

A SUDDEN SUMMONS.

The Community Shocked by the Death of Mr. J. C. Humphreys Saturday Afternoon.

The many friends of Mr. J. C. Humphreys were shocked Saturday afternoon by the news of his sudden death.

Mr. Humphreys had come to Maysville in the forenoon to ship some hogs, and after they had been driven to the pens in the Sixth ward he came down town and went to Captain N. Cooper's warehouse on Front street to attend to some business matters.

The office is on the second floor, and as he entered the door he was suddenly stricken and sank to the floor.

Mr. E. B. Powell was in the office, and sprang forward with the inquiry: "Why, Jack, what's the matter?"

There was no response. The icy hand of death had forever stilled the tongue. The stricken man had expired almost instantly.

The deceased had been troubled with some disease of the heart, and had complained Saturday morning and the night before of an unusual feeling in the region of that organ.

Deceased resided near Washington, and was one of Mason County's highly esteemed citizens. He was well known as one of the county's successful farmers and stock dealers. He was a member of one of the pioneer families of this section. His father, the late Charles Humphreys, was Sheriff of Mason for several years.

Deceased had been married twice. His last wife, who was Mrs. Sallie (Forman) McDonald, survives him. He leaves two sisters and one brother, Miss Jane Humphreys, Mrs. Frank Perrie and Mr. Robert Humphreys, all of this city. He was in the sixty-fourth year of his age.

The funeral will occur to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock at the residence, with services by Rev. W. T. Spears. Interment in the Protestant cemetery at Washington.

Took French Leave.

A Frenchman, who gave his name as Degarmo, struck Portsmouth recently and stopped at the boarding house of Mrs. Jennie Barr. He said he was dealing in electrical supplies, and on a plea of seeing what he could do in the way of supplying the house with electrical contrivances, he obtained access to nearly all the rooms and got the lay of the land. Saturday morning he was missing, along with the silverware and a quantity of jewelry belonging to Mrs. Barr and some of the boarders.

ZINC MINES.

Captain William Riggs Thinks Ore in Paying Quantities Is to Be Found Near Concord.

Captain William Riggs, who lives near Concord, in Lewis County, believes he has discovered ore containing zinc in quantity to pay for mining, says the West Union Defender. A specimen of the ore has been analyzed by Professor Wayne, a chemist of Cincinnati, and found to assay 65 per cent. zinc, 15 per cent. silver and 10 per cent. foreign substances.

Captain Riggs has every reason to believe that there is a large ledge of the rich ore on the land, and he is now corresponding with Sistersville, W. Va., prospectors, with a view of prospecting for it.

If the ore is found in paying quantities he will lease several thousand acres of land in the vicinity, and develop the deposit.

Captain Riggs has known of the existence of the ore for many years, but has never been in a position to prospect for the main ledge.

H. J. Poor, Representative-elect from Pendleton County, announced Saturday that he will vote for a Republican for U. S. Senator. He promised to do so before the election, but of course that matter was kept a secret until after the polls closed. However, the Democrats have not counted on any support from Poor.

A GAME of foot ball at Lexington Friday between the Ohio University and State College teams resulted in a disgraceful scene. When the game had come to a close a crowd of kickers, at first mostly young boys, gathered about the umpire and referee, and began to pelt them with clods and stones, following the street car for squares. The State College boys were greatly humiliated at the action of the crowd, as they had no kick coming.

NEWPORT'S NEW MAYOR.

His Wife Was Miss Sarah Miller, of This City—A Self-Made Man.

The Cincinnati Enquirer yesterday gave an interesting sketch of Mr. Edward Biltz, Mayor-elect of Newport. He is forty-seven years of age and started in life as a blacksmith. He now has a machine shop at Tiffin street, Newport.

The Enquirer says: "Mr. Biltz was married on October 11, 1870, to Miss Sarah Miller, of Maysville, and their union has been a most admirable and happy one. The one shadow which has fallen upon their home came with the death of their eldest daughter Amy, which occurred two years ago, when the girl was just blooming into womanhood. One daughter and five sons remain to them, and all but one live in the cozy and cheerful home at 906 Columbia street. The daughter, Lulu, is now sixteen, a sweet, womanly girl, whose friends are numbered by hundreds. Of the sons, Charles, who is now twenty-two, is connected with the L. and N. railroad. Edward, who is twenty-four, and George, who is twenty-one, have charge of the principal part of the routine work in the shops. Teddie, aged twelve, is a cheery, red-cheeked schoolboy, and Howard, the baby, just past his third birthday, pursues the usual useful avocation of young gentlemen of his age. One son, George, married Miss Leona Hyde, of Newport, one year ago, and the young folks live at Third and Columbia streets, in Newport.

"Mr. Biltz is a safe man to hold the reins of city government. He is honest, fearless and conscientious, and the respect and love in which his children hold him is proof of this."

Mrs. Biltz, as stated a few days ago, is a sister of the Messrs. Miller, dealers in harness, of this city.

ALTHOUGH Richmond, Ky., was carried at the recent election by Republicans by 50 majority, the Democrats have secured all the city offices.

A LIVELY fight is on for the postmaster-ship at Mt. Sterling. Among the candidates already announced are Howard Anderson, Squire Turner and Claude Hazlerigg. Of these Anderson seems to have the lead, as he is being backed by a large per cent of the business men of the city.

THE Harrison County grand jury has found an indictment against Dr. W. N. Scott, charging him with the willful murder of Miss Nancy Dunn, caused by a criminal operation on September 23. Scott is one of the most prominent physicians of Cynthiana. He was granted his liberty on bail in the sum of $5,000 to appear at the next term of the Criminal Court.

AT Lexington, in the contest of Wood Dunlap, Republican, for the seat in the Legislature of Kaufman, Democrat, a discovery has been made which, it is said, beyond a doubt gives Dunlap the seat, and will thereby give the Republicans a clear majority on joint ballot in the Legislature. It has been discovered that Kaufman's election, while holding office as a city Councilman, was contrary to the statute.

HISTORIC old Augusta College was not destroyed by fire Friday, although a highly sensational report to that effect was sent out to some papers. The soot in one of the flues caught fire, which ignited a coal bin in one of the rooms. The blaze was put out with a bucket of water. There was no panic among the children, and none were hurt. School was resumed one hour after the occasion. Augusta citizens are indignant that such stories should be sent out.

FRIDAY afternoon M. G. Clay, defaulting County Treasurer at Ironton, pleaded guilty to one indictment for embezzling $5,891 on September 5, 1895, which, after the count of the examiners, he had deposited in bank. Clay's attorneys made a strong plea to the Court for leniency and Judge Dever sentenced the ex-Treasurer to five years at hard labor and to pay a fine of $11,783.74, double the amount named in the indictment, in accordance with the statutes. The other thirteen indictments, naming various amounts of embezzled funds, will be nollied. He was at once taken to the penitentiary.
