THE NOMADS.

Delightful Afternoon Spent by the Members and Their Guests Saturday.

The Nomad Club and a number of outsiders enjoyed a most delightful program last Saturday afternoon.

The end room of Washington Opera House held a goodly sized audience at the hour of 2 o'clock when Dr. Barbour presented, most graciously, Miss Kahn of Cincinnati who had come to Maysville at the club's solicitation and for the express purpose of giving some readings from Shakespeare. The club has delved deeply into the writings of Shakespeare during the entire time of the season past, so when Miss Kahn stepped forward and in the most delightful fashion commenced to give the balcony scene from "Romeo and Juliet," she must have felt that the sympathy of her hearers was instantly with her. "So easily and with such charm of manner did she speak these lines," "A clear, full voice that has fine carrying powers," "A delightful personality," "The best conception possible of the play," were remarks made by her hearers.

Most appropriate to the spirit of the occasion was the music rendered. Miss Frances Barbour played in her finished way "The Shepard" and "Morris" dances from Henry VIII. Miss Kahn followed this by two scenes from "As You Like It," and won even heartier applause than before. Here the program was varied by two vocal solos by Mrs. Conard Phister, the words thereof taken from "As You Like It." Mrs. Phister sang well, and with abandon just as she always does.

From Kipling's "Light That Failed" Miss Kahn gave a short sketch—"Melancholia," bringing it before her hearers in all its pathos; then in a happier mood and vein she responded to the encore with a "number"—"A Telephone Number," which proved most diverting, involving a woman, a bonnet, a reception and a man. The final number, a piano duet by the Misses Barbour, was in theme Shakespearean ending in a fitting way a program interesting and entertaining.

Refreshments were served, conversation was in order—thus ended the year '04 for the Nomads.

As a matter of course many who deal with us once and a while buy goods away from "home." Now "honor bright," do you derive the satisfaction from your purchases elsewhere you do from us. Do you find elsewhere the little details so carefully looked after, such as coat sleeves and pants being exactly the proper length, and not bothered with returning goods to exchange on account of fit objections? No suit of clothes leaves our house unless we are completely satisfied with the fit. When we are, "you will be too."
