

Goods That Are All the Go!

At this season of the year. We have looked out for our farmer friends on all sides and have just what they want for slaughtering purposes, not something else. A late visit from the manufacturer's price-cutter has made it possible for us to offer extra inducements on Enterprise goods this fall. The largest stock we ever had of

A HELPLESS CRIPPLE

Is George Kelly, Who is To Be Tried at Vanceburg For Larceny—Shot at Cottageville.

VANCEBURG, Ky., Nov. 22.—George Kelly, a fugitive from justice, was brought here to-day by the Sheriff of Harrison County, Ky., and delivered to the authorities. He is indicted for grand larceny. Kelly ran away from here about three years ago and located near Otway, O. Desiring to make a visit to his old home he came in a buggy that another man claimed as his own. While here it was exchanged for a better one belonging to Wm. Cooper. In making the change a cap belonging to a woman was left in the old buggy and this gave a clew. Cooper followed them to Ohio and found his buggy and brought it back and the Ohio man who had lost a buggy came to Kentucky and got his vehicle. In the meantime Kelly was arrested in Ohio, but gave bond and fled. Finally he came to Cottageville, and one night about a year ago he was shot and seriously wounded, and his life despaired of. He was taken to the hospital at Cincinnati and finally recovered, but is a helpless cripple now, having to use two crutches. He left the hospital a few weeks ago.

B. F. Tully was arrested, charged with shooting Kelly, but the case was dismissed by the court for lack of prosecution, Kelly at the time being unable to attend court.

CINCINNATI TOBACCO MARKET.

Decided Improvement on the Breaks Last Week—Good Grades in Demand.

	1901.	1900.
Offerings.....	1,205	1,766
Rejections.....	265	411
Actual sales.....	940	1,325
Per cent. rejections.....	22	25
Receipts.....	317	422

The 1,205 hhd. offered averaged $9.18 per hundred lbs., as against $8.21 for the 1,111 hhd. for the previous week and $8.56 for the 1,766 hhd. in the corresponding week of 1900.

The market during the past week showed a decided improvement, with slight advances on the better grades from 10¢ upward. The low and inferior types, however, did not fare so well, and were very irregular throughout the week, due in a large measure in many instances to the evidence of poor handling and bad condition. With the exception of Thursday the light was poor throughout the week, and buyers were therefore not enabled to do justice, either to themselves or the samples in the bidding.

The quest for good color tobaccos is still on, and everything in that line continues to excite the liveliest competition between the bidders. Under the stimulus of better prices the offerings of strictly good to fine leaf have been a little more liberal than for several weeks, and this was particularly so on Thursday and Friday. Receipts continue light, although an improvement is expected in this regard during the coming week.
