A BOMBARDMENT.

French Artillery Opened Fire on Figui, Stronghold of the Rebellious Tribesmen.

MANY HOUSES WERE DESTROYED.

The Mosque is in Ruins and it is Believed That Many of the Natives Were Killed.

The Strong Force of Artillery Was Armed With Guns Firing Melinite Shells—None of the French Troops Were Injured.

Ben-ouniff, Algeria, June 9.—The French artillery opened a preliminary fire at 5:30 o'clock Monday morning on Figui, the stronghold of the rebellious Zenaga tribesmen, who recently attacked and tried to ambush Gov. Jonnart and his escort, of whom 13 were seriously injured. The bombardment lasted until 11 o'clock when a great destruction of houses had been wrought, the mosque destroyed, and it is believed a great number of natives killed.

Gen. O'Connor commands the punitive expedition, consisting of 4,000 men of the foreign legion and a strong force of artillery, armed with guns firing melinite shells. Gen. O'Connor's plan was to advance on Figui in three columns and to post his artillery on commanding hills surrounding the rebel stronghold.

At 9:30 a. m. the French troops occupied Juive hill and another eminence, both strategic positions, by a surprise movement. The ramparts of the town were then 1,200 metres distant and, like the houses which were half a mile behind them, built of compressed earth from these hills, the artillery made excellent practice, the melinite shells making a big breach in the ramparts and destroying a multitude of houses, the inhabitants of which had fled at the first shots. Finally the fire so concentrated on the mosque, which was much venerated, and the edifice was blown to pieces. This destruction of the mosque is expected to have a great moral effect. The Moors concealed in the palm groves, replied with artillery to the French bombardment, but without effect. At 11 o'clock the French guns were withdrawn to Djennan-ed-Dar, where Gen. O'Connor was awaiting offers of submission when this dispatch left.

All the women and children left the town before the action. The French fired a few shells at distant parts of the oasis in order to impress the Moors with the power and range of the French guns. Throughout the engagement there was no loss on the French side.

The French artillery fired 600 shells at the town. The native cavalry, the chasseurs, covered Afrique, and the troops of the foreign legion were posted during the bombardment at points surrounding the town, but the infantry did not fire a single shot.

At 3:30 o'clock Monday afternoon an envoy from the Ameer of Figui arrived at this place. Gen. O'Connor has received congratulations from the commander of the 19th army corps on the skill with which he conducted the operations. No decision has been taken regarding future operations. It is possible if the Figui tribesmen do not come to terms, other villages in the oasis will be bombarded.

MORE JEW BAITING.

Russian Peasants Threaten to Massacre the Hebrews.

Berlin, June 9.—According to a dispatch from Lemberg, the papers in that town publish an account of the renewal of the Jew baiting at Borestecko, Russia, near Brody, Galicia. Twenty thousand peasants assembled at the annual fair threatened to massacre the Jews who, panic-stricken, closed their houses and stores, and telegraphed to the governor for protection. A hundred of the Jews fled to Usyn, on the Austrian border.

To Buy the Meteor.

Owingsville, Ky., June 9.—Prof. Oliver D. Harrington, curator of geology in the Field Columbian museum, Chicago, arrived here Monday. He is in a deal with T. J. Pergram, of this county, for the 300-pound meteor which the latter found a few weeks ago. It is understood that Mr. Pergram priced the meteor at $5,000.

Accused of Two Murders.

Williamsburg, Ky., June 9.—Craig Gragg was arrested at Mahan on a warrant sworn out by a woman with whom he has been living. She alleges they were never married. Gragg, it is said, served a term in the Kentucky penitentiary. The woman says he killed a boy in Pulaski county and also a woman in Estill county.

MADE AFFIDAVITS.

Lynching Feared By Three Negroes Now in Covington Jail.

Covington, Ky., June 9.—Tom Mann, Charles Sanders and Ed Morris, three Negroes who were held in jail here for the Mason county authorities, to save them from lynching, made affidavits Monday before Deputy County Clerk Charles Lambert in support of an application that will be made to Circuit Judge Harbeson, in Maysville, Tuesday, on their behalf for a change of venue. The affidavits set forth that when they were under arrest in Maysville a mob formed and attempted to get at them to lynch them, and that last week, when they were about to be removed to Maysville for trial a mob again formed and waited for them at the depot in that city for the avowed purpose of lynching them. The crime they are charged with is that of robbing, shooting and brutally beating a farmer named Farrow and his wife at their home on the outskirts of Maysville.

MINE ON FIRE.

Smoke Poured Out and the Men Were Afraid To Enter the Pit.

Lexington, Ky., June 9.—One of the new mines of the Cannel Coal Co. at Cannel City, the terminal of the L. & E. railway in Eastern Kentucky, has been burning for the past 24 hours. The fire is believed to be of incendiary origin.

The fire started 90 feet from the entrance to the mine under a hill. There being no air shaft thick volumes of smoke poured out of the mouth of the mine. None of the miners would venture in to fight the flames. After burning for some hours a few volunteered and the fire was finally subdued but it has broken out again.

Some trouble recently occurred between Superintendent M. L. Conley and the men.

SENSATIONAL RESOLUTIONS.

Ministers Assert Intention of Making Paducah a Model Town.

Paducah, Ky., June 9.—Sensational resolutions were adopted Monday by the Ministerial association. It was charged that gambling abounded, that saloons were run openly on Sunday and that illegal houses existed in all sections of Paducah. The police, mayor and police commissioners were accused of being cognizant of these infractions. The ministers say they will take steps Tuesday toward the correction of the alleged abuses, but refuse to give particulars of their intended action.

FLOOD SITUATION.

Twenty Lives Known to Have Been Lost in the Vicinity of St. Louis.

THE PROPERTY LOSS $3,000,000.

Over 200,000 Acres of Farming Land and Greater Part of Three Towns Under Water.

Several Houses at Madison, Ill., Swept From Their Foundations By the Breaking of the Levee and 15 People Were Drowned.

St. Louis, June 9.—The crest of the flood has been reached and the Mississippi is falling. At 1:30 o'clock Tuesday morning the gauge registered 37.1 feet, and indicating a fall of 4 feet since 7 o'clock Monday evening.

Reports from along the Missouri river indicate that it is falling rapidly north of there. The high water mark of the great flood of 1903 as established at St. Louis is 37.5 feet.

St. Louis, June 9.—So great an extent of territory is covered by the flood, so constantly changing are the conditions as the water creeps higher and renders the situation the more chaotic, and so unreliable are the various rumors of the devastation that a substantiated summary of the losses of lives and property can not be obtained, but Monday night information from apparently reliable sources showed the situation to be as follows:

River 37.5 feet, stationary. Twenty lives known to have been lost. Over 200,000 acres of rich farming lands under water. All of Venice and the greater part of Madison and of Granite City under water. Twenty-five thousand people homeless. Freight traffic paralyzed and passenger traffic crippled. The shipping and manufacturing district of East St. Louis for three miles along the river front under water from 2 to 8 feet of water. Hundreds of head of stock drowned. East St. Louis threatened with inundation. St. Louis flooded only along the water front. Entire property loss estimated at $3,000,000.

The flood has probably reached the zenith of its devastating power and the situation is appalling. The climax came Sunday night when by the breaking of a levee near Granite City a wall of water six feet high rushed down on Madison and deeper engulfed the already stricken city, sweeping houses from their foundations and drowning 15 refugees who were vainly fleeing for their lives. The report was current that 15 workmen in the St. Louis car and foundry works had been drowned, but later it was found that while seven employees had lost their lives, 13 others, men, women and children, had perished.

Hundreds of persons were forced to the roofs of their floating houses and an appeal was sent to St. Louis for assistance. Every effort was made to force steamers against the heavy current four miles north to the stricken town but it was only before the steamers Mark Twain and Annie Russell, lashed together and their engines working under every ounce of steam, after five hours of battle with the current, were able to reach Madison.

For the remainder of the day and into the night the work of rescuing refugees from floating houses, tree tops and various high places proceeded and there being no place to take them nearer than St. Louis, they were Monday night pouring into the city by hundreds, wet, hungry and dispirited.

River thieves are looting the various vacant houses. Men in skiffs have been seen to enter half submerged houses in Venice, Madison and Granite City, and carry away everything they could find.

In East St. Louis strings of freight cars and houses with only the roofs above the surface told of the depth of the water. Grain elevators that ordinarily stand at the edge of the Mississippi are now a mile from dry land. Business in the railroad yards was almost at a standstill.

The stench arising from the back water on the surface of which floats filth, is offensive. This is a menace to health. The sanitary department will make every effort to cleanse the district as soon as the flood has departed.

Word was received Monday night that the levee at Kemper's Landing, below St. Louis, had broken, flooding thousands of acres of fine Illinois farming land.

W. R. Wilkinson, a commission merchant at Cape Girardeau, 150 miles below St. Louis, arrived here Monday by boat after a long and hard struggle against the current and reports that the damage to crops between St. Louis and Cape Girardeau amount to $2,000,000. The river is 40 miles wide below St. Louis in low places.

The marriage of Dr. S. A. Laughlin and Miss Mary Martin Reidle, of Aberdeen, will take place the latter part of June.

Bishop H. C. Morrison, of the M. E. Church, South, will hold the Maysville District Conference at Mt. Carmel June 15-17.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perrine Boone, of Manchester, died Sunday, aged eighteen months. Mrs. Boone is a niece of Mrs. R. H. Wallace, of this city.

The personal estate of the late Edward Foley was appraised at $2,747 86, of which over $2,000 is cash in bank. Property to the value of $465 was allotted to the widow.

The insurance companies that held the policies on the Collins & Rudy planing mill will pay $4,300 and the salvage, consisting of engine, boiler and a number of wrecked wood-working machines. It was insured for $4,750.

Mr. Clarence Nower, who has filled the position of night clerk at the Central Hotel so acceptably the past few years, left for his home in Dover this morning. After a rest for a short period he will seek a new field of labor, in which his many friends here wish him unbounded success.

The ironclad warehouse recently bought by Mr. P. P. Parker at the Collins & Rudy sale will be occupied in a few days by the Maysville Broom Company. It is being fitted up for the factory. The center room of the office building will be used as the company's office, while the west room will be occupied by Mr. T. K. Proctor, Jr., as a cigar factory.

The fifteenth reunion of the old settlers of Mason, Lewis and Fleming counties will be held at Ruggles camp grounds July 4th. Dr. Wm. Bowman, of Tolleboro, is to make the welcome address, and Rev. Thomas J. Bowman, of Ripley, will also speak. The music will be in charge of Miss Della Goodwin, of Rectorville. A sketch of the Marshall family will be read.

Anxious for the Electric Road.

OWINGSVILLE, KY., June 7.—The people of this section are hopeful of securing an electric railroad from Preston to Owingsville, Sharpburg, Carlisle and Mt. Olivet. Judge John A. Ramsey is in receipt of a letter from John Duley, President of Maysville Board of Trade, requesting that a delegate from here be sent to Maysville Wednesday to represent Bath County. All the company asks is the right of way and the good will of the people. A road of that nature would open up a wealthy section.

A GOOD WOMAN GONE.

The Venerable Mrs. Hannah Mullins Passed Away Last Night After a Linger- ing Illness.

The venerable Mrs. Hannah Mullins died last night at 9 o'clock at her home on Limestone street after a lingering illness, aged eighty-four years.

In the death of this estimable woman this community, which has known her for many years, has suffered, humanly speaking, an irreparable loss. A half century has passed with its infinitely varied changes since she came among us from her lovely tropical home,—in the full grace and strength of her young womanhood and highly accomplished in the social arts which were familiar in the colonial English society of that day. During all that time of sweeping change there was no change in her. She remained to the last an ideal woman,—supreme in personal gifts and social charm; attractive alike to young and old. In the highest sense she had been an ornament and delight to the young society of those golden mid-century days which she elevated and instructed by her accomplishments, and notably by the perfections of her manner and speech. She was a model of all the virtues, and the influence of her example will be felt in this community as long as it is sensible to the impression of mental accomplishment, moral purity and social grace.

The funeral will take place to-morrow at 9 a. m. at St. Patrick's Church, of which she had long been one of the most devout members. Interment at Washington.

THOMPSON & McATEE.

FAILED TO ANSWER

Some of the Men Summoned From Magoffin County Did Not Appear at Jackson.

THEY DREAD TO MIX IN THE FEUD.

Attorney O'Neal Expressed the Opinion That Jett and White Will Be Tried Jointly.

It is Anticipated That the Additional Venire Will Put in an Appearance and the Trials Proceed Tuesday.

Jackson, Ky., June 9.—The first social function to break the monotony of camp life took place Monday when the officers gave a dinner to the young women of the town.

Ben Golden, of Barbourville, arrived Monday to assist in the defense of White and Jett. Attorney Oneal expressed the opinion Monday night that Jett and White would be tried jointly. The men continue to occupy cells in the same cage.

The town was quiet Monday night, though firing by drunken men on the outskirts of the camp is expected as a nightly occurrence. It is anticipated that the additional venire from Magoffin county will arrive and the trials proceed Tuesday. The troops look forward to the time when a verdict is returned as occasion for trouble if an attack has ever really been in contemplation by friends of the prisoners, and extra precaution will probably be coincident with the close of the trials. In the absence of Col. Williams in Lexington Maj. Allen is in command and lieutenants are performing the duties of five absent captains.

When court was convened Monday morning it was found that all the men summoned as jurors had not arrived and a recess was taken to allow them time to get here. At 10 o'clock Judge Redwine adjourned court till Tuesday morning to give time for the securing of 25 more men for jurors. It seems that the dread of mixing in the feud was so great among the Magoffin county people that nearly half of the men summoned failed to answer in court when their names were called Monday morning. Augustus Arnett and H. G. Arnett, of Salyersville, are here as attorneys for the defense to assist in the examination of the jurors. While Elisor Jones goes after more men Deputy Elisor George Whitaker is left in charge here. A large crowd had gathered in anticipation of the trials. The military guard is in charge of the courthouse and many who entered were searched for weapons.

GUARD OVERPOWERED.

Murderer of W. Cope Winslow, Jr., Lynched By An Angry Mob.

Macon, Ga., June 9.—W. Cope Winslow, Jr., whose father was one of the leading members of the Georgia bar, was instantly killed by a Negro named Banjo Peavy, on the former's farm near Fort Valley, Monday afternoon. The Negro owed Mr. Winslow a small amount of money and was asked to work out the debt. He refused and shot Mr. Winslow through the forehead. Peavy was soon captured and turned over to the sheriff. At 8:30 o'clock Monday night the officer and guard were overpowered and the Negro hanged. His body was riddled with bullets.

RACE WAR IN MISSISSIPPI.

Four Negro Men and One Negro Woman Killed and Others Beaten.

Forest, Miss., June 9.—Four Negro men and one Negro woman killed, eight or ten badly beaten and most of the other Negroes in the community ordered to leave is the result of the shooting from ambush of Mr. Craft and the wounding of Mr. Boyd by the Negroes last week. This occurred in the northern part of Smith county and the excitement there last week was intense. Reports from there now are that everything is quiet and perhaps will remain so if the Negroes ordered to leave do so at once.
