

The Men Behind the Guns

Have given their evidence and Schley assumes full responsibility for the Brooklyn's famous "loop." It was a long story and has taken a great deal of time to tell. Our tale is more to the point and quickly told. We have just received the biggest single shipment of wire goods in the history of our house—

MAYSICK, Oct. 30th.—Miss Emma Vansant returned to her home at Elizaville Tuesday after spending a few days here with her sister, Mrs. Will Pytes.

The Catholic Church was crowded to its fullest extent Monday morn when, after high mass, the sacrament of confirmation was administered by Bishop Maes, of Covington, to a class of eighty-one children. Promptly at the appointed hour, the children marched in the church, preceded by their teachers, and took their places in perfect order. The girls clad in spotless white, and the boys in dark suits, presented a sight which suggested the thought of "on this earth but not of it." Bishop Maes spoke to the children in a clear, concise way, of the beauty of their religion and their duty for the future. The altars were beautifully decorated with handsome plants and cut flowers, and the improved appearance of the church elicited much praise from the Bishop, Father Flynn, of Flemingsburg, and Father DeByrne, of Maysville, assisted Father Hickey in the services.

Mr. and Mrs. Ean Myall, of Maysville, spent a few days with Mrs. Will Myall, the first of the week.

Harry Mathias, of Carlisle, spent Monday here. Miss Millie Robinson is the guest of Mrs. Will Robinson.

Candidates are very busy this week preparing for next Tuesday.

Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Porter, with Carlisle friends, spent Monday here.

Mitchell Jackson, of Millersburg, is the guest of friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. John Collopy entertained Rt. Rev. Bishop Maes, of Covington, Monday at their handsome home on Main street.

Miss Nellie Bowden and sisters, of Flemingsburg, were visitors here the first of the week.

Bishop Maes lectured to a large audience Monday night on "The True Church of Christ." Every available space was occupied by attentive listeners of all denominations and perfect order prevailed during the entire lecture of two hours.

All joined in pronouncing it one of the finest lectures ever delivered here.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lydiek, of Cynthiana, are guests of Hon. A. P. Gooding and Mrs. S. M. Myall.

Can't Get Better Officers Than These.

[Dover News.]
There was never a better set of county officers in Mason county, or any other county in the State, than those who ask re-election this time. "Don't give up the old friends for the new."

Mr. W. W. McIlvain is perfectly familiar with the duties of the office and will make an ideal officer. He is well known and extremely popular and his election is a foregone conclusion.

Between the ages of fifteen and forty five, the time when womanhood begins and motherhood ends, it is estimated that the aggregate term of woman's suffering is ten years. Ten years out of thirty! One third of the best part of a woman's life sacrificed! Think of the enormous loss of time! But time is not all that is lost. Those years of suffering steal the bloom from the cheeks, the brightness from the eyes, the fairness from the form. They write their record in many a crease and wrinkle. What a boon then to woman, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It promotes perfect regularity, dries up debilitating drains, heals ulceration, cures female weakness, and establishes the delicate womanly organs in vigorous and permanent health. No other medicine can do for woman what is done by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The Mayslick Cemetery Company has filed articles of incorporation. Messrs. Jonas Myall, S. M. Roff, Alex. Duke, S. H. Mitchell, J. D. Peed, W. Matthews and James R. Roberson are the incorporators. The capital stock is $3,500.

Stepped Into Live Coals.
"When a child I burned my foot frightfully," writes W. H. Eads, of Jonesville, Va., "which caused horrible leg sores for thirty years, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured me after everything else failed." Infallible for burns, scalds, cuts, sores, bruises and piles. Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son. 25c.

The Haymakers' hop at Neptune Hall last night was a very enjoyable affair. A large crowd was present.

W. E. Dimmitt and Minnie Berry, colored, were married Thursday.

To the Voters of Mason County.

I wish to say that I, too, heartily endorse the action of our Chairman in his appointment of W. W. McIlvain to succeed his father as Jailer of Mason County, as he is certainly the logical one. I do this for the simple reason that I have a host of friends throughout the county that claim that I should succeed Uncle Ike, but Providence has intervened and taken our venerable banner-bearer away before the time allotted by us, which I know we all deeply mourn. I therefore urge that all my friends get to the polls on next Tuesday morning and use their utmost endeavors to secure Win's election, with the rest of the ticket. T. F. GOODWIN.

To Whom It May Concern.

Because of reports freely circulated, I take this opportunity of saying to the voters of Maysville that I am running for the Board of Education, not in the interest of any individual or party; but solely in the interest of the cause of education in our city. F. W. HARROP.

TO THE Voters of the Ninth CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT:

W. H. Means, of Mason County, announces himself a candidate for assistant superintendent for the purchase of Boots and Shoes, subject to the action of the people with feet. My platform is solid sole leather, the only one that both Democrats and Republicans can stand on and all be satisfied. My duties as manager of Dan Cohen's Great Western Shoe Store prevents me from making a personal canvass. I want the office for the money there is in it. If elected my deputies shall be Jim Egnew and Billy Cooper. If you want money before you vote call on me at Dan Cohen's Great Western Shoe Store, Maysville, Ky.
