Hill, 95; Lottie Midghal, 95; Ira Botts, 95; Jesse Boswell, 90; Willie Enis, 100; Willie Fulton, 90; Arthur Hudson, 85; Leslie Hill, 85; Lees Simons, 80; Edwin Lord, 85; Louis Macchikannus, 90; George Turnipses, 100; Charles Turnipses, 90; Martin Wilson, 90; Dennis Shelton, 100.

The Poor Little Ones.

We often see children with red eruptions on face and hands, rough, scaly skin, and often sores of the head. These things indicate a depraved condition of the blood. In the growing period, children have need of pure blood by which to build up strong and healthy bodies. If Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" is given, the blood is purged of its bad elements, and the child's development will be healthy, and as it should be. Scrofulous affections, rickets, fever-sores, hip-joint disease or other grave maladies and suffering are sure to result from neglect and lack of proper attention to such cases.
