

MRS. ELIZA PIERCE TABB.

Another One of Dover's Highly Respected Citizens Called to Her Reward.

Dover News: "Mrs. Eliza Pierce Tabb, wife of the venerable Langhorne Tabb, and mother of Rev. W. W. Hall, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Hanna, Thursday evening, July 17th, at 9:25. Her death, though expected, was pathetic and sad. Her husband, aged nearly ninety-four years, was present and near her bedside when his life-long companion breathed her last. His grief was most pitiful and at times his mind grew clouded over very stress of grief. When informed that his wife was dying he said, 'I am done for,' and exclaimed that he would soon join her in the life beyond. Afterwards he talked calmly of her death and gave directions for the interment of her remains.

"Mrs. Tabb was born in Portsmouth, New Hampshire, November 20, 1815. She was the daughter of Dr. Joshua Hubbard and Eliza Hilton Hubbard, and was educated in Lowell, Mass., where in 1835 she married William Hall. Two children were the issue of this marriage, one girl, Catherine Cutter Hall, who died at an early age, and Rev. W. W. Hall. The latter was born near Dover three months after the death of his father, Mrs. Tabb having come to Kentucky with her father.

"Langhorne Tabb and Eliza P. Hall were united in marriage September 3, 1839. To them seven children were born, three sons and four daughters. Two sons died in infancy, and two daughters, Mrs. Benjamin Phister and Caroline Tabb died a few years ago. The living children are: Mrs. Thomas P. Anderson, Cincinnati, Mrs. John W. Hanna, of Dover, and Langhorne M. Tabb, now of Lexington.

"Deceased was in her seventy-ninth year, and was a remarkably bright and intelligent woman. She had written for several magazines and had produced some creditable poetry. She was a woman of the most amiable disposition and her married life with Mr. Tabb was as near perfect connubial happiness as mortals ever have in this life. She was a life-long member of the Christian Church, and in earlier life she took an active interest in church and Sunday school work. She worshiped her Creator and she loved her home. Blessed be the memory of such women."

The funeral services took place yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, and were conducted by Rev. Mr. Utterbach.

Special Notice to the Public.

Having manufactured a much more extensive line of carriage work the past year than ever before, (very much in excess of the demand), we, therefore, have determined to offer for sale all hand-made work now completed in our factory and show rooms at a remarkably low cash price, on twelve month's time, preferring to do this to carrying the work, for we feel assured that at the expiration of above mentioned time both business and matters financially will have assumed its normal condition, which will not only produce a willingness to pay but an anxiety to do so, for we can already see a faint glimmering of a financial sunlight which will soon burst forth into a full blaze of prosperity.

A Slander on Labor.

The Richmond, Va., States comes to the defense of the American laborers whom Debs has attempted to place in a false position: "This is not the cause nor the fight of American labor. The true American laborer is a peaceable, law-abiding citizen, and is as far superior to the scum of Europe as Hyperion to a Satyr. He is not an anarchist nor a rioter, and it is a sad pity that he should have been dragged into the mire of rowdism by the foreign element."

The Modern Mother.

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant laxative, Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy, than by any other, and that it is more acceptable to them. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

The Boom Collapsed.

The assessed valuation of the property of Middlesborough this year will be in round numbers $1,500,000. The assessment of 1890 and 1891 was $5,000,000. In 1892 it fell to $3,000,000, and this year, as stated, to one-half of last year. This gives some idea of the inflated value that existed there at the start.

ON THE DIAMOND.

Yesterday's Game (?) a Disappointment—The Lawyers and Bankers This Afternoon.

People who went out to the base ball park at the fair grounds Thursday afternoon were disappointed. They expected a game between the Regulars and Portsmouth, but there were only two Portsmouth fellows in the team, the rest of the players belonging in this city and Aberdeen. And the Regulars were short several players, too. They had John Mangan at first, but he took care of it very well, considerin'. Burke, the "famous Shamrock twirler," wasn't in the game. It was reported that he was sick. Only six innings were played, resulting as follows:

Innings.....1 2 3 4 5 6
Regulars.....3 4 2 0 5 1-15
Killers.....0 0 1 2 1 0-4
Base hits, Regulars 10, Killers 5. Two-base hits, Hill 2, Lloyd, Wadsworth, Harris. Three-base hits, Wadsworth. Bases stolen, Cox 3, Brunner, Hill. Double plays, Calk to Mangan. Base on balls, Regulars 4, Killers 1. Struck out, by Wadsworth 12, Moore 7. Passed balls, Lloyd 2, Corriel 7. Wild pitches, Moore 3, Wadsworth 3. Time, two hours. Umpire, Purnell.

This afternoon the lawyers and office holders and the bankers and bank clerks will try to knock each other out. Everybody should go out and see Sheriff Jefferson and County Attorney Newell, the star base runners. Asa Burgess, Jr., will be in the box for the lawyers and George Barbour for the bankers. Wadsworth, the Regular's twirler, will be on hand to get some pointers. Admission only ten cents.

Game called at 3:30.

IN the past few days two very old people have died in Greenup. John Allen expired at the age of ninety, and two days later Mrs. Cynthia Starks died at the very old age of ninety-six years. Both had lived in Greenup County for a long time, and were widely known and much esteemed.

WHILE John S. Wilson was threshing wheat in a field of James Asbury's, near Fern Leaf, the straw stubbles caught fire from the engine. Before it was stopped thirty-five shocks of wheat were destroyed. The hands who were at work in the field had hard work to keep the fire from spreading, and some of the men were completely exhausted and had to be taken home, says the Dover News.

At Lexington the Breckinridge people declare that Owens is on the eve of withdrawing from the race, as he did in his campaign with Joe Blackburn, and will throw his strength to Evan Settle. Owens, they declare, is out to beat Breckinridge, and realizing that he can not do this, he has determined to withdraw and help elect the Owen County man. It is also reported that negotiations have been opened with Settle to have him withdraw in the interest of Owens.
