

PROBABLY AN OCEAN DISASTER.
The British Steamer Abydos Has Been Given Up For Lost.

LONDON, Dec. 27.—The British steamer Abydos, Captain True, from Valencia on Nov. 28 for Liverpool, which put into Almeria on Dec. 2 with her circulating pump out of order, subsequently resuming her voyage, is believed to have foundered off the coast of Erin, Isle of Man, during the recent gale. Several life buoys with the names of the steamship Abydos on them have been washed ashore on the Isle of Man. All of the steamer's crew, about 20 men, are supposed to have been drowned.

It transpires that the majority of the crew of the steamer Oswald, which was wrecked off the Mull of Galloway, were also drowned. Some of the crew were saved.

A steamship which has arrived at Londonderry reports that she passed, off the Mull of Cantyre, a large capsized bark, floating bottom upwards. All her crew are believed to have perished.

CHRISTMAS CRIMES.

How the Holiday Resulted in Little Rock, Arkansas.

LITTLE ROCK, Dec. 27.—A Christmas drunken brawl at Wrightsville, Tuesday night, resulted in the killing of two negroes. William Fagan was monkeying with a revolver at Benton and shot his hand off.

A man named Myer went into a drug-store at Holland, Ark., Tuesday to get a drink of whisky. There was a convivial crowd in the store, and he waited on himself. He got hold of the wrong bottle, and is dead.

Ethel Fowler, aged 5 years, died from hydrophobia in Little Rock Tuesday night. The child was bitten by a puppy last October.

Horrible Confession.

BANGOR, Me., Dec. 27.—Joseph Gabriel, the Indian guide who is charged with the murder of Comillio and Langley, the hunters who were killed in their camp at Millinocket last Sunday, has made a confession. He says that while drunk he and Comillio became engaged in a quarrel, and the latter tried to kill him with a knife. Gabriel says he defended himself with a hatchet, and in the fight killed the Spaniard. He then set fire to the house, and Langley, who lay in bed in a drunken stupor, was burned to death. Joseph says that his brother Newell was in the woods when the fight occurred, and returned just as the fire started.

Firemen's Good Work.

WACO, TEX., Dec. 27.—At 6 o'clock yesterday evening a general alarm of fire was turned in from the corner of Fifth and Austin streets. Flames were seen rapidly ascending, and but for the magnificent work of the fire department, the loss must have been fearful, as the cold norther was blowing at a high rate, and the burned buildings were in the heart of the city. Neumann & Marx, notions; T. J. Smith, gents' goods; Miller's wallpaper store are the principal losers. Several smaller stores were badly damaged. The buildings are owned by J. F. Stone, and fronted half a block on Austin street. Total loss about $50,000, with three-quarters insurance.

Passenger Train Derailed.

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—One man was injured and about 100 passengers badly frightened before 11 o'clock last night, when the Detroit night passenger train on the Wabash road was partially derailed at 46th street. J. S. Pauly of Chicago was cut about the head and several others were badly shaken up, but not seriously hurt. One car of the train left the track at a switch and was somewhat damaged, but the train was immediately made up again and went on, after a delay of an hour.

Six Hundred Letters Stolen.

NEW HAVEN, Dec. 27.—The local postal authorities report that a mail-pouch for Hartford, containing 600 letters, was stolen Monday night. It was left at Union station for the 10:05 train by the carrier in charge of Transfer Clerk Kennedy. Kennedy placed it on a track and went inside to talk with a friend, the train being late. Shortly after this the pouch was missed. It was found 300 yards down the track with the lock broken and the entire contents missing.

Burglars Break Jail.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Dec. 27.—Three noted burglars and all-round crooks broke jail here yesterday morning. Their names are Thomas Martin of Buffalo, Frank Leroy of Brooklyn and Thomas King, colored. They were arrested there during the recent southern exposition, for crooked work. As the jailer entered the cell at 3 o'clock in the morning, they seized him, threw a sack over his head, took his pistol, and scaling the high walls, escaped.

Once More After Ketchum.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 27.—Deputy County Marshal Joseph Stewart has left the city for Chicago to bring to this city once more the notorious Charles Ketchum, alias Charles Hardin, once charged with a $40,000 express robbery. Ketchum, while here a week ago, brutally assaulted James McManus, a railroad clerk, and is to be brought back on that charge.

They Used Knives.

LINNEUS, Mo., Dec. 27.—Crisper Hagan and Virgil Prather, farmers at Eversonville, imbibed too freely of Christmas whisky, and ended their debauch with a fight, using knives. Prather was frightfully carved, and can not live. Hagan was less seriously cut. He was arrested, and will be held for murder.

Factory Burned.

FREMONT, Neb., Dec. 27.—The brick building owned and occupied by the Fremont Carriage Manufacturing company in this city was partially destroyed by fire yesterday. The loss is estimated at $2,000; insurance, $1,000. The factory will be rebuilt.

Treasury Statement.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—The cash balance in the treasury at the close of business yesterday was $153,837,154, and the gold reserve $89,069,651.

In Memory of Lutie Daniels.
Sad at heart we feel as we write of the death of little Lutie Daniels, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Daniels, of Jersey Ridge, just past his tenth year. When he left home Friday morn for school with his books in one arm and his other around his mother, he kissed her good-bye, little did that loving mother think it would be the last time. He seems fit to take the sweet and lovely child to a home where there is no more sickness, pain or death. None knew him but to love him. May God who works all things to the good of those who love him, bless this bereavement to the good of this family.

O when the day is done,
We watch the glory of the setting sun,
And know it pours a flood of golden light
Around the spot where vanished from our sight
Our darling treasured one.
But when the angels beckoned him away,
He found the land where it is always day;
And since our thoughts so often swiftly run
Into the new, sweet life he has just begun,
With peaceful heart, I see the shadows fall,
Because our loved one lives above them all.

"And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things have passed away."
A FRIEND.

Your darling child is now at rest
In the mansions of the blest,
The savior hid him from the sick,
To that bright and happy home;
Then dry your tears, sorrow no more,
But meet him on the other shore,
Where joys and pleasures never cease,
In that land of perfect peace.

The doctor will remain in Louisville for a few months and then go to New York to finish up as a specialist. His many Lexington friends wish him much success."

Brown's Iron Bitters

In a unsolicited letter (June 29, 1894.) she writes: "About 9 or 10 years ago I was broken down in health and suffered from extreme nervousness, and severe neuralgic pains afflicted different parts of my body—sometimes the dreadful pain would be in my eyes and head, sometimes in my hand and often in my shoulders and neck. I took many remedies, but found none like Brown's Iron Bitters. I have used a few bottles every year since. I often praise it to others."
