The Human Electrical Forces!
How They Control the Organs of the Body.

The electrical force of the human body, as the nerve fluid may be termed, is an especially attractive department of science, as it exerts so marked an influence on the health of the organs of the body. Nerve force is produced by the brain and conveyed by means of the nerves to the various organs of the body, thus supplying the latter with the vitality necessary to insure their health. The pneumogastric nerve, as shown here, may be said to be the most important of the entire nerve system, as it supplies the heart, lungs, stomach, bowels, etc., with the nerve force necessary to keep them active and healthy. As will be seen by the cutting the long nerve descending from the base of the brain and terminating in the bowels, the numerous little branches supply the heart, lungs and stomach with necessary vitality. When the brain becomes in any way disordered by irritability or exhaustion, the nerve force which it supplies is lessened, and the organs receiving the diminished supply are consequently weakened.

Physicians generally fail to recognize the importance of this fact, but treat the organs instead of the cause of the trouble. The great specialist, Franklin Miles, M. D., L. B., has given the greater part of his life to the study of this subject, and the principal discoveries concerning it are due to his efforts. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, the unrivaled brain and nerve food, is prepared on the principle that all nervous and many other difficult diseases originate from disorders of the nerve centers. Its wonderful success in curing these disorders is testified to by thousands in every part of the world. Restorative Nervine cures sleeplessness, nervous prostration, dizziness, hysteria, sexual debility, St. Vitus dance, epilepsy, etc. It is free from opiates or dangerous drugs. It is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid.

Sonora Cattle.

Saturday a herd of cattle from Sonora, the property of Pedro Aguirre were brought in, to be followed by another Monday. The total of the shipment is 1100 head. The purchaser is Mr. Ayers, of California. The cattle were gathered in Sonora, and are the best brought from there since the Wilson duty on stock went into effect. Mr. Aguirre met a considerable loss in transit. He had the cattle round-up at Buenos Ayres, and sent to Nogales for an inspector. Instead of the man came a notification to bring them to Nogales to be inspected there. The journey from Buenos Ayres to Nogales was very rough, and in the course of it the stock stampeded and 45 head got away. Subsequently 10 more head were left behind on account of tender feet, due to the long journey. --Tucson Citizen.

One of the large express companies recently published the following orders which are interesting as showing the regard of events in their bearing on the liquor question:

Personal conduct of employees.—1. The following circular which has been issued by the officials of the western department meets with our full approval and is to be understood as applying generally in the company's business thereafter:

"To Superintendents, Route Agents and Employes Western Department: 2. We have been making inquiries recently into causes leading up to deductions, shortages or dishonesty among our employes during the past year, which we regret to say have been very large in number. From the result of these inquiries we are led to make the broad statement that many of them if not the majority, arose through the negligence of superintendents, route agents or general agents in failing to epimani or caution the more useful our service against practices of drinking or frequenting saloons or other resorts where pernicious habits are formed. It seems impossible that officials of the company should be so slack in looking into the habits of their employes at the statement made above, placing the moral responsibility at their door, borne out by the facts. Many of those who have embezzled or committed thefts would never had done so had a word of caution or reprimand been given at the proper time.

3. Hereafter we shall hold the superintendents, route agents or general agents personally responsible for any loss occurring through failure to properly exercise their authority in the matter of controlling the habits of drinking or gambling of the men they employ.

4. Any employe seen taking a drink of liquor while on duty or during business hours should be cautioned once, and on repeating the offense, be immediately discharged. If an employe is known to drink to excess while off duty, and repeatedly, he should be dismissed from the service. It is expected that you will know positively whether any men under your supervision gamble, and a man once found so doing must not be retained in the service a single day.

5. These two things, drinking and gambling, are the beginning of nine-tenths of the defalcations or stealing of our employes, and knowing this, you are morally responsible for the wrongdoing of a man you have failed to caution, and you are responsible to the company for any loss occurring because of failure to discharge him when you find your caution is not heeded.

Now, this is all right. We rejoice in it. Business men who intrust valuable packages to express companies will feel that there interests are safer. We are glad that certain railroads are insisting upon the practical prohibition of the liquor traffic as far as their subordinates are concerned. That is good. It means better and more reliable engineers, switchmen, firemen, conductors, train dispatchers, etc. Travel will be safer and fewer people will be slaughtered in railroad catastrophes. All this is good. The regulations are right and should be enforced without fear or favor. But they do not go far enough. The railroad people are inconsistent. They lop off only a single branch of the deadly upas tree.

Honor, common-sense, and justice compel consistency. What right has a man to say to his employe, "Thou shalt not drink or gamble," and then offer him liquor and the opportunities for gambling? What consistency is there in publishing prohibitory regulations while keeping liquors for sale on the trains and in the station dining-rooms.

Then the regulations should apply to all employes. Why excuse any? Are not all responsible? Why put an engineer under bonds and allow a division superintendent to run at large? We have a letter from a railroad man in which he states that one day, while at lunch in a railway restaurant, the general superintendent, master mechanic, and superintendent of the bridge and building department of his road entered the restaurant in a state of heastly intoxication. And he makes other statements that are equally serious.

These corporations are so big and mended for every good influence they exert, but it is only fair that their relation with their employes should be consistent. It is not honorable to preach compulsory sobriety to a man and at the same time set snares for his feet.—Epworth Herald.

Cardinal Manning said upon one occasion: "Christians should feel the burning shame upon the Christian world and the Christian name that they, who are the only followers of the Divine Master, are the only men on earth who are stained and shamed by the manufacture and consumption of strong drink.

"Indian, Oriental and Chinese were bound by their religion not to take it, and they only broke through the rule where the Christian name had spread.

"This was to him a sting and a shame that he could not express. As men of prudence and justice they ought to prevent half-a-million of men becoming richer at the cost of misery and degradation to tens and thousands of the people.

"Any prudent man would say this waste ought not to go on, and any good citizen would agree that this great moral evil, which was desolating the land and destroying the people, ought to cease."

Every day brings to the army of temperance workers some new cause for thanksgiving. An exchange headed in this week by a friend contains the statement that Secretary Herbert has decided that there must be no more intoxication among the navy officers, even when off duty.

An Open Letter.

LA CROSSE, Wis., March 11, 1895.

EDITOR OF THE SUN, Flagstaff, A. T.

DEAR SIR:—In answer to your favor of the 8th instant we would say that we guarantee "Baco-Curo" to do that which no other tobacco treatment will do. You can use tobacco while you are taking "Baco-Curo," and we positively guarantee that it will make you stop, and stop for good; and in case it does not do this we guarantee not only to refund you your money, but agree to pay you 10 per cent. interest upon it.

You will find inclosed copies of three letters, which speak for themselves. The first is a letter of testimonial from Mr. C. W. Hornick, Superintendent of the St. Paul Pioneer Press Company; the second, V. E. Head, of Louisville, Ky., to Mr. Hornick, in regard to his letter of testimonial; and the third is Mr. Hornick's answer to his letter of inquiry.

If you should care to make any further inquiries in regard to "Baco-Curo" we will refer you to any bank in La Crosse, or, upon receipt of postal, will mail you one of our booklets on our scientific cure for the tobacco habit, or will send you a sample box on receipt of six two-cent stamps. Trusting this is satisfactory to you, we remain, Yours respectfully,

OFFICE OF PIONEER PRESS COMPANY, C. W. HORNICK, SUPERINTENDENT, ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 7, 1894.—(Dictated by C. W. H.—EUREKA CHEMICAL & MANUFACTURING COMPANY, LA CROSSE.)

DEAR SIR: I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until, my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco, for the time being at least. I tried the so-called "Keweenaw Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself completely cured; I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every lucubrate another duly appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it. Yours very truly,

C. W. HORNICK.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 5 1894.—MR. C. W. HORNICK, ST. PAUL.—DEAR SIR: Will you please write me in confidence your opinion of "Baco-Curo," if it really does what is claimed for it, and also in regard to the Eureka Chemical & Manufacturing Company. Are they reliable? Any information that you give me will be appreciated. Yours very truly,

V. E. HEAD, 1321 W. Chestnut st., Louisville, Ky.

OFFICE OF PIONEER PRESS COMPANY, C. W. HORNICK, SUPERINTENDENT, Dictated by C. W. H.—St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 8, 1894.—MR. V. E. HEAD, 1321 Chestnut street, Louisville, Ky.—DEAR SIR: I have your favor 5th instant. I used "Baco-Curo" personally with result given in testimonial, which I sent them. I can only speak for the preparation as it affected myself, and judging from what it did for me, I can safely recommend it to anyone. As far as the company is concerned, I believe they are perfectly responsible. Their list of officers and directors includes many well known and wealthy men of La Crosse, Wisconsin. Before taking the preparation, I submitted it to my physician, and he told me I could take it without harm to myself. Yours truly,

C. W. HORNICK.

NEWS OF ARIZONA.

There is a good demand for steers at a very fair figure, $12.50 for 2's, $15.50 for 3's. We are advised that all have been contracted for June delivery.—St. Johns Herald.

A prominent cattleman said yesterday that between six and seven thousand head of cattle had been contracted for in Pima county by eastern stock-growers to be delivered in May.—Star.

The Southern Pacific coal prospecting company that started for the San Carlos reservation last week proposes to sink a diamond drill 1000 feet in the Gila river bottom, not far above Solomonville.

Alfalfa hay is getting scarce on the San Pedro river, owing to the large quantities which have been shipped to Minas Prietas, in Mexico. It is estimated that over 800 tons have been shipped to that place.

From Sunflower Jesus Otero brings good reports of fat cattle and rich feed there. The rodeo will begin about the 20th at McDowell, and from there go as far as Camp Creek, taking in the Verde country. A good calf crop is expected.—Gazette.

The Phoenix schools were closed for the term last Friday because of the insufficiency of the appropriation to continue the session longer. The attempt to keep them going to the close of the school year by private subscription was abandoned, owing to lack of monetary support.

Peter J. Bolan fell down stairs at his hotel in Redondo on the 14th instant and broke his neck. Mr. Bolan was the first district attorney of Graham county and was a prominent democratic politician during his ten years residence in Arizona. He moved to Redondo, Cal., about five years ago.

About the middle of April our cattlemen will begin gathering cattle for shipment to Kansas City. Four thousand or more head will be shipped. During that time Hackberry will be a busy scene and several thousand dollars will be taken in by the enterprising citizens of that town.—Mohave Miner.

The renegade Apache Kid is said to have taken in the parade at Phoenix. An old mountaineer claims to have recognized the Indian outlaw, and says he seemed much impressed with the showing made by his red brethren and the pale-face cowboy. Between two moons he promises to leave bloody evidence of his trail in the Humbug district.

The Mission San Xavier del Bac, nine miles from Tucson, is undergoing extensive repairs. San Xavier is one of the oldest of the old churches of the southwest, and a wonderful piece of architecture when the fact is considered that it was built centuries ago of stone and brick in a wild country where savages roamed and relentlessly butchered those who might cross their path.

Quite a boom prevails in the cattle business. Prices have advanced considerably and there is an increasing demand for all kinds of stock. A gentleman remarked yesterday that the outlook was better now than it had been for five years. Yesterday two train loads shipped by George Pusch left for California, and it is likely that five more trainloads will leave inside of a few days. For two weeks there have been several California buyers in the county.—Star.

Roays, the great Peralta had grant fraud, has been abandoned by his lawyers. Prior to the investigations into his rascality by the land court he was waited upon by the greatest legal talent in the country, but since the expose he has had not even a representative upon which service of the court could be had. As service was necessary the government was under pains of looking the fellow up, and when discovered he denied his identity and endeavored to escape service under the plea that he was a physician and not the man sought, but it was secured all the same.—Tucson Citizen.
