

MR. CHAMBERLAIN

To Wed the Only Daughter of Secretary Endicott.

THE PROSPECTIVE GROOM NOW EN ROUTE FOR AMERICA.

The Proposal Said to Have Been Made Under the Protection of the British Flag—The Wedding to Be a Very Quiet One—Mr. Chamberlain's Neighbors Astonished at His Actions.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The much disputed international question as to whether the Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, member of parliament of England, and Miss Endicott are engaged or not, is now happily and pleasantly settled. Mrs. Endicott sent letters and notes Tuesday announcing to her friends in this city and Boston the engagement of her daughter, and she also called upon Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Whitney, Mrs. Don Dickinson and Mrs. Vilas, to acquaint them of that fact.

Mr. William C. Endicott, Jr., the brother of the bride-elect, returned recently from spending the summer in England, and Mr. Chamberlain is now on his way across the Atlantic to claim his promised bride. The courtship was conducted in this city last winter while Mr. Chamberlain as the first royal commissioner of her majesty's government in the fisheries commission, was the lion of Washington society.

Mr. Chamberlain met Miss Endicott at a small dance given at the British legation, and Miss West says that he proposed to Miss Endicott under the protection of the British flag. Miss Mary Endicott is the only daughter of Secretary Endicott, and is descended by both sides of the house from the finest old families in Massachusetts. She is a beauty of the English type, has a clear red and white complexion, large full eyes, an elegant figure and a reserved manner bordering upon hauteur.

Mr. Chamberlain is a wealthy manufacturer, in his fifty-second year. He has an income of $20,000 a year, and a prospect of being a peer of the realm. His country house at Birmingham is a palace, and his town house is in Princess garden, London.

The day for the marriage will not be named till the arrival of Mr. Chamberlain in this city. It is to be a house wedding, and a very quiet event. The bride will wear a traveling gown, and will be married in the presence of a few relatives from Boston, the families of the cabinet ministers and the president and Mrs. Cleveland.

A special to the New York World from Birmingham, England, says: Here in Mr. Chamberlain's native town there is the most widespread astonishment expressed on all sides at the way in which he has taken the departure for the United States. It was generally known that he did not propose to remain here during the Liberal invasion of the city. For three days the people have been trying in vain to find out where he had gone. Finally his son Austin called at the office of the Birmingham Post, which is Mr. Chamberlain's organ here, and said that his father had gone to America to marry Miss Endicott.

The wily politician led the Cunard company to believe that he was going on some secret business in connection with the Sackville affair, and they reserved him a cabin on board the Aurania, in a very mysterious manner, without adding his name to the passenger list. During the run down to Queenstown he never left his cabin, and did not appear in the dining saloon. A steward was assigned to his exclusive service, and brought all his meals to his private cabin.

The world correspondent, who boarded the Aurania at Queenstown, and who asked the officers if Mr. Chamberlain was on board was answered in the negative. The marriage will take place within ten days after Mr. Chamberlain's arrival in New York. He proposes to travel in the states for a short time and will return home again two days before Christmas. Arrangements are being made to give him a public reception on his arrival here.

A Georgia Railroad Wreck. ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 9.—An excursion train en route to the Macon fair, on the Americus, Preston & Lumpkin railroad, was wrecked at road's crossing on Wednesday morning. Two passenger coaches left the track and were overturned. Four persons were killed and many others injured. The names of those killed are: Charles Scoville, George Tyson, Jr.; Henry Martin, colored, and John Van Over, colored. George Davis, "Pig" Paris, colored, and W. C. Sipleton, conductor, will probably die from their injuries.

Criminal Saved by Officers. VERMILION, Ky., Nov. 9.—A dastardly outrage was perpetrated here Wednesday. James Curby, a burly colored ruffian, committed a rape upon the six-year-old daughter of Silas Mitchell, colored. After perpetrating the outrage Curby fled the town, but was followed by an infuriated mob of colored citizens, who soon captured him and would have lynched him, but for the interference of the town authorities, who arrested and lodged him in jail. The colored people made threats of mobbing the jail. The child is not seriously injured.

Shooting Affray at Mt. Sterling. MOUNT STERLING, Ky., Nov. 9.—Arthur Owens, a white man, and a comrade became drunk and disorderly on the streets Tuesday night, and when the officers attempted their arrest, they resisted, and in the light Owens was shot by an unknown party. He will probably recover.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Topics of the Times Given in a terse and spicy manner.

On the arrival at Queenstown of the Catalonia, from Boston, a passenger named Moriarty was arrested. A revolver and a quantity of ammunition were found in his trunk. He was taken before a magistrate and remanded for further examination.

The election for members of the landtag resulted in favor of the government, the extreme right and left losing seats which were captured by Moderates. On church and school questions a majority against the government consisting of Conservatives, Centrists and Poles is still possible. The lower house of the landtag will not meet before January. The reichstag will meet in a short time.

In the Prussian election the final ballots make the standing of the parties as follows: One hundred and thirty-three Conservatives, sixty-four Free Conservatives, ninety-eight Centrists, eighty-seven Nationalists, twenty-nine members of the Freisinnige party, thirteen Poles, two Danes, two Guelphs and one independent. Stoecker, Richter, Rickert, Friedberg, Voss, Gneist and Viechow are elected.

Lucky Bookmakers.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 9.—William Filey, the Chicago bookmaker, is an enormous winner on Harrison, he having bet every one here to a standstill Tuesday night, first at even and then at odds of 100 to 90. Among the bookmakers alone now doing business at the West Side park it is estimated that $25,000 has changed hands.

Fired Through a Window.

MUNCIE, Ind., Nov. 9.—Tuesday evening some person, supposed to be a woman, fired through the window at Mrs. James Wright, at her residence in this city. The ball grazed her head, inflicting only a slight wound, but the lady was prostrated with fear. No cause can be assigned for the shooting.

Charged With Murder.

NEW LEXINGTON, O., Nov. 9.—Lee Burrell and his mistress, Mel Green, both colored, were arrested at Chauncey, Tuesday night, charged with the murder of Pete Donnelly, at Corning. Sheriff Brunner foiled a lynching party by bringing his prisoner here. Both deny their guilt.

Stabbed by a Woman.

NICHOLASVILLE, Ky., Nov. 9.—Alice Jones, wife of Dan Jones, stabbed Andy Campbell twice in the back and one ugly gash on the neck. He ran into a saloon and fell, but is not fatally out. Both were drunk.

Quarrel Settled by a Shotgun.

PORTSMOUTH, O., Nov. 9.—August Lotel, residing near Rushtown, while engaged in a family quarrel, discharged the contents of a shotgun into his wife's neck and shoulders. Her wounds are reported mortal.
