Those marked with a [] have paid since the list was put in type.

Our new store increased our Linen reputation. Not that the old linen store was less worthy in qualities or price—but it couldn't show its goods properly and didn't have space to adequately prepare movements of special interest. For several seasons linen has been advancing and more and more mercerized cotton has been used to keep prices down. But of one thing be assured cotton mixtures find no entrance to this stock, and we rely on orders, placed often twelve months in advance, to keep prices lower than elsewhere. As proof—

Cream Table Damask, 63 in. wide. Heavy quality in four excellent patterns. 50c. yd.

Cream Table Damask, 64 in. wide. Pretty patterns, some with match Napkins, 68c. yd.

Fine Bohemian drill Napkins, bought at a special price which enables us to sell in dozen lots, the $1.30 quality for $1.10; $1.50 quality for $1.25.

Scotch Huckaback Towels, 18x37 in. Hemmed ends, plain white or with red borders, 12 1/2c. each.

Double Stamps Saturday. Don't miss the chance to make 8 per cent. on your investments here.

D. HUNT & SON.
