

Safeguard Your Food
by Always Using

Dr. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

Made from Pure Grape Cream of Tartar

Its purity, wholesomeness and superior leavening qualities are never questioned.

NO ALUM—NO LIME PHOSPHATE

"Alum is a powerful astringent with very decided irritant qualities, owing to which, when taken internally in sufficient quantity, it is emetic and purgative, and may soon cause fatal gastrointestinal inflammation."—U. S. Dispensary, p. 144.

"The use of alum and salts of alumina in food should be prohibited."—Prof. Wood, Harvard Univ.

Notice that all advertisements of the cheap baking powders
conceal the presence of alum;
Therefore read the label.

Local and Personal

"Tex" Singleton returned from the east yesterday.

Joe Griffith returned last night from Ray, Arizona.

Sanford Rowe was in this week attending court from his ranch in Coconino basin.

Hon. Fred Nelson, of St. Johns, prominent financier and legal light of Apache county, was in the city Wednesday.

Al Beasley returned Sunday from the south with a car load of horses that have been wintering near Phoenix.

Charles Lincoln, without quite as much fame as Old Abe, but just as honest, came in this week from Cottonwood.

Fred Volz, the man who made Canyon Diablo famous, returned Wednesday from Missouri, and is well pleased to be back in the great west again.

New shipment of millinery will be on sale Saturday. Call and see the latest styles in ladies', misses' and children's hats—at residence of Mrs. W. H. Power.

A wreck was reported west of Seligman last Sunday, in which all of the switch crew on a helper engine but one were killed. Trains were delayed several hours.

Lame shoulder is nearly always due to rheumatism of the muscles and quickly yields to the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment. For sale by all dealers.

Mr. Allison, a Nebraska horseman, was in the city this week and will roundup 500 head of horses bought of the U. S. Livestock company and ship them back to Nebraska.

E. S. Carlos' familiar face was much in evidence at the court house this week. He was acting as a special deputy sheriff. The court business would not run well without him.

Paul Work returned from the Santa Fe hospital at Los Angeles last week, where he had gone for an operation on a troublesome ear. The treatment received did not seem to improve it, so he returned to Flagstaff for treatment and is doing well.

Mrs. W. H. Power wishes to thank the ladies of Flagstaff for their patronage, and would like to state that she expects a new shipment of goods by Saturday, and would be pleased to have the ladies call and see them, at her residence.

Wm. Babbitt left last evening for Dodge City, Kansas, on a business trip.

Dividing Line Agreed Upon

A meeting of stockmen was held last evening at the Commercial hotel to confer with Special Agent Johnson of the Indian service, to decide upon a dividing line between open range and Indian allotments. It was agreed that the old Tuba City road should stand as the line. The division was considered equitable by both parties to the discussion.

Commencement, May Eleventh

The Northern Arizona Normal school faculty have issued handsomely engraved invitations for the commencement exercises which will take place Thursday morning, May 11, 1911, at 10 o'clock, at the Normal hall. The class of '11 roll is as follows: Maurice H. Blome, Alice Regina Carlson, Florence Ruth Haskins, Helen May Kepner, Lula Mary Rafoth, Alberta Schwalbe.

Quick Trip From Canyon

The automobile party, consisting of A. J. Diamond, Ray Babbitt and Chauffeur McLucas, returned yesterday from the Grand Canyon in an Overland auto in five hours. They came around east of the mountain.

It was a fast trip over an ordinary, unrepaired road, and shows what could be done in the way of an auto highway at little expense.

THOMAS HUBBELL COMMITTS SUICIDE

Despondent over the illness which would have ended his life in a few days, Thomas H. Hubbell, for years prominent in public life in New Mexico, shot and killed himself Thursday morning at Albuquerque. Hubbell was for 12 years the sheriff of Bernalillo county during the days when it was infested with outlaws. Alonzo and Charles Hubbell, wealthy stockmen of Arizona, are his brothers.

Captain Martin Married

Captain Joseph Hooker Martin, a brother of Mrs. John M. Clark of this city, was married in Tucson last week to Miss Alice Collister, a prominent young society lady of that city. Captain Martin is captain of Co. K of the Arizona National guard and is one of the popular line officers of the regiment.
