

THIRTEEN OF THEM.

Amalgamated Association Men Being Tried for Riot.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 6.—Yesterday Joseph T. Brady and twelve other members of the Amalgamated association were placed on trial for riot at the Duquesne plant of the Carnegie Steel company.

Judge Single presided. The prosecution is represented by Captain Breck, John S. Robb and District Attorney Burleigh; the defense is in the hands of Attorneys Reardon, Montooth, Brennan, Cox and McQuaide.

The story of the prosecution is that at a meeting of the local lodge of the Amalgamated association, on Aug. 13, 1892, it was decided to form into four companies and guard the mill so that no non-union men could get into it to work, and men were thus prevented from going to work.

The next day after these companies had gone into service as guard about the works James A. Morrison, a non-union man, was set upon and badly beaten. The trouble thus created led to the arrest of the defendants.

Nearly all of the defendants, who were out on a sympathetic strike with the Homestead men, are young men, and most of them were fully identified as having been present at the meeting. The trial is in progress.

POWDER EXPLOSION.

Two Children Fatally and Several Others Seriously Burned.

PROVIDENCE, Jan. 6.—As the result of an explosion of gunpowder in this city yesterday afternoon, Anton and Henry, children of Charles and Victoria Stone, will probably die. The children were at play in the attic of their home. The younger one had dragged out from the corner of the room a tin containing fifteen pounds of gunpowder which was uncorked, and one of the boys dropped in a lighted match. In an instant there was a terrific explosion, the windows of the house were blown out, and the ceiling, walls and door of the room were wrecked.

Mr. Stone rushed up stairs, only to find the boys enveloped in flames. Their clothing was ignited by the explosion. She carried one of the children to the room below. Her other son carried the other boy from the room. Both mother and son were severely burned about the hands and arms by contact with the children. Medical attendance was summoned, but nothing could be done to save the lives of the children, both of whom were burned almost to unrecognition.

IRON HALLERS IN COURT.

Each Held in Five Thousand Dollars Bail for Further Hearing.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 6.—Freeman D. Somerby, late supreme president of the Order of Iron Hall; Dr. Charles S. Baker, late supreme medical examiner; Joseph Gladding, late supreme organizer, and James H. Eckersley, late chairman of the supreme finance committee, were arraigned yesterday before Magistrate Pole on the charge of using $200,000 of the order's funds to sustain the Mutual Banking and Trust company of this city.

Counsel for the defendants made a motion to waive a hearing, and the magistrate bound them over in $5,000 bail for court. District Attorney Graham said he would resist the attempt of the Indianapolis authorities to take the defendants there for trial, and said he believed the governor would refuse requisition from the Indiana courts.

HERE'S A SENSATION.

Family Secret Given Away by the Brooklyn Standard Union.

BROOKLYN, Jan. 6.—The Standard Union last night said: "In the intimate circles of President-elect Cleveland's friends there is much rejoicing over the fact that when the White House opens to receive the choice of the Democratic party, the dark spell that has hovered over it will be in a fair way to be lifted. One being passes out of the world; another enters existence, just as morning succeeds the night. Should the newcomer prove to be a boy, the cup of earthly happiness will be full for Grover Cleveland."

Fight Among Cowboys.

DENISON, Tex., Jan. 6.—James and Will Nevins and Jack Langdon, all cowboys, had a fight with Winchester and six-shooters at "Three Heart" ranch, in the Choctaw nation, yesterday. Will Nevins and Langdon were killed and James Nevins fatally wounded. The Nevins boy and Langdon worked on different ranches. The former was charged with stealing a Maverick, and a fight on horseback began. The first shot killed Will Nevins, and a sharp duel between James Nevins and Langdon followed. The latter was killed at the fifth shot and Nevins was riddled.

Carlisle Will Go Into the Cabinet.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 6.—In an interview in The Chronicle Colonel Henry Waterson, of Louisville, says: "You can state it as my belief that Mr. Carlisle will accept the proffered portfolio of the treasury. I suppose I am in as close and intimate touch with Mr. Carlisle as anybody on earth, not even excepting the members of his own family, and though I have not seen him for three weeks, I am confident that he is bound to yield to the tremendous pressure upon him to administer the country's fiscal and economic policy during the Cleveland regime."

Four More Deaths Will Occur.

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—Four of the twenty firemen burned by the natural gas explosion at the Donohue & Henneberry building, on Dearborn street, Wednesday, will probably die from their injuries. They are: J. C. Linn, lieutenant of fire insurance patrol, residence 304 Twenty-second street, Charles Syferlick, captain hook and ladder truck, residence 447 West Polk street; Thomas Nevans, pipeman, and Michael Nolan, fire insurance patrol.

Twenty-One-Round Fight.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 6.—Andy Bowen defeated Joe Fielden before the new Crescent City Athletic club last night in a prize fight.

Fuel on Large Ocean Steamers.

Ocean steamers consume much more fuel than the average person is aware of. Take, for an instance, the vessels of the Orient line, which make regular trips between Australia and Great Britain. The fastest steamer of that line is the Austral, which makes the voyage from London to Sydney in thirty-five days. During the "trip out" she never uses less than 8,650 tons of coal, and on the return voyage often as much as 4,000 tons. She has three coaling stations, and bunkers that will hold 2,750 tons without overcrowding. English-American "liners" like the Oregon consume 330 tons of coal per day for every day between Liverpool and New York.

The Sterling Castle went to China for a load of tea. She brought back a cargo of 2,200 tons of that staple Chinese commodity, but consumed 5,000 tons of coal in making the round trip from Liverpool: Immense stocks of coal are constantly kept on hand at St. Vincent, Madeira, Port Said, Singapore and other oriental coaling stations, there often being as much as 300,000 tons in store at the last named place.—London Letter.

Finding for the Lawyer.

Sometimes the jury returns a verdict for the lawyer, of which the following is a good instance: Mr. John Jones, a barrister of great influence and ability, was a leading counsel practicing in the Welsh circuit. Upon one occasion, after a felicitous speech on behalf of his client in a criminal case, the jury, as soon as the judge had summed up, without waiting for the officer to take their verdict, called out, "My lord, we are all for John Jones, with costs!"—London Tit-Bits.

swallowed a Man's Ear.

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 6.—Edward Skinner, a negro laborer, was on trial for mayhem in the criminal court yesterday afternoon. In a fight with a man named John Connor, several weeks ago, Skinner bit his antagonist's ear off. On cross-examination Skinner testified that after biting off Connor's ear he swallowed it. Skinner will receive the full penalty.

Skating Record Broken.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—John Aveling, the well known amateur champion skater, performed an unprecedented feat in the skating line yesterday at Lingay Fen. He skated one mile with three sharp turns in 3:23 4-5, beating the world's record and earning the first gold medal awarded by the National Skating association.

deceased was Poisoned.

DUQUESNE, Pa., Jan. 6.—J. Sprinkle one of the non-union workmen employed at Homestead last summer, died here yesterday. He was taken sick in the mills, and all efforts of the physicians failed to cure him. After the exposure of the poison plot he firmly believed that he was one of the victims. The doctors, however, told him he was suffering from typhoid fever.

Vast Exodus of Israelites.

SEBASTOPOL, Jan. 6.—M. Frieberg, the agent of Baron Hirsch, has arrived at Simferopol, thirty-seven miles northeast of this city, where he went to make arrangements for the emigration of 6,000 Hebrews from the Crimea in the spring. The government will facilitate the movement.

Senator Kenna's Condition.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Senator Kenna is reported by Dr. Sowers as not resting so easily as he was twenty-four hours ago.
