

turns away his glance falls upon the pine needles that cushion the rugged rocks and he feels that these are as important as I in God's eternal world.

"There is but one way to become impressed with this magnificent and stupendous rugged scene—this grandest scene of all ever produced by nature's colossal hand, that is to drink in its immensity through the human eye: none can fittingly describe it; no hand, however skilled in art, can ever produce anything that will present to the human mind a clear conception to its magnitude.

The Circus Commended.

All exchanges from places where the great Wallace shows have exhibited seem to be a unit in praising the great Wallace shows. The Dubuque (Ia.) Daily Times said:

"The show continued about two and one-half hours and when the people went away they had only words of the highest commendation. The whole circus is clean and up-to-date; it is well directed and conducted faultlessly. It is replete with new acts performed by the best actors in the business. The accoutrements are all attractive and the people's wardrobe handsome. When the Wallace shows come again more than 10,000 people will await their coming."

These shows will exhibit in Flagstaff on Thursday, Nov. 10th.

A mother's meeting will be held by the W. C. T. U. at the house of Mrs. W. H. Campbell, Tuesday, November 8th, at 4 p. m. This will be the first of a series, for the consideration of the mental and physical development of children and their home training. The ordinary meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held in the Methodist church Tuesday, Nov. 15th at 4 p. m.
