If the tariff does not benefit the trusts, why are they making such a desperate fight against the Wilson bill?

The people demand an honest revision of the tariff, and the Democratic Senator or Representative who blocks the pending bill digs his political grave.

The latest news from Washington City is encouraging. The Democrats have at last about settled their wrangle over the tariff. The bill may pass to-day or tomorrow, according to reports.

The present deadlock over the Wilson bill is accomplishing some good at least. It is bringing out the fact more prominently than ever that high tariffs are not for the benefit of the people,—that the trusts and monopolies are the ones who have fattened off of the McKinley bill.

JUDGE BECKNER can count all the Republican votes he will poll for himself or "Little Joe" either, on the hands of a man with both arms off.—Winchester Democrat.

Certainly, Republicans rarely ever desert their colors. Some of them, however, are trying to induce Democrats to prove traitors. But no true Democrat will be caught by G. O. P. chaff.

REPUBLICAN Senators asserted recently that the sugar trust was not in existence when the McKinley bill was passed a few years ago. If that is true, our Republican friends should explain what has built up such a gigantic and arrogant corporation in so short a time. The fact of the matter is, trusts have fattened and grown insolent under Republican tariffs, and the people are beginning to see this. Down with the trusts and with any tariff that favors them.

WYLIE E. SCOTT, an attorney of West Union, and Miss Alice Murray, an Iron-ton belle, were married at Portsmouth this week.

Earthworms.

Darwin says in "The Formation of Vegetable Mold:" "If a man had to plug up a small cylindrical hole with such objects as leaves, petioles or twigs he would drag or push them in by their pointed ends, but if these objects were very thin relatively to the size of the hole he would probably insert some by their thicker or broader end. The guide in his case would be intelligence." He then goes on to show by reports of actual experiments that this is the method pursued by earthworms. Not only do they adapt the leaves of the trees of their own country to their needs, but the leaves of foreign trees are dealt with in a similar way. The following words of Mr. Darwin are remarkable: "If worms are able to judge, either before drawing or after having drawn an object close to the mouths of their burrows, how best to drag it in, they must acquire some notion of its general shape. This they probably acquire by touching it in many places with the anterior extremity of their bodies, which serves as a tactile organ.

"It may be well to remember how perfect the sense of touch becomes in a man when born blind and deaf, as are worms. If worms have the power of acquiring some notion, however rude, of the shape of an object and of their burrows, as seems to be the case, they deserve to be called intelligent, for they then act in nearly the same manner as would a man under similar circumstances."

THE CAMP MEETINGS.

An Instance of the Good Work Done at Ruggles—Not a Money-Making Scheme.

The sunrise prayer service Tuesday morning was a continuance of the meeting the previous evening as was also the 9 o'clock service and a gracious outpouring of the Holy Spirit, is earnestly looked for by all.

The preachers are all of one accord and one mind and they are often in prayer beseeching God to send a gracious shower and save the unsaved. An instance worthy of mention here showing how God can save and change the heart and make a man a new creature. I think it was the second year of the camp meeting we had a good deal of trouble with drunken rowdies, some of them very hard cases. Two of these were arrested and locked up in one of the tents, and put under guard, but the windows being open one of them jumped out and got away. He did not escape from the loving Almighty, however, and now this same man comes back to us at the Ruggles camp grounds, a minister of the gospel, saved by grace, and is preaching to us the word of God that he once so much despised. Many others, though not preachers, can look back to the hour when God for Christ's sake pardoned their sins on Ruggles camp ground, and bless his holy name. There are those who will go from this meeting with a new song in their mouth, even the praise of the blessed Jesus.

There is one thing they cannot say of the Ruggles camp meeting and that is it never was and never will be for a money making purpose, and the directors I think have shown this year after year, by granting the people every privilege free, that they could do so without absolute loss. There has been no charge for entrance except last Saturday and Sunday, and there will be none from now until next Saturday. Surely this is as generous as the people could expect, considering the heavy expense to which this association is put to from year to year in order to carry on these meetings.

Rev. G. N. Jolly came in Tuesday night from Sardis and has rolled up his sleeves and gone to work in earnest for Christ. Rev. John Cheep came in also from his charge on Quick's Run, Lewis County. We like to see these warm hearted, earnest-looking christian ministers come because we know that Satan has got a poor show with these men of God pulling at his strong-hold.

Brother Jolly preached at the night service Tuesday at the close of which Brother Bevin, Brother Holt and Brother Childers exhorted. There were three conversions and a number of others at the altar. So the good work goes on.

You have a little hustler here attending to the BULLETIN. One hardly misses him out of sight until he is back, every paper sold.

At the sunrise prayer service Wednesday the Spirit was present and when the 9 o'clock testimony service came on the people shouted and clapped their hands with joy. Those who had received a blessing testified of the power of God that was present and that it had saved them. At 10:30 a. m. the memorial services began and a large congregation had gathered. Presiding Elder Frenger opened the service, then Rev. Stratton followed with remarks on the death of Thomas Ruggles who had been intimately connected with Ruggles camp grounds since they were first opened. Brothers Stratton, Northcott, Trusler, Childers and Dr. Bowman paid a warm tribute to his memory. Then Brother Holt spoke in memory of our Maysville people who had died since we last met here. These were Sister Minnie Mitchell, daughter of Captain Miller, and Sister Fannie Gady, daughter of Prof. H. C. Smith. As he spoke of the excellent character of these young people and how early in life they had been taken, tears flowed abundantly. Fannie Gady took such a deep interest in the camp meeting last year, and said so often, that she could not stay away, but now her bright spirit has flown and we all miss her cheerful countenance and her sweet voice that used to ring out the praises of God here, and the same can be said of Brother Thomas Ruggles. We miss them, so sadly miss them.

Professor Smith and family came out Wednesday morning, also Mrs. George Bowman and his daughter from Newport, and H. C. Smith, Jr., his son, with his wife and daughter. The children's service at 1:30 was very interesting. A large number were present and Rev. Childers gave them good instructions from the black board.

The camp meeting directors met Wednesday morning and re-elected the old board for year 1895.

PARKS HILL.

The special camp meeting trains at nights are bringing in crowds from Carlisle, Millersburg and Paris to hear the excellent sermons. Two special trains daily from Paris,—none from Maysville.

Wednesday the audiences were excellent, quite a number visiting the encampment from the surrounding country and towns. Dr. Stuart preached three sermons Wednesday, and the afternoon service was as well attended as was the morning which is quite uncommon at camp meetings.

Dr. Morris, of St. Paul's Church, Cincinnati, arrived Wednesday and will stay a week.

Dr. Miller, of Louisville, will be in Thursday and stay at least a week. Those who attend next Sunday will likely get to hear each of these able divines.

Campers are still arriving, so that the cottages will not only be all taken but they will all be filled.

George Keith, of Maysville, arrived at camp Monday evening and Mrs. R. M. Skinner on Tuesday. Mr. Warder and family, of Helena Station, were visitors at camp Tuesday.

The management sprinkled the grounds Wednesday in the absence of a refreshing, natural shower—so we keep cool and control the dust.

CLARENCE GREATHOUSE, a former resident of this State, and a relative of the family of that name formerly of this county, is said to be Prime Minister in Korea.

The case of the Commonwealth against Charles Fields, colored, charged with highway robbery, came up yesterday before Squire Grant and was continued till next Tuesday, by consent. Fields' bond was reduced to $100.

The good rains Wednesday evening and Thursday evening, last week, has given every one a pleasant contentment, and the crops and pastures are much refreshed.

Uncle Tommie Williams celebrated the eighty-fourth anniversary of his birth Thursday at the old home place. The numerous presents he received had quite a pleasing effect on him, not for their value, but for the fact he was so kindly remembered by his friends and relatives, of whom there were a large crowd present. The day was spent very pleasantly listening to his many reminiscences of pioneer days, which are always interesting to the younger generation. This venerable and honorable old gentleman was born at the old "Spotted Tavern" kept by his maternal grandfather, Alcock, near Fredericksburg, Va., and removed to this city by wagon with his parents when he was four years old, being a resident of the county eighty years. He is the father of two children, has seven grandchildren, twenty-two great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild. His health is good. He maintained a cheerful spirit during the day until the parting and good-byes, which are always so hard to say, when he was completely overcome, but soon rallied and remarked that this was the saddest birthday he ever spent, and no doubt would be the last, and admonished all to meet him in the "bright beyond." A sumptuous dinner was served, and the day was spent pleasantly by all. It is our sincere wish that he may live to enjoy many more anniversaries.

HENRY MASTIN and daughter, formerly of this county, were seriously injured a few days ago in a runaway near Millersburg. While driving down a hill the shaft-strap broke and the shafts flying up frightened the horse. It began to run and Mr. Mastin jumped out to catch the horse and landed on a pile of rock on his head, mangling it terribly. His daughter remained quiet for a while and then jumped out and struck on a rock, cutting a gash in her head.
