

Former Chief Justice Shot.

Two footpads shot and dangerously wounded, late Sunday night in Los Angeles, Judge H. C. Gooding, formerly chief justice of Arizona, at his own door. When the men called to him to hold up his hands the judge thought they were neighbors playing a practical joke. When he saw they were in dead earnest he became angered, and instead of yielding his money and watch, which they demanded, he grappled with the nearest man, and was getting the best of the fight, when the robber's partner shot him near the heart. The doctors say the judge will probably live, but his wound is dangerous.

Gooding was appointed chief justice of Arizona by President Harrison, and at the close of Harrison's administration went to Los Angeles, where he has since practiced law. He has been prominent in Republican politics and Grand Army circles.

But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50c, at Pioneer Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.
