

The Bee Hive

The Best 50c. Linen Skirt at 39c.

You have often paid 50c. for a skirt not the equal of these. We have known them to sell elsewhere for 75c. They are made of heavy linen and have a full three and a half yard sweep. These skirts are not "skimped." They have a "hang" about 'em that shows they were built by makers of well-fitting skirts. Merely to avoid summer dullness, we've marked 'em 39c. A regular $1.50 White Pique Skirt is marked 98c.

Newly-Arrived 15c. Lawns Are Now 10c.

Your advantage in having our buyers visit New York City is well shown in this newly-arrived lot of Lawns. They come in dainty Dimities, exquisite corded Mulls and Muslinettes. The patterns are the very latest shown in the Eastern markets. Your saving is just 5c. a yard, for they're marked 10c. instead of 15c. Those 10 cent Lawns at 6c. are selling like the proverbial hot cake. You had better come quickly.

Great Bargain in Ladies' Night Gowns.

This was a most fortunate purchase, indeed. These Gowns were made to sell at 75c. There were just thirty dozen. We took them all at a price which, with a small profit, sells them to you at 49c. They are made of soft, sheer Cambric and trimmed with superb Swiss embroidery and insertion. Do you need a gown? Here's one to your great saving at 49c.

ROSENAU BROS.,

PROPRIETORS OF THE BEE HIVE,

KINGS OF LOW PRICES

MR. D. HECHINGER.

His Friends Are Legion and They Rejoice To Know He Is To Continue in Business Here.

The announcement a few months ago of Mr. D. Hechinger's intention to retire from the clothing business in Maysville was received with genuine regret by his legion of friends throughout all this section.

The conditions at that time prompted him to take the step, and no announcement was ever made in better faith.

However, "conditions change and men change with them." That is an old saying, and it is exemplified in this case. Yielding to the persuasions of his host of friends and patrons and acceding to the desire of his fellow merchants to have him remain with them in active commercial pursuits, Mr. Hechinger has reconsidered his former decision and will continue the business which he founded in Maysville nearly forty years ago, and which he has conducted so long and so honorably.

Mr. Hechinger is one of Maysville's most public-spirited citizens, ever ready to lend a helping hand where the welfare of the city is at stake, and his friends everywhere and the community in general rejoice to know he is to continue in business here.

A HEADQUARTERS detective is investigating a case which is not only peculiar but pathetic. The story was reported by Miss Kittie Turner, the charming young daughter of George W. Turner, deceased. At the time of his death Mr. Turner held the position of assistant city chemist. He overworked himself during the recent smallpox epidemic and finally contracted a cold, which resulted in his death. Naturally his death was a great shock to his widow. Some two years ago Mrs. Turner gave a tintype photograph of her husband to one of those "photo enlarging" companies. It was the best picture she had of her husband. When she received the enlarged picture she was not satisfied with it and returned it. Since then she has been trying to secure the tintype without avail. It was not until after her husband's death that she made a decided effort to recover the tintype, but the company paid no attention to her repeated requests. She wants the police to aid her in recovering the picture.

The above is taken from the Cincinnati Times-Star, and is verified every few days at our Studio. Moral: Don't give your orders to agents. Leave them at CADY'S ART STUDIO, where the original picture will be safe and the enlarged picture will please you.
