

The Coconino Sun

VOL. XVIII.

FLAGSTAFF, APRIL 13, 1901.

No. 15

LOCAL BREVITIES.

C. P. Reilly is clerking at Cameron's camp.

Timerhoff's poultry powder cures chicken cholera.

John Hennessy, foreman of the C. O. ranch is in with a bunch of beeves.

Ed. I. Gale left Monday for a trip to the Last Chance mine in the Grand Canyon.

N. W. Tarr, a prominent citizen of Kingman, spent several days here during the week.

Born—In Milton, Arizona, on Sunday, April 7, 1901, to the wife of T. A. Riordan, a daughter.

The Pittsburgh Copper Mining Co.'s outfit left yesterday with a big force of men and a large supply of provisions.

The Imperial Steam Laundry of Albuquerque, is represented in Flagstaff by Geo. E. Palmer. Give him your laundry.

C. H. McClure came in from the Copper King mine Thursday. He reports the mine improving and the ore body increasing.

Babbitt Bros. yesterday received a car of Navajo blankets from the New Mexico trading posts. This is the largest shipment ever received here.

The Racket Store in order to close out entire stock of second-hand goods and Chinaware offers them at cost. Call and make your purchases before it is too late.

For Sale—Hoosier grain drill, 6-inch hoe, in first-class condition. Price reasonable. Drill may be seen at my ranch, three miles north of town. W. H. Anderson.

Walter Beeson spent Monday here. He is with the bridge gang of the Santa Fe Pacific in California. He has leased his Rogers' Lake ranch to P. A. Fenton and Clark Long.

F. S. Breen, supervisor of the San Francisco mountains forest reserve, will leave Monday for a month's vacation which he will spend at his old home in Kankakee county, Illinois.

The Racket Store is closing out a choice line of Chinaware at cost price and other goods will be sold at or below cost. Remember this is an opportunity that you cannot afford to miss.

F. J. Hochderffer and family returned from Southern Arizona Monday. They spent the winter in Phoenix and Safford, in Graham county. Mr. Hochderffer is satisfied that there is no better place in Arizona than Flagstaff.

Smallpox has appeared in some of the towns in northern Arizona. It is reported that Gallup has a half a hundred cases, Winslow has five cases and Kingman and Needles has each one case. Flagstaff has been fortunate this year in escaping the scourge.

Miss Jennie Pattee, who has been visiting with relatives here for some months, returned to her home in Flagstaff, Arizona, last Thursday morning. Miss Pattee has made a host of friends in Gallup during her stay, who will be pleased to see her again in the near future. She is a first-class type-setter and held a case in the Republican office for some time past—Gallup Republican.

Typewriter papers in various weights at Timerhoff's.

The Racket Store is selling out at cost its stock of Chinaware.

John Clark returned Saturday from a trip to the Navajo reservation.

It keeps them well and makes them lay—Timerhoff's poultry powder.

J. M. Brannen and wife, of Winslow, spent several days here this week.

John H. Richards, a prominent citizen of Navajo county, was here Tuesday.

Geo. Schaal, the Winslow jeweler, spent Thursday here with his friend, W. M. Miller.

Mrs. A. A. Cameron and son, Harry, left Wednesday for Chicago, on an extended visit.

W. G. McDonald, vice-president of the Dennis Lumber Company, of Rhoades, was in town Tuesday.

William Babbitt returned to Dodge City, Kansas, to look after the stock business of Babbitt Bros., near there.

Rev. J. H. Henry attended the Territorial Sunday-school convention at Prescott this week, returning Thursday.

Agents wanted, ladies or men, to sell gilt-edge oil stocks. Queen Oil Co., 916 Market street, San Francisco, California.

Village school shoes for boys and girls. The best school shoe ever brought to Flagstaff are sold by the New York Store.

W. D. Block left Monday night for Winslow, where he has accepted a position of stenographer in the office of the agent of the Santa Fe Pacific at that place.

Lost—A pocketbook containing papers, etc., of no value to anyone but the owner. The finder will be rewarded by returning the same to this office or to William D. Powell.

The Racket Store is the place to secure bargains in Chinaware at cost price. Nothing reserved and every article in the store is for sale. Call and get your choice and avoid the rush.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church will give a social at the home of Mrs. A. M. Cameron, Friday evening, April 19. Refreshments will be served from 8 to 10 p. m., the proceeds to go towards repairing the church. All are cordially invited.

The members of the board of trustees of the Northern Arizona Normal held a meeting Thursday for the transaction of business under the new law. A. A. Dutton was elected secretary of the board. The members of the board are R. L. Long, territorial superintendent of public instruction, chairman, A. A. Dutton, secretary, and T. E. Pollock.

THE SUN acknowledges the receipt of a booklet entitled the Twenty-first Legislature of Arizona by J. H. McClintock. It contains half-tones of the governor, secretary and the members of the council and the house, with biographical sketches of each member. The booklet is fairly well printed, the half-tones make but a poor showing, due largely to the color of the ink used by the printer. The booklet contains much to interest Arizonans, and the sketches are well written.

P. A. Johns, of Prescott, is a visitor here.

School supplies of all kinds at Timerhoff's.

Lawrence Doyle, the mason and contractor, is in town from Los Angeles.

A. W. Pollard and wife of Madison, Wis., were tourist visitors here this week.

J. W. Weatherford and wife, of the Hotel Weatherford, spent Monday in Williams.

F. Rathburn, Matt Shea and Fred Hankins, of Jerome, spent several days here this week.

Fire Insurance—The Arizona Central Bank represents a number of the largest American and English companies.

Harvey Beasley and family returned Tuesday. They have been in Yavapai and Maricopa counties during the past four months.

D. M. Cuthbert, a representative of the State Mutual Loan Association of Los Angeles, spent several days here looking after the loans of that concern.

H. E. Bateman and W. C. Bateman, of Pittsburgh, Pa., are looking over Arizona having returned from a trip to Phoenix. They will visit the points of interest in this vicinity.

George Hochderffer and family returned last week from Phoenix. Major Hochderffer was the efficient sergeant-at-arms of the house during the session of the Twenty-first Arizona legislature.

Have you ever read any of Swedenborg's works? If not, send me your address enclosing a stamp or two and I will mail one of his books free. Adolph Roeder, 80 Cleveland street, Orange, New Jersey.

The Junior Epworth League held a social at the Bank Hotel hall yesterday afternoon. The little folks had an enjoyable time and showed the older members of the league how such affairs should be conducted.

Attorney E. S. Clark, the man who went to Washington and by his exertions backed by justice and the law kept Coconino county from being made a reservation, is attending court. He is a man that a client could repose confidence in.—Kingman Mineral Wealth.

There never has been such a demand for lumber in Arizona as at present. The saw mill of the Arizona Lumber & Timber Company is running day and night, and the Geenlaw mill is running overtime in order to fill the orders now on hand. As orders keep coming in this state of things is likely to exist for some months to come. The demand for lumber in the territory is a sure indication that Arizona is in a prosperous condition.

Last Sunday evening at the Methodist church instead of the regular services by the pastor, an Easter entertainment was given by the members of the Epworth League and the Sunday-school. The program was well arranged, consisting of songs and recitations and the little folks did their best to make the entertainment an enjoyable one to all present, in which they succeeded most admirably. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity with an appreciative audience of listeners, and the call for a contribution for the foreign missions was liberally responded to.

Ed. R. Geddes, of Williams, was a visitor here this week.

A line of fine writing tablets and paperies at Timerhoff's.

N. G. Layton, probate judge, visited the public schools of Williams this week.

H. L. Christie and Howard Marine returned yesterday from a trip to Coconino Point.

William Pool, who is bookkeeper for Max Salzman, of Williams, spent several days here this week.

E. E. Ellinwood returned from Kingman Wednesday where he has been for the past ten days on legal business.

Frank Conrard, brother of Herman Conrard, arrived from Cincinnati, Ohio, last week, and has accepted a position in the mill.

Village school shoes for boys and girls. The best school shoe ever brought to Flagstaff are sold by the New York Store.

J. M. Dennis and wife, of Rhoades, are in town today. Mrs. Dennis has but recently returned from an extended visit with friends in the east.

J. A. Vail returned today from his Red Rock ranch where he turned over a band of horses to John Woody and others, who will drive them to California, where they expect to sell them.

W. H. Campbell, returned from Phoenix Tuesday. His bands of sheep are still in the Salt River valley. Both grass and water is plentiful in the foothills.

W. O. Secor, a former resident of this place, but now connected with the civil engineering department of the Santa Fe Pacific at Los Angeles, spent several days here this week.

A. E. Tarot and wife returned from Phoenix Thursday. The automobile will be here some time next week, and we understand that the automobile line will be opened between Flagstaff and the Grand Canyon next month.

George K. Woods and wife, returned from Bright Angel hotel, Grand Canyon, where Mr. Woods has been manager of the Thurber stage line. J. W. Thurber this week sold a half interest in his stage line and hotel to Martin Bugglyn, of Williams, and he has taken charge of the business at the Canyon.

E. S. Clark, who attended court from Flagstaff, was one of the attorneys before the interior department several months ago when the matter of the Grand Canyon forest reserve was under discussion. He made one of the best arguments ever submitted to the department and succeeded in leaving the reserve open to sheepmen of his county. Mr. Clark is one of the brightest lawyers in Arizona and will hereafter follow the northern circuit.—Mohave Miner.

A party of Santa Fe officials of the land department are here on business connected with that department. The party consist of the following gentlemen: E. D. Kenna, general solicitor of the Santa Fe, with headquarters in Chicago; Captain C. N. Sterry, solicitor of the Santa Fe lines west of Albuquerque; Land Commissioner Jones, and W. F. Taliaferro, of Los Angeles. They are looking over the lands of the Santa Fe Pacific in this vicinity, and made a trip over the Central Arizona railroad today to see the lands along the line of that road.