

A Golden Wedding

Is Celebrated By Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone.

CONGRATULATIONS RECEIVED

From Queen Victoria and Nearly All the Royalty of Europe — Many Valuable Presents sent to the Ex-Premier of England — Great Drouth in Hungary. Strikers Sentenced to Imprisonment. Other Selections From the Latest Foreign News.

LONDON, July 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone celebrated yesterday the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. The queen telegraphed her congratulations from Osborne to the ex-premier and his aged wife. The Prince and Princess of Wales and other members of the royal house sent letters of congratulations and the Prince of Wales sent a gold inkstand. A portrait of Mr. Gladstone with his grandson, painted by Millais, was presented by a number of the wives of Liberal members of parliament. Numerous other presents were also received.

The portrait by Millais, of Mr. Gladstone and his grandson, presented to the great Liberal leader this morning, is quite a surprise to everybody, as Millais only began the work on the first of the month. Notwithstanding the haste with which it had to be executed, good critics pronounce the work the best that famous artist has ever done.

The arrangements of the Gladstone Liberal club for the celebration of the ex-premier's golden wedding were on a magnificent scale. For their exercises they built a beautiful terrace overhanging the river front, 160 feet long and twenty-eight wide, roofed over with canvas and richly draped in blue and gold. The pillars and the walls were thickly studded with electric lights, and the flowers and plants were profusely scattered about so that the whole terrace presented the appearance of a tropical garden.

The ex-premier arose early in the morning and attended morning service at church with his family. Afterwards all breakfasted together at his residence in James street. During the day a host of callers came to pay their respects to the couple. Among those who called were Mr. John Morley, Sir William Harcourt, the Earl of Aberdeen, and many other Liberal peers.

In Hawarden, Gladstone's home, the church bells were kept ringing all day. The ex-premier and his family go to Hawarden next week, when the festivities here are over, and the celebration will be resumed among his neighbors there.

Rioting Strikers Sentenced.

BERLIN, July 26.—Thirty-two of the strikers arrested at Breslau have been convicted and sentenced to terms of imprisonment ranging from one year to five years. The ringleader, Houkel, was sentenced to seven years' imprisonment, and to be deprived of his civil rights for the same period in addition.

Labor Troubles in Austria and Germany. LONDON, July 26.—Strikes are extending rapidly in Austria and Germany, and every day brings news of fresh troubles in different lines of industry. All the carpenters in Prague have just given notice of an intention to strike, unless their demand for an increase in wages is conceded.

Drouth in Hungary.

VIENNA, July 26.—The harvest has been very bad in Hungary and South Russia, owing to continual drouth. In Vienna this drouth has been felt severely through the decline of the water supply, which has diminished to the extent of 400,000 hogsheads a day.

He Will Apologize and Pay Damage.

LONDON, July 26.—The Standard, which asserted that Father Convey, of Dunmurry, Ireland, publicly prayed that God would strengthen the hands of the man who killed Inspector Martin at Gweedore, has decided to apologize and to pay £100 damages.

Wholesale Expulsions.

BERNE, July 26.—The Geneva government, by order of the bundesrath, has expelled all the Russian Nihilists, French Anarchists and German Socialists now resident there, who are not provided with regular papers from their own countries.

The Valkyrie Will Not Take Part.

LONDON, July 26.—Earl Dunmurry has received a cable dispatch from Gen. Payne announcing that no yacht has been selected in America to defend the cup and so he will not send the Valkyrie over.

ONCE MORE IN COURT.

The Cronin Suspects Put Through a Little Exercise.

CHICAGO, July 26.—Yesterday afternoon the five defendants in the Cronin cases—Beggs, O. Sullivan, Coughlin, Woodruff and Kunze—were taken before Judge Horton, by order of States Attorney Longenecker, and the question, "Are you ready for trial?" put to each of them, all but Coughlin replied, "I am," and after a little discussion of the case the prisoners were taken out of the court by the sheriff, under orders from Judge Horton, to bring them before him again in the near future.

Judge Longenecker's object in having the prisoners arraigned was to prevent them from claiming the protection of the statute which holds that in criminal cases the state must be ready for trial at the second term after an indictment is returned.

The Burke Case.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 26.—The Journal's Winnipeg, Man., special says: Arguments were heard on the writ of habeas corpus in the Burke case. Howell, the leading counsel for the prosecution, occupied the entire time up to adjournment.

A HEAVY ASSIGNMENT.

Lewis Brothers & Company's Great Dry Goods House in Trouble.

NEW YORK, July 26.—Shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon the assignment of Lewis Brothers & Company, the great dry goods house of Worth and Thomas streets, was filed in the county clerk's office. The assignee is Cornelius N. Bliss and there are no preferences to any person. The assignment was executed in Philadelphia.

It is currently reported in the trade that the failure of Lewis Brothers & Company was in some degree due to the Johnstown disaster. The estate of the late Henry Lewis was largely interested in the Cambria iron works, as well as in the Lewis firm. The Johnstown Manufacturing company, Woodvale woolen mill also assigned its product to Lewis Brothers, and this mill was destroyed by the flood, involving a loss of $300,000. It was controlled by the Cambria Iron company. C. M. Bliss, receiver of Lewis Brothers & Company, is inclined to think that the assets will make a very satisfactory showing, but no definite statement can be made inside of ten days.

Heavy Loss in Providence.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 26.—Mills and banks here will be involved by the failure of Lewis Brothers & Company, $600,000. Local banks have about $150,000 of their paper divided among six or eight of them and the rest is among half a dozen mills, including those at station Manville and Wauregan. The belief prevails here that the firm can pay its indebtedness in full if they are given time. None of the mills and banks will be seriously embarrassed.

Not Felt in Boston.

BOSTON, July 26.—Commission houses here say that the failure of Lewis Brothers & Company will not affect the trade. Mr. Fabyon, of Fabyon, Bliss & Company, says his firm loses nothing. Mr. Bliss, as director of the Fourth National bank, New York, which holds some Lewis paper, may lose a little through that connection, but not a dollar as a member of Fabyon, Bliss & Company. Mr. Fabyon and other leading men in the trade express confidence that Lewis Brothers & Company will be able to settle in full.

No Loss at Fall River.

FALL RIVER, Mass., July 26.—The failure of Lewis Brothers & Company had no effect on the print cloth market. The firm had no Fall River business of consequence. It was reported that one mill was involved to a slight amount, but the report cannot be verified. Only one piece of the firm's paper is held here. The Metacomb bank, which holds it, is fully secured by the acceptance of a substantial Rhode Island concern.

An Encouraging Report.

PHILADELPHIA, July 26.—Mr. Bliss, assignee of Lewis Brothers & Company, was here yesterday, and after briefly examining the affairs of the firm, he is reported as having said that with careful management he saw no reason why the firm should not pay one hundred cents on the dollar in course of time.

Criminal Carelessness.

GLENDALE, O., July 26.—An infant child of J. C. Blackman found a piece of sausage on the street and was preparing to eat it, when its mother saw the discovery and threw the sausage away. A pet dog eat the sausage and died in a short time. The citizens of Glendale are very indignant over the manner in which poisoned meat is being distributed over the village, and $50 is offered for the conviction of the offender.

A Life Sentence.

CINCINNATI, July 26.—Thomas Frey, murderer of James A. Cooper, of Milford, sentenced to the penitentiary for life, was brought to the county jail here from Batavia, and yesterday sent to Columbus. Finding the chances of his conviction of murder in the first degree almost certain, he concluded to save his neck by the plea he entered.

Governor Lowry Still at It.

NEW ORLEANS, July 27.—Governor Lowry Wednesday secured the arrest and extradition to Mississippi of Division Superintendent E. S. Tyler, of the Queen and Crescent railroad, who is charged with having abetted the managers of the recent prize fight at Richmond.

A Tower No Longer.

PHILADELPHIA, July 26.—Charlemagne Tower, the noted capitalist mine owner, railroad director and lawyer, died yesterday at his summer residence in Waterville, N. Y., of paralysis, at the age of 81 years.

King Kalakua's Money.

CHICAGO, July 26.—J. S. Waterhouse, Jr., has arrived here from Honolulu, where he is a wealthy merchant and a member of the privy council. He says the reports of Kalakua's poverty are greatly exaggerated. The king's income is about $30,000 per annum beside the crown lands. He has paid over 40 per cent of the debt incurred at the time of the trouble and does not owe over $130,000. He intends to start for the Paris exposition in a few weeks and will have plenty of money to go with.

They Will Investigate.

BOSTON, July 26.—A meeting of the creditors of George C. Spear, dealer in leather, was held yesterday. The assets were shown to be $24,182, and total liabilities $68,390. A committee of investigation was appointed.

All Serene Now.

CONCORD, N. H., July 26.—The lasters' strike at the manufactory of C. B. Lancaster & Company has been amicably adjusted and all hands have returned to work.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 26.—The first train on the Monterey and Gulf railroad arrived at Montemorelos yesterday.

Ex-Speaker Carlisle was given a reception yesterday at the American legation.

President Diaz will give a reception on Saturday to the new American minister.

English capitalists are buying up the mines in Hidalgo. Coal has been discovered in Guerrero.

This powder never varies. A Marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 108 Wall St., New York.
