

Photoduplicate
Territorial Library Feb. 1 1900

The Coconino Sun

VOL. XVIII.

FLAGSTAFF, JULY 20, 1901.

No. 29

LOCAL BREVITIES.

E. H. Webb of Prescott, was here Friday.

Coffin's specials—fresh fruits and vegetables.

Mrs. Walton of New York is visiting her son, R. B. Walton.

Miss Kitty Gribben returned from California this morning.

Dr. W. S. Robinson has moved his office to rooms over the postoffice.

Miss Ruth Barrett, who has been here for some time, left for Pasadena, Cal., yesterday.

J. C. Herndon, a prominent attorney of Prescott, spent several days here during the week.

Julius Herman, proprietor of the New York Store, left Monday for San Francisco on a business and pleasure trip.

Gov. N. O. Murphy spent Wednesday night and Thursday here. He expects to spend several weeks here during next month.

W. C. Campbell, attorney for the Santa Fe, Prescott & Phoenix railroad, spent several days here this week on legal business.

A. T. Cornish and son Tim returned from Los Angeles on Tuesday. Mrs. Cornish is undergoing medical treatment at a hospital in that city.

FOR RENT—Two well furnished rooms in the central part of the city; in private family; for steady men; rates reasonable. Inquire at this office.

No trace has been found of John McCarthy, the ex-game commissioner, who was lost in the southeastern part of the county six weeks ago. The search is still being kept up.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eggers of Cincinnati, O., are spending the summer here. Mr. Eggers is a member of the firm of Smith, Eggers & Company, carriage manufacturers, of that city.

A serious wreck occurred four miles west of here Wednesday morning. A number of cars loaded with oil went in the ditch, and it took the wrecking crew the best part of two days to clear it up.

Dr. E. S. Miller left Wednesday to attend the meeting of the Grand Lodge B. P. O. E., at Milwaukee, Wis., as a representative of Flagstaff Lodge, No. 499. Before his return he will visit his former home in New York.

Superintendent King has returned from Flagstaff, where he has been to perfect arrangements for shipping machinery and supplies for the Grand Prize Company, operating in Tonto Basin. A smelter of 100 tons daily capacity is now on the way from Denver, and will be erected on the company's property as quickly as men and money can do so.—Jerome News.

A quiet wedding took place at the Catholic church on Tuesday evening. The contracting parties were Mr. Raymond J. Kelly of Ashland, Ky., and Miss Marguerite Hagerty of Chicago, Ill. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Cyprian Vabre. Mr. Kelly is the cashier of the Santa Fe railroad at Ash Fork and the bride is recently from the East. The happy couple will reside in Ash Fork, and left for that place Wednesday.

Buy a Brownie kodak, $1, at Babbitt Bros.

Mrs. Geo. P. Sampson and son of Winslow are spending the month here.

If you want something really fine in the way of fresh fruits, go to Coffin's new store.

When you want the best goods for the least money buy of P. R. Weatherford & Co.

Miss Fannie Peck of Phoenix arrived Tuesday and will spend the summer here.

The finest of flavors and the best cream is used in our ice cream sodas. W. H. Timerhoff.

Frank C. Reid left Wednesday for Denver, Chicago, Detroit and Buffalo. He expects to spend the next sixty days in the East.

Call at the Pioneer Drug Store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.

On Sunday at 11 a. m. in the Methodist church Rev. Adams, D. D., former superintendent of the Arizona mission, will preach. Other services as usual.

"It could not be better," is the universal verdict of all who have tried Timerhoff's ice cream sodas. Made of pure cream and flavored with crushed fruits.

Mrs. T. S. Bunch and children and Mrs. J. E. Jones and children are spending the week camping at Little Springs, on the northwest side of the San Francisco peaks.

A. V. Blair, wife and sons of Beloit, Wis., are recent arrivals here. They are friends of Prof. A. N. Taylor and are occupying his residence during the absence of Prof. Taylor and family.

Prof. A. N. Taylor, principal of the Northern Arizona Normal, accompanied by his family, left Monday on a visit to his former home in Jamestown, N. Y. They will be away until September 1.

Mr. Allen, the photographer, who spent several months here last year, and who is now located in Jerome, is here on his way to Oak creek, where he will spend the next four weeks. Mr. Brennan, his partner, is visiting the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo.

J. C. Phelan of Williams who has been here since the 1st of July, in his capacity of chairman of the board of equalization, returned home to-day. He says that the rebuilding of Williams is going on at a lively rate, and that his new brick building will soon be ready for occupancy.

D. L. Cunningham, the Williams attorney, was in town this week. During the recent fire at Williams he lost his office furniture, valued at a few hundred dollars. His library was in a brick vault, his books and papers passing through the fire with but little damage. He considers himself fortunate in losing so little.

The baseball season opened Sunday at Williams with a game between Flagstaff and Williams. The game was played throughout with a vim, and it took eleven innings to decide which was the better team. Flagstaff won—11 to 10. The second game of the series will be played here to-morrow on the grounds south of town, and will be between Flagstaff and Winslow. Good ball is promised.

Take your girl to Timerhoff's for an ice cream soda.

George Coffin and his bride will arrive from the East to-morrow.

Eastman's kodaks and photo supplies at Eastern prices at Babbitt's.

The best pure sap maple syrup to be found at P. R. Weatherford & Co.'s.

T. A. Fleming, the Williams merchant, spent several days here during the week.

Mrs. John W. Francis and children are spending a couple of weeks at Seligman.

P. R. Weatherford & Co., have just received a car of the celebrated Club House Flour.

James A. Lamport has sold his residence on Cherry avenue to William Roden. The price paid was $1,000.

Fire Insurance—The Arizona Central Bank represents a number of the largest American and English companies.

Major G. C. Hochderffer will inspect Company I, Monday night at the Armory, by order of General Robinson, of Phoenix.

Geo. U. Young, editor of the Williams News, was here Thursday. He has received his new printing plant and the News will be issued regularly, as usual.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will give an ice cream social at the New Bank hotel, on Friday evening, July 26. There will be a good program and all are invited to attend.

Ashton Nebeker came in from the Tuba City country yesterday. Mr. Nebeker says the chinch bugs have been very destructive to oats in his locality, in some places making a complete sweep of the crop.

The sad news of the death of Mrs. James Hartsock of Chicago, says the Jerome News, reached here this week. Mrs. Hartsock was a sister of Mrs. James Page of Oak Creek and Mrs. Sam Heslett of Jerome.

J. H. Richards of St. Joseph, Ariz., who was the original contractor in the building of the Grand Canyon railroad was here Thursday. He compromised the judgement obtained against the defunct railroad and through the liberality of the bond holders committee he considers himself just that much ahead.

Dr. Garrett Newkirk will deliver the second lecture of the Reading Room course this evening at public school hall. Subject, "Poetry and Poets." Dr. Newkirk is an author of recognized merit and a popular lecturer. His analysis of poetry will be illustrated by brief readings. Those who attend are promised a literary treat.

A sad accident occurred Wednesday afternoon at Bellemont. Angela Patricia, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Gavin of Flagstaff, fell into an abandoned well, sustaining injuries which caused her death. Mrs. Gavin and the children were visiting Mrs. Black at the pumphouse, near Bellemont, and the children were playing around the old well, when the little one fell in, and was suffocated before help arrived. The funeral took place from the Church of the Nativity yesterday morning and was attended by a large number of sympathizing friends of the stricken family.

Fresh berries of all varieties at Coffin's.

Judge R. E. Sloan returned to Prescott this morning.

See prices on shoes at Weatherford & Co., before buying elsewhere.

Born, in Flagstaff, July 19, 1901, to the wife of Julius Herman, a daughter.

Chas. H. Peck, a mining man of St. Louis, is registered at the Weatherford.

Dr. J. C. Norton of Phoenix, territorial veterinary surgeon, was here Thursday.

For Rent—Small house near Catholic church, partly furnished. Apply at this office.

E. M. Sanford, a prominent attorney of Prescott, was here on legal business yesterday.

If you want a good trunk for a small amount of money call on P. R. Weatherford & Co.

M. Salzman, J. B. Girard, John H. Page and C. M. Hayes of Williams were here this week.

The services of an experienced nurse can be obtained by applying to Mrs. A. Grant, at Mrs. Murphy's.

Mrs. Ferd R. Nellis of Williams, who has been spending the past two weeks here, left for her home to-day.

Agents wanted, ladies or men, to sell gilt-edge oil stocks. Queen Oil Co., 916 Market street, San Francisco, California.

Ben Coffin came in from Bakersfield, Cal., this morning, after an absence of two years. He will probably remain a couple of weeks.

J. C. Grim and family left Friday for Finnie's ranch on Beaver creek. Mrs. Grim and daughters will remain there until September 1.

J. M. Dennis, president of the Dennis Lumber company, of Rhoades, was here this week and took in the sale of the Grand Canyon railroad.

R. R. Coleman, the contractor of the Grand Canyon railroad, was here this week attending the closing up of the affairs of that defunct corporation.

The next session of district court for Coconino county will be held on September 16, that being the date of the beginning of the regular September term.

Little Miss Cecelia Thompson, who has been spending the past two years with her aunt, Mrs. D. J. Brannen, left for her home in St. Ignace, Mich., Wednesday.

The New Bank hotel has been re-furnished and is now open to the public. Mrs. F. T. McMillan is the new manager, and will for the present run the hotel on the European plan.

Some tramps robbed Indian Joe's house one day last week. They took about everything they could carry away. Joe is an honest, hardworking citizen, and it is a pity the thieves could not be caught and punished.

Elder E. W. Webster of the Adventist church is in town at present and is conducting a bible school at that church. Preaching Sunday evenings at 8 o'clock and bible classes at same hour on Tuesdays and Thursdays. All are invited to bring bibles and study together. All are permitted to ask questions on proper bible subjects. Subject for study next week, holy spirit and faith.