THE ADVANCE GUARD.

INDICATIONS

Are that this year's crop of insects will beat anything on record. Scientists have discovered that an entirely new variety are due to visit this locality during the summer. The creature is said to be a cross between a Kansas grasshopper and last year's kissing bug. The advance guard was seen here yesterday and gives promise of being the warmest thing that ever "came over the pike."

Prepare to resist the invaders by providing your windows and doors with SCREENS. We supply them ready-made, and the prices are so low that no family can afford to do without 'em.

Several stitches were required to close the wound which was about the head and face. The injury is feared to be permanent. Edgar has the sympathy of his acquaintances and friends. His devotion to his aged parents with whom he lives attracts the admiration of all. While friends at the neighbor's house, where he was taken, were endeavoring to stay the flowing blood before taking him to the doctor, his constant wail was, "Who will break the news to mother?"

Quite a number of relatives of Mrs. James Ensor of this neighborhood and other places, visited her Sunday at her elegant home at Orangeburg. Church, to hear the wonderful and sensational Rev. Mrs. Harrod.

Also was it a great shock to hear of the death of Mr. Angus Wood, notice of which was given last week. He was a man of sterling qualities, much loved by a host of relatives and friends. He was laid to rest Saturday in our beautiful city of the dead, after a fitting ceremony at the house by Rev. Augustin Smith.

Last Saturday morning at 6:30 o'clock death visited the home of Thomas Kilgore and took as his victim his oldest son, J. L. Kilgore. He had been a patient sufferer for quite a while with that dread disease, consumption. He was a devoted member of the Masons and Knights of Pythias. After services at the house by Elder Hall he was laid to rest in Maple Grove, K. of P. cemetery with the honors of the orders of which he was a member.
